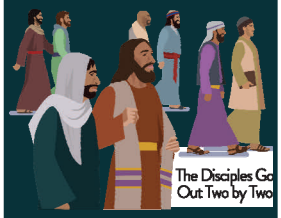
15th Sunday In Ordinary Time

1st Reading
Amos 7:12–15 Go, prophesy to my people.
Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 85 "Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.
2nd Reading
"Ephesians 1:3–14 or 1:3–10
God chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world.
Today's Gospel
Mark 6:7–13 He began to send them out.



From Amos to the twelve apostles, God calls people of faith to serve others. Amos, a shepherd and horticulturist, was called to prophesy to Israel instead. Saint Paul was called to bring Christ's message to Gentiles all around the world. The Twelve were sent by Jesus in pairs to heal the sick and drive out demons. As we listen to today's readings, let us consider how we are called by God to give witness to the gospel.

Today's Gospel

Talk about traveling light: no change of clothes, no food, no bag, no money. But what they brought was much greater. They brought the authority to drive out evil and to heal the sick. By not being dependent on material things, they could place their dependence on God. God gave them the authority they needed to carry out their mission and obviously that was enough, for their mission was successful. Let us not concentrate on what we don't have, but on what we do have, which Paul beautifully details: adoption as a child of God, redemption by Christ's blood, a share in God's glory forever.

Question of the Week

Can I recall a time when I was provided what I needed to bring God's blessings to others? Can I trust in God whenever I feel inadequate to the task?

Parish Life Update

1. Covid protocols: we will not be checking temperature at this time nevertheless we expect every one to still sanitize their hands, sit with your family and give required distancing and do wear your mask. Let us stay vigilant.
2. Parish feast day celebration: t-shirts and snacks after mass
3. Fall festival. Christmas donation, Silent Auction
4. Holy water at the entrance of our church doors will be restored when is much safer to do so. Nevertheless if volunteers to donate touch less holy water font we can do that as soon as possible. We will need two. One costs 325 including tax and shipping.
5. Funeral: funerals will continue to be celebrated within the week days except on Sundays and holy days of obligation. During the high tide of the Covid we had graveside services nevertheless the celebration of the Holy Mass for the deceased is fitting for a baptized catholic.
6. Funeral repast: We have had a great tradition of making a repast for the family and friends of the deceased. Most of us will agree we want that to continue in our church but there is a treat to that if we fail to support that great tradition. We need volunteers to sign up to help. prep food, clean up and cook.
7. Hall rental: a policy for the virus indemnity. manager, clean up etc. projecting August to begin renting.
8. Church maintenance: we really need to adjust to be able to care for St. James Major. We need the men of the church to set aside one day of the month for church clean up. We need men and able ladies for gardening to help out. Once a month will be great.
9. There is a great need to resurrect all the groups in the church. To that effect I will be meeting with each group in about two weeks from now. Meeting dates, time and place shall be communicated accordingly.

For those seeking assistance from St. Vincent De Paul Society, please call 456-0151. Also leave your name, address, telephone number and a brief message and someone will return your call.

A special way to remember and pay tribute to our deceased loved ones is to make a contribution on their birthdays to the SJM School Endowment Fund. Consider making memorial contributions in memory of your grandparents, parents, children and other relatives annually on special days. Contributions may also be made at any time in honor of living family members and friends. No contribution is too small and, at your request, a card will be sent to an honoree or bereaved family. To make a tribute gift or a donation to the Endowment Fund, please contact Sybil Whitfield at 471-3978.
