EASTER SUNDAY

A Blessed and Joyful Easter to All!
"Alleluia … Jesus is Risen … Alleluia!"

Pastoral Notes

Now that our Lenten faith journey is completed, we gather this weekend, as the St. Patrick Parish Faith Family, to celebrate the Feast of the Resurrection of Jesus. Let us pray together for our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and for ourselves, that we may all one day share in the fulfilled promise of the future gift that can be ours—eternal life with all of the Saints in Heaven.

Our annual celebration of the Easter Liturgy offers this opportunity for me, as Pastor, to welcome all of you who may be visitors and have chosen to worship with us at one of our Easter Masses this weekend.

I also want to express a word of deep appreciation to those of you who so unselfishly offered your time and talent so that our 2021 Holy Week could be so spiritually enriching, faith filled, and joyful.

In a more particular way, a note of deep thanks is expressed to the Liturgical Environment Committee, our sacristans, lectors, servers, ushers, special Ministers of the Eucharist, Video Team, members of the RCIA team, instrumental and vocal musicians, and everyone else who assisted us in so many ways during the past week.

May the Light and Life of the Risen Lord, our Savior and Redeemer, shine out and be expressed through us as we continue our faith journey together, as disciples of the Lord, toward our final destiny—the fullness of life. May each of us be a living "Alleluia" as we thank God each day for the abundant blessings that He, in His bountiful goodness and love, so generously continues to offer to us.

On behalf of the members of our pastoral team and support staff, we want to wish all of you a most blessed, peaceful and joyous Easter Season. Can Spring be far behind? May the Lord bless you abundantly for your willingness to share some of your God-given blessings with others, especially during this Holy Season of Easter!

2021 CSA Begins Soon!

It may be difficult to believe, but it will soon be time for our participation in the annual Catholic Services Appeal. The actual date for the sign-up pledges will be May 1st & 2nd! This will be preceded by a special CSA video sometime this month.

As we have been successful in the past few years, our plan is to once again ask each registered family (or individual) in our parish for a positive response to the Archbishop's request. This will be indicated in a special letter that I will soon be sending to your home, We are looking forward to your "yes"!

Our call to be responsible stewards in supporting our Archdiocesan Church asks that each of us, according to our personal decision and financial means, offer our financial assistance to this annual appeal.

The 2021 CSA theme is "Fueling the Mission". Please know that I personally appreciate your support...your gift truly makes a difference in the life of our local church. I ask you to remember all the gifts God has given you and prayerfully consider a pledge to this year's CSA. Together, let us "Fuel the Mission"...Whatever you do, do from the heart (St. Paul's letter to the Colossians 3:23).

Fr. Alex Steinmiller—Guest Homilist Next Weekend!

As we celebrate the Divine Mercy Liturgy next weekend, April 10th & 11th, we will have a guest homilist at all of our Masses. I invited Fr. Alex Steinmiller, C.P., a member of the local Passionist Community, to speak to us about some practical ways that we can invite more of our parishioners back to our weekly Masses in the near future. I hope that you plan to be with us. Would you please extend your personal invitation to your friends, family and neighbors to be with us as well, as we continue our plan to increase our weekly attendance at our Masses.

Even though many of us have already received our vaccinations, we are still requiring, for the health and safety of us all, that we continue to follow the protocol that we have practiced here in our parish church for the past year, including social distancing and wearing a face-covering when we come to Mass.

We expect that everyone will follow our posted guidelines whenever sharing common space in our church and in our other buildings. I want to thank you in advance for your cooperation in this most important compliance with Archdiocesan guidelines at the present time.

Fr. Susai on Vacation!

This Monday afternoon, April 5th, Fr. Susai will be leaving for India for his annual vacation. He will be going home to visit with family and priest-friends of his religious community. Please pray with us that he will have a safe, peaceful, and relaxing journey and be able to return to us in mid-May. May the Lord continue to bless you, Fr. Susai, with many more years of faithful priestly ministry.

Parish Online Giving!

We are pleased that our parish of St. Patrick provides the option of "Online Giving" for your weekly and other offertory contributions. This is a safe and convenient way to offer your donations to our parish. Getting started is easy! All you need to do is visit our parish website www.stpwl.org and click on our "Online Giving" link. When you participate, your gift will transfer directly into our St. Patrick Parish bank account. This should be a convenient way to help support our parish. Many other parishes in our vicariate and in the Archdiocese have been offering this option for some time now. This option is going very well. Just think –you will no longer have to remember to write a check or stop by an ATM.

With "Online Giving" you can still help us each week even when you're away from our parish. You can set up your decided contribution plan in advance. This creates a guaranteed safe flow of your contributions even when you can not be with us. Remember - you can change it anytime when you choose to do so. So just go to our website www.stpwl.org—click on "Online Giving" and you will be directed to the registration page. We'll also be very thankful at the parish office when you choose "Online Giving" because it is so much easier to process.

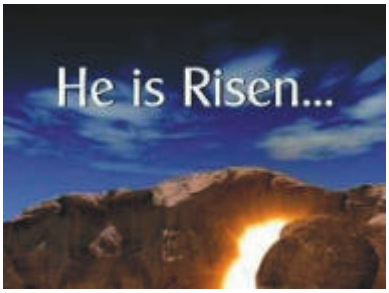
May the Lord bless you for sharing your gifts with our parish as expressions of true Christian stewardship with your time, talent and treasure. Know this is deeply appreciated.

Finally…

May the Lord bless us all with the joy of Easter and peace in His Risen Life, that through our Baptism, we have already begun to share. With the continuing echoes of the Easter Alleluias ringing out, let us together rejoice—for the Lord has truly risen—risen from the dead to the fullness of life.

Alleluia...Alleluia...Alleluia!
May you all have a Happy Easter!
Peace and Joy Always in the Lord's
Risen Life That We Share!

Fr. Tom



Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Who are you? This question was most assuredly asked of Jesus on the day of Resurrection and it is a question asked of each of us. Our identities can be described in so many ways. We can start with our gifts and our talents, expertise and unique personality expressions. We can describe things we like and things we prefer to set aside. As descriptive and captivating as these can be, none come close to our essence, our real and true self. While accurate in their own right, the self who lives and interacts with the world is the self we want others to see, the one we project. But there is much more to us just as there is much more to Jesus.

Jesus could describe himself based on all of the same criteria we use for ourselves. After all, Jesus is totally human. With all that people witnessed and all that Jesus knew about his physical human self, his divinity also shined forth. There was so much more to know about him. Whereas once Jesus was transfigured on top of a mountain before his disciples' eyes, so today he is transfigured before our eyes as he reveals his resurrected self as the Christ. Alleluia, Christ is risen! His glorified presence stands before us showing us that we are all much more than we see ourselves to be and show to others. We have a depth, purpose, and essence that go way beyond the superficial treasures of our existence to the very core of who we are.

Within each one of us is a spark of Divine Love where creature and Creator meet, and we are known uniquely by the name God whispers to us. It is not the earthly name that was given to us but the one that flows from Divine Power and claims us as one who is special and chosen in God's eyes. This is the self that will rise one day with the eternal Christ of God and live eternally as God provides. This is the self that when free from all superficial constraints layered upon it in this life can discover and know freedom in a way never possible before. This is love lifting us up and transforming us into who we really are, not who we want or need ourselves to be. Who are you? A special, unique child of God who has been fashioned in God's image, sustained by the power of God's love and kept eternally with the Blessed Trinity in heaven. Get to know this deeper, truer self as it is who you really are.

EASTER

New fire, new oils, new water, NEW LIFE! Gone is the drabness of Lent replaced by bright colors and spring flowers. The Gloria and Alleluias are once more proclaimed. It's Easter! Jesus is raised from the dead!

After a Lenten season of fasting and praying, are we able to feel the joy of the Resurrection? Maybe it's a whole year of big and small deaths in our own lives that we may have to let go of to really celebrate Easter!

How can we "live" the Resurrection? Maybe it's by choosing Life—choosing to really live life. Maybe it's choosing to try again when it would be easier to give up. It could be reaching out to someone else who needs to feel a touch of resurrection in their life.

May each of us celebrate the Resurrection as it is revealed in our lives. May we feel the peace and joy that comes with the knowledge that "Christ has died, Christ is risen, and Christ will come again."

Divine Mercy Sunday

Sunday, April 11th, is designated as Divine Mercy Sunday. This commemorates the appearance of Jesus to Sister Faustina in 1931. Jesus gave her a wonderful message of mercy for all mankind. This event will be remembered here at St. Patrick Parish with the praying of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy after all of the Masses next weekend. Please join us in the chapel for this devotion.

Reflection Books

White Reflection Books for the Easter season are available at the doors of Church today.

Pre-Marriage
Sponsor Couples Needed

This is a wonderful way to enrich your own marriage while sharing our faith in the ministry of preparing others for the Sacrament of Marriage. Sponsor couples are facilitators for those preparing to be married in the Church. If you are feeling called to be part of this ministry, please contact Karen Schmitt-kschmitt@stpwl.org, or 248-698-4388. We ask that those interested be married no less than 5 years.

Sacristans Needed

Before Mass, Sacristans set out the correct amount of bread and wine along with the appropriate liturgical vessels. Sacristans prepare everything in a timely way for the ministers and the assembly who will worship together at Mass. It is easy to do and training is provided. We particularly need Sacristans at the 12:00 Mass. Please call Ann at 248-698-3100 x 222 if you are interested in serving your parish in this very important way.

A special "Thank You" to everyone for all your prayers and best wishes during John's illness. Your concern has meant so much to us during this difficult time and we are truly appreciative.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ~ Easter Sunday

The first light of Easter dawn had begun to creep over the horizon. The steadfast women from Friday's gory events are returning again to the body of their Lord. "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" How quickly we return to mundane concerns and how thoroughly God wants to surprise us! Imagine the utter shock upon seeing the stone rolled away, the tomb empty, and a stranger clothed in light proclaiming the impossible. "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here." He is risen indeed and the world will never be the same.

We know from other Gospel passages that Mary Magdalene made haste to the disciples to proclaim the Good News. We know that Peter and John rushed to the tomb to see for themselves. We know that the wonder and awe of the Resurrection permeated the lives of the apostles until their own dying day.

Can we comprehend the utterly world-changing nature of this surprise? The historical reanimation of a dead man is of no real value to us. But we know that Easter Sunday is so much more. By the Resurrection of Jesus, life has triumphed over death for us all. The gates of heaven are opened and the treasury of graces is poured out upon the here and now. This Resurrection Day, let us draw near, amazed yet unafraid, to the risen Christ. Let us recall the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Jesus is not a character from the past. He lives, and he walks before us as one who is alive, he calls us to follow him, the living one, and in this way to discover for ourselves the path of life" (Easter Vigil, April 15, 2006). (LPI)

Easter Sunday Prayer

As the world sings triumphant cries to heaven over death that You conquered, help us, Lord, tomorrow as well, when the dresses are put away and the candy is all eaten and on with life we go, let us not forget.

The celebration of Your Resurrection over death is a celebration of life that should continue well beyond the sunrise service and the music, rehearsed for days prior; it is beyond the sign of spring, beyond the lily, beyond new lambs grazing in open fields.

Resurrection is a daily celebration over fear; man's greatest and most powerful enemy. Fear of tomorrow, fear of our yesterdays, fear of what shall become of our young, our old, our unborn. Resurrection is replacing fear with physical action.

This alone, the most touching and profound of Your signs that fear is dead and belief in You brings, not just hope but life.

What better living parable could You have brought? All fear death. All. Even in the garden, You took on our fear if for only moments, it was as real as our fears can be real and You knew then that this single enemy must be destroyed.

And, You sacrificed Your life, leaving those who had been comfort, and follower; You left them behind, to conquer fear.

I shall cling to this now, and the tomorrows given me.

Peace and Thanksgiving lifted unto You.

Amen.

April 4, 2021: Palm Sunday of the Lord' Passion

The Empty Tomb
John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The site of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem is identified as the place of the crucifixion and the tomb of Jesus of Nazareth. Today, visitors can enter the cave (which is preserved inside the church) and see the actual place where Jesus rose from the dead. Visitors generally wait in line for 3 or 4 hours to visit the tomb.

Texan Finds St. Patrick Tuesday Night Zoom Bible Study!

Covid 19 found many Catholic online, searching for ways to grow their faith. Many of us turned to online mass to "Feed our Spirit." Meet Deb! A Catholic from Austin, Texas who turned to the internet to pray and worship each week. She loved the online mass at St. Patrick, the beauty of the church, the message of the celebrant. She stumbled upon the website as she searched online Bible studies at St. Patrick. She got in touch with Lisa Powaser and then the leader of the Tuesday evening Bible study, Lori Clark. Next thing you know, she was on the Zoom screen participating in "No Greater Love," a biblical walk through Christ's life.

One thing you should know…She thought she was joining a Bible study at St. Patrick Cathedral in New York City. See, the celebrant she enjoyed was Cardinal Dolan. Long story short, we have adopted Deb one of our own church family as we have been journeying during this season of Lent through Jesus' last days .

Another silver lining of the pandemic and a blessing of the availability of technology during what has been a very challenging year. It has been a great experience as we have shared faith, prayer intentions, personal stories and mostly God's love.

Think there's no way you can find the time? Good news: You don't have to do it all at once. In fact, it's better to spread your activity throughout the week. You can get health benefits even if you split it into a few short bouts of exercise a day.

7 no-brainer ways to boost your activity level.

1. Grab the leash and walk your dog. Your body and your pooch will thank you!

2. Take your kids (or your spouse) for a walk. It's an excellent way to get some face time without screens. Keep it fun by exploring new neighborhoods or turning your walk into a scavenger hunt.

3. Try the 10-minute Workout. Stuck at home? Boost your heart rate and brain power with this quick home workout.

4. Walk and talk. Even If you're glued to your phone for work calls, you don't have to be glued to your chair Make it a habit to talk and walk. Some workplaces have walking paths to make it even easier to burn while you earn.

5. Tune into fitness. Retrain your inner couch potato. Walk or jog in place, do yoga or lift weights, or walk on the treadmill at the gym while you watch your must-see TV shows.

6. Ditch the car. Spare yourself the parking stress and log some more active time by parking farther away (or even leaving the car at home) and walking or biking to your destination.

7. Take the stairs. The elevator may go up—but it doesn't make your heart rate climb. Take the stairs when you can, even if just for a floor or two. And don't ride the escalator—climb it. Those can be active steps too! For more activities go to www.americanheartassociation.org

Right to Life LIFESPAN

When celebrating Easter, it is hard not to see all the references to life—new spiritual life, green growing things beginning to show, bunnies, chickens, etc. In celebrating the new life emerging all around us, let us remember to celebrate the precious lives of each child waiting to be born.
