Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Today the Holy Spirit floats over the waters in the form of a dove, so that by this sign it might be known that the world’s universal shipwreck has ceased, as the dove had announced to Noah that the world’s flood had subsided.” St. Peter Chrysologus

Our Gospel reading for today portrays John the Baptist as pointing away from himself and towards Jesus. Even though John was clearly a very impressive figure, with people flocking to him from all over, and submitting to his rite of baptism, John did not take any credit. The minute he saw Jesus walk towards him, he saw his role as directing his followers away from him and towards Jesus. His sense of duty and mission went so far that he even directed his own disciples to Jesus, encouraging them to become disciples of Jesus instead. What powerful humility John had.

Even though we are surrounded by a culture that tells us “look at me” and “look at what I’ve achieved,” today’s reading can be a call for us to hear John’s words, so that we too will always point towards Jesus whenever we can.

St. Williams News:

Save the date !!!!

January 29th St. William's will be hosting Soupapalooza fundraiser after Mass.

The money donated from the food will go to the CYO.

We will be having a silent auction and those funds will be going for new vestments for our priest and Altar servers. If you are interested in helping or donating, please let Amanda Davidson or Nicole Ueckert know. St. Williams Altar Society would like to thank everyone for their donations this year and helping make our church beautiful this holiday season.

New Priest's Vestments and Altar Server Robes for St. William's Church I am grateful to the members of St. William's Church who want to order and purchase new vestments for the priest. The vestments of the priest include stoles and chasubles in the four main colors of the liturgical seasons – white, green, violet (purple), and red. We have ordered beautiful priest's vestments from Slabbinck, Bruges, Belgium through Hurley's Religious Goods, Fargo. The cost of these vestments is $4,600. Our parish is also in need of new altar server robes. I am looking over the variety of styles and materials for altar server robes before we order them. Regardless of what style and material is chosen for altar server robes, the cost for robes for one server is approximately $125. We want to purchase around twelve altar server robes at the start because we must have different sizes for our servers. The total cost for altar server robes would be around $1,500. The total cost of priest's vestments and altar server robes would be around $6,100. We are asking for donations from the members of St. William's Church to purchase these vestments and robes. You may give a donation in memory of your deceased loved ones. All donations of any amount are welcome! --- Msgr. Skonseng.

Reflections: January 15th “Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” – ISAIAH 49:5 God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Do not let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.
