A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

Summer work continues around the parish. Our school building and other facilities are all undergoing heavy maintenance to prepare for the opening of school next month. The Junior High building is having new floors installed, and other improvements, repairs, and capital improvement projects continue. There is always so much to be done around the parish campus. However, most pressing, central and important is the work being planned to repair our shattered Altar of Sacrifice in our church, refinish the church pews, install new kneelers, and refinish the wood floor under our pews. I want to most sincerely thank all those who have responded to our request for the $500,000 needed to complete the work. Thank you so much for your support, generosity, and care for Saints Peter and Paul Parish. We have a beautiful church, part of a long heritage of faith we have received from past generations of Catholics here in Naperville. All of us should be eager to do our part to "preserve" the heritage we have received and enjoy as parishioners of this wonderful parish. If you have yet to make your gift, I encourage you to do so this coming week. Join us, and be part of the heritage of faith that IS Saints Peter and Paul Parish. Pray over the matter, allow the Lord to direct you in your generosity and do what you can to help us repair the House of God!

It's important that everyone does something, whatever amount you can give, to help keep our church and supporting facilities in safe, sound, and working order. As a "parish family" it is important that every member of the family does their fair share. The Lord doesn't ask for equal gifts, but He does demand equal sacrifice. "Each must do just as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And He is able to make all grace abound in you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed" [2 Corinthians 9: 7-8]

As people of faith, proud Catholics and parishioners of Saints Peter and Paul Parish, it is our privilege and our responsibility to care for the heritage past generations have left us. Just as importantly, it's good stewardship and a proper response of faith, a gift of love to provide for present needs and future generations of Catholics who will follow us in our wonderful parish.

Next weekend, the Little Sisters of the Poor will come to Saints Peter and Paul Parish. They will share with us, at all of the masses, the story of the beautiful work they do to care for the elderly poor in their care at Saint Joseph's Home in Palatine. Please welcome the Sisters and be ready to generously assist them in their care for God's poor. The Sisters do incredible work to make the love and care of Jesus known to those most in need.

God's Blessings!

Father De Salvo

The Little Sisters of the Poor

The Little Sisters of the Poor will visit Saints Peter and Paul Parish NEXT WEEKEND! We will be given the opportunity to help Jesus, present in his elderly poor. If you are unable to make your gift to the Sisters next weekend, and would like to help them in their beautiful work, consider sending a gift directly to their home in Palatine, Illinois.

The Little Sisters of the Poor have served the elderly of the greater Chicago area and beyond for over 130 years. They encourage independence, preserve dignity and respect for life, respect individuality, nurture spirit and involve family and friends.

In 1939 the future Pope Saint John XXIII was so struck by what he witnessed in one of the Sisters' homes that he wrote to the Vatican: Every day I witness with my own eyes the edifying spectacle of the survival of the spirit of simplicity, humility and inexhaustible and trusting generosity that the Little Sisters still offer today... It is as though certain traits of their blessed Mother Foundress [St. Jeanne Jugan] shine in each one of them. The quiet but eloquent radiance of her life continues to shine out in the lives of the Little Sisters of the Poor today. The homes for the elderly poor, which they sponsor in Palatine (and throughout the world), are icons of mercy where Christ is welcomed and served in the elderly poor with the utmost respect for their dignity. May God be praised and may the entire Church rejoice at the public proclamation of the extraordinary holiness of Jeanne Jugan. [Francis Cardinal George - Archbishop of Chicago]

The Little Sisters of the Poor welcome the needy elderly into their homes, forming one family with them, enabling them to enjoy life and care for them with love and respect until the moment God calls them home! The care of the dying has always been the summit of the sisters' apostolate and it is an ever more powerful witness of the culture of life. Pray for and support the work of the Little Sisters and for vocations to the Order. Holy Hour

"No words I can use would be too strong to state that the Catholic priesthood needs prayer and sacrifice as never before since Calvary. One saint after another has declared that the devil's principal target on earth is the Catholic priest. Priests need, Lord how they need, special graces from God. - Father John Hardon, SJ

Join us for a parish Holy Hour with Benediction to pray for Fathers De Salvo, Cerna, Rutnicki, Bader, & McGeean on Tuesday, August 5, 2025 from 6:00-7:00 PM in the Church

"Bring yourself as an offering for the priests. Unite your offering with my offering, to obtain graces for them ... I want to come again into the world ... in my priests. I want to renew the world by revealing myself through the priests. I want to give my Church a powerful impulse in which I will pour out the Holy Spirit over my priests like a new Pentecost. The Church and the world need a new Pentecost, a Priestly Pentecost, and interior Pentecost." - Jesus' words to Blessed Maria Concepcion Cabrera de Armida, a Mexican wife and mother of nine

Bring the whole family to pray and sign a card for our priests!

This Holy Hour is being offered in honor of St. John Vianney, Patron of Parish Priests, whose memorial we celebrate August 4th.

THE Gift that keeps on Giving!

Having Masses offered for the living and for the repose of the souls of our beloved dead is an important, time honored and scripturally based tradition in the Catholic Church. For well over a thousand years, Catholic people have always had the custom of Mass offerings for the priest celebrating the Eucharist. However, the Church has carried on an almost constant struggle to avoid any semblance of commercialism about the Mass, and misunderstandings about the meaning of such offerings.

Every Mass is offered for the whole Church, the whole world, the living and the dead. Even should he wish to do so, no priest could narrow down that worldwide embrace. When the priests accept a Mass offering they accept, according to Church law, and our traditional theology, the responsibility to include that intention [among his many] in his prayers at Mass. Obviously, therefore, no one buys major ownership, as it were, in a particular offering of the Eucharist. Whether or not an intention is mentioned is purely a matter for the priest/celebrant to decide. Some may choose to do so, others may not; whichever option the priest takes is a matter of personal choice for the individual priest-celebrant [not another priest, bishop, or member of the congregation]. The names we see published in the bulletin week after week let everyone know what the primary intention (among his many intentions) the Priest is remembering at that particular Mass [even the publishing of those intentions is not strictly "necessary"].

Mass intentions may be made for both the dead and the living, and to commemorate "special" occasions in peoples' lives, such as birthdays, anniversaries, etc.. Make a habit of regularly remembering your beloved dead: birthdays, anniversaries — especially of death, and other significant dates to you and your family regarding the deceased are most appropriate. Most especially, when attending a wake, you may want to arrange to have a mass offered for the deceased, and bring the Mass Card with you when you go to the wake, thus bringing comfort and consolation to the family. Contact the Parish Office for details.

Having Mass offered for a specific intention is a beautiful way to remember the living and the dead... a special event, date, or anniversary. There is no better way to offer tribute, and no better prayer you can offer for those you love.

Fr. Bader's Book of the Week

The Life of Mary As Seen By the Mystics

by Raphael Brown

A masterpiece that combines the visions of four great Catholic mystics into one coherent story on the life of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Based primarily on the famous revelations of Ven. Anne Catherine Emmerich and Ven. Mary of Agreda, it also includes many episodes described in the writings of St. Bridget of Sweden and St. Elizabeth of Schenau. To read this book, therefore, is to share in the magnificent visions granted to four of the most privileged souls in the history of the Church.

In complete harmony with the Gospel story, this book reads like a masterfully written novel. It includes such fascinating details as the birth and infancy of Mary, her espousal to St. Joseph and her Assumption into Heaven where she was crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth.

BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini reflection: As Christians we know that everyone is our neighbor. It's drilled into us from the first time we hear this reading. But do we approach the victims that we see? Or do we draw away from the suffering of others in fear and confusion, thinking: "That's not my problem?"

Crossing the Street

It takes a cold, hard, godless heart to step over a wounded man on the street.

But in the parable of the Good Samaritan, the priest and the Levite didn't step over the half-dead traveler. I think we picture them doing so, in our collective imagining of this well-known story, but the words of the Gospel are quite clear. "When he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side," Jesus says of both.

So they saw him. They saw his need. It made them uncomfortable; it confused them — many scholars have said that Judaic law concerning the touching of dead bodies might have made them reluctant to approach — and so they decided the simplest way to file this situation in the Not My Problem category was to cross the street.

But that still leaves a half-dead guy on the road. And we all, 2,000 years later, still think of the priest and the Levite as cold and hard and godless — even if they didn't want to be, even if they didn't think of themselves that way — because the bottom line is, they didn't see the half-dead guy as their problem.

As Christians we know that everyone is our neighbor. It's drilled into us from the first time we hear this reading.

Well, I don't know about you, but I find myself crossing the street a lot more than I should.

There is so much pain and suffering in the world. We certainly can't begin to alleviate it all. But we have to start with the pain and the suffering that we see, that's right in front of us — even if it's something we really, really want to ignore. Even if we find it inconvenient or confusing or scary or weird.

The heroism of the Good Samaritan wasn't in his selfless actions, although those were certainly commendable. It was in his courage. "He approached the victim," Jesus said.

Can we approach the victims we see? Do we have that courage?

Saints of the Week

St. Kateri Tekakwitha- July 14

On July 14th, we celebrate the feast of the "Lily of the Mohawks." St. Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American woman to be canonized. Orphaned by a smallpox outbreak, Kateri survived with severe scarring and impaired eyesight. Despite tragedy, she was a devout girl at a young age, often building crosses from sticks in the woods. When she was 18, she began secret instruction in the Catholic faith with French missionaries. Her commitment to Christianity and vow of virginity was misunderstood and ridiculed by her fellow villagers. She escaped to a nearby mission, where she attended daily Mass, taught the children, and cared for the sick and the elderly. Sometimes the greatest misunderstandings can come from those closest to us. Like St. Kateri, God invites us to be faithful to our commitments of faith and to always respond in love.

Feast of St. Bonaventure- July 15

Do you ever get stuck with the tough jobs? It's well known that the Franciscan Order was incredibly influential throughout history. But one of the most challenging times for a new movement is surviving the death of the founder. Bonaventure joined the Franciscan Order almost two decades after the passing of St. Francis. Initially, the young man's theological insights earned him a prime faculty position at the University of Paris. More than his academic skill, however, he was known for his deep devotion to Christ. He was elected the General Minister of the Franciscan Order, right in the thick of controversies. Some friars had conflicting views of how to interpret St. Francis' poverty as the order grew. Others started a new heresy, saying that the Franciscan Order began a new era of the Holy Spirit, replacing the era of Jesus and the authority of the Church. St. Bonaventure weathered these crises with grace, restructuring the order when necessary and offering a more organized perspective on the insights of St. Francis.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel- July 16

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament. In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits -- seeking solitude -- made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their church after Mary -- Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Pray for us!

Important Notice Regarding CMAA Donations

The Diocese has recently learned that several Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) envelopes have been lost in transit by UPS. Saints Peter and Paul is among the parishes affected, having sent two UPS packages containing a total 189 CMAA In-Pew envelopes that have not been received. If you made a CMAA gift during the month of March, we kindly ask that you verify whether your check or credit card donation has been processed.

If your gift was not processed or if you donated cash, please contact the Parish Office at 630-355-1081 or reach out to the Diocese of Joliet Development Office at development@dioceseofjoliet.org or (815) 838-8515.

We sincerely apologize for this inconvenience and truly appreciate your patience, understanding, and continued generosity as we work to resolve this issue.

2025 ALTAR AND CHURCH RESTORATION

Church Pews and Floors

The pews in the church need refinishing. During the Covid shut-down, harsh chemicals were mandated to be used to sanitize the church. Because of this, the finish on the pews was ruined and must be replaced. Additionally, new kneelers need to be installed on the pews. They are more than 40 years old and are failing. Most importantly, the 100 year old wooden floor under the pews MUST be refinished. The old finish is completely worn. Sanding and refinishing the floors before further damage is done will save us the expense of completely replacing the wood floors under the pews.

The Altar

While the parish priests were performing the traditional washing of the Altars and sanctuary floor in preparation of the Good Friday Services, Father De Salvo discovered that all eight of the black marble supports/legs holding up the massive marble top of the Main Altar of Sacrifice in our church were shattered. The weight of the mensa [the top of the Altar], is too heavy to be supported by the eight marble pillars/legs of the Altar. Installed in the 1970s for the reformed liturgy, the Altar has failed.

OUR GOAL!

To make the necessary immediate repairs to our church...
$500,000 is the Total Parish Goal.

Please do what you can, allow the Lord to direct you in your generosity, and make your gift today. We have to have the funds in hand by July so that the work can be done as soon as possible. Gifts received at the $250 level or more will be included on a permanent scroll of names to be placed within the leg of the restored Altar.

VISIT HIM AND YOU WILL BE CHANGED!

There are lots of excuses not to go to Eucharistic Adoration: it's intimidating, I'm too lazy, too busy, have to work, it's too early, too late, right in the middle of the day, and what would I do for an entire hour anyway?

But then the disappointed words of our Savior to the apostles in the Garden of Gethsemane "You could not keep watch with me for one hour?" (Mark 14:37) His words cut to the heart of it. Is it not way past time to go to Adoration?

The Legion of Mary is one of the largest lay apostolic organizations, with over three million active members throughout the world. The Saints Peter and Paul Legion of Mary group has been active since 2007. In addition to devotional prayers to the Blessed Virgin Mary, we do Spiritual and Corporal works of Mercy, such as visiting nursing homes and parish homes. We also foster Catholic ideals and devotions in our parish with the Pilgrim Virgin Visitation Home Program. Our members share a fellowship with others who share their ministry, a sound prayer life, and a devotion to Our Lady, who invariably leads all souls to Jesus Christ. We meet every Tuesday morning at 10:30a.m. at SSPP in the Ministry Center (Room 227).

Saint Vincent de Paul

"There are scripture scholars who say that there is a very subtle twist to the end of the parable. Jesus asks the lawyer: "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the man who fell in with robbers?" The answer came, "The one who treated him with mercy." It would seem that in asking the lawyer that question, Jesus was saying equivalently to him, "You asked Me 'who was my neighbor?' That was not a good question. The question you should have asked me was: "To whom can I BE neighbor? And the answer to that question is, 'the first poor person you meet on the road.'" (McCullen, Deep Down Things, p. 141)

Society of Saint Vincent dePaul, a Catholic lay organization, leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those who are needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederic Ozanam, and its patron, Saint Vincent de Paul. Call 630-718-2127 to learn more or to request assistance.
