Pope Francis proclaims "Year of St Joseph"

Pope Francis recalls the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To mark the occasion, the Holy Father has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph" from 8 December 2020 to 8 December 2021. This past Friday, we celebrated the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker. In our Catholic culture, St. Joseph takes a back seat to our Blessed Mother in the importance of raising Jesus. In a new Apostolic Letter entitled Patris corde ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis describes Saint Joseph as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father; a father who is creatively courageous, a working father, a father in the shadows. The Holy Father wrote Patris corde against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic, which, he says, has helped us see more clearly the importance of "ordinary" people who, though far from the limelight, exercise patience and offer hope every day. In this, they resemble Saint Joseph, "the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence," who nonetheless played "an incomparable role in the history of salvation." "A carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family,"

St Joseph also teaches us "the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one's own labor." This aspect of Joseph's character provides Pope Francis the opportunity to launch an appeal in favor of work, which has become "a burning social issue" even in countries with a certain level of well-being. "there is a renewed need to appreciate the importance of dignified work, of which Saint Joseph is an exemplary patron," the Pope writes. At the conclusion of Patris corde, he writes a prayer for all of us to say.

We will be incorporating the Prayer of St. Joseph in the celebration of Mass, immediately following the Universal Prayers of the Faithful. Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you, God entrusted his only Son; in you, Mary placed her trust; with you, Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen. Fr. Steve Outsiders Seeking Jesus. Today, visitors from Greece (outsiders to the Jews) want to see Jesus who is in the holy city Jerusalem for Passover. This reminds us that everyone, really, looks for God, wants to be good, hopes for salvation. This is the impact of the new covenant of which Jeremiah speaks today.

- How can I be like Philip and Andrew, and bring others to Jesus?
- How will I serve Jesus and follow him today?
- What of my life am I willing to lose for the benefit of eternal life?

RESPECT LIFE

"The days are coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah," this passage is taken from the First Reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah. We all make covenants, or promises in our lifetime, especially in our relationships. Sadly, violence is seeping into the lives of many women globally through toxic relationships and it is devastating pervasive. The World Health Organization reports that one in three women globally experience physical and sexual violence in their lifetime, most at the hands of an intimate partner. The woman is often left embarrassed, injured physically and emotionally and doesn't know where to turn. Unlike a vaccine, violence against women cannot be stopped so easily. We must work in our churches, communities and governments to stand for just treatment and relationships for all women. In "When I Call for Help," the USCCB points out that, "violence against women, inside or outside the home is never justified. Violence in any form-physical, sexual, psychological or verbal is sinful; often it is criminal as well."

Curious Kitty Meows From Sister Gracie

It's been fun watching the rain fall from my window. I am so glad I have a nice warm place to hang out during the day. I have been staying at Big Cat Vicki's house this past week, spending some time with my brother

Blaise. I miss everyone at the Parish Office, I know when I return there will be lots of catching up to do! Being the St. Mary Parish Feline, is tiring. So glad I have time to take a cat-nap during the day. I will say, from my observations, March is a strange month for big cats. They eat green eggs, and smelly beef with cabbage! The only thing that cabbage is good for is sharpening my teeth. Anyways, I'm learning the ropes about these strange big cats!

Irish Meow! Sister Gracie!

Each year the Lord Jesus calls the entire Church to a special season of penance and renewal. As we begin this holy time of Lent, we should reflect on our need for conversion of heart, prayer, charitable works and penance. The season of Lent extends this year from Ash Wednesday, February 17, to the Mass of the Lord's Supper, April 1, inclusive.

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is also bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. The other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but altogether they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed.
4. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the obligation of the law is modified. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include the physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women. In all cases, common sense should prevail, and ill persons should not further jeopardize their health by fasting.
5. Because Lent is a special season for all Christians, we should not lightly excuse ourselves from these penitential practices.

VOCATIONS CORNER

"I was in third grade when I decided to become a missionary priest like those who served my parish in the Philippines. Little did I know that 20 years later, I would find myself thousands of miles away, ministering in the mission-rich field of western Oregon. My vocations journey was not always smooth sailing. Doubts and homesickness sometimes cast shadows over my steps, and I even took time off from the seminary for a while. When I look back, I can see clearly how God has journeyed with me, giving me strength through the sacraments and through people he sent my way. I was ordained in 2016, and the grace I receive through my priestly ministry – through administering the sacraments, counseling or teaching the faith – far outweigh the challenges"

Lenten Message from Bishop McGovern,

This year, like last, Holy Week will be a bit different than what we are used to. Due to concerns about the coronavirus, the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday will be modified for the sake of everyone's health.

One ritual that will be omitted is the Washing of the Feet on Holy Thursday. While this makes sense from a health standpoint, I did not want Holy Week to go by without mentioning this significant action from the Last Supper. The Gospel of John tells us that at the Last Supper, the Lord rose from the table, put on a towel or apron, and washed the feet of the 12 apostles. You can imagine the apostles silently thinking "What is Jesus doing kneeling down and washing my feet?"

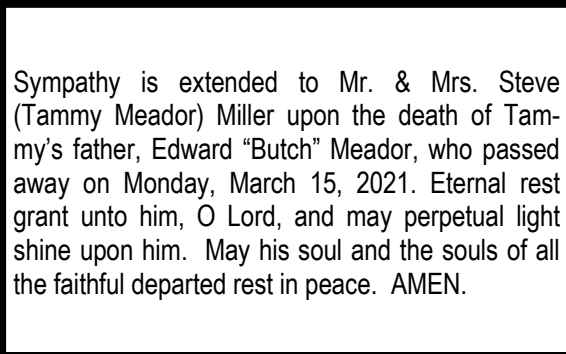

As our Lord states at the end of the washing, "if I who am teacher and Lord wash your feet, so you must wash one another's feet." He continues: "The Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve and give his life as a ransom for many."

Bishop McGovern's writings can be found at: stmarycentralia.org

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Mrs. Norma Holtkamp who passed away on Monday, March 15, 2021, and was buried from St. Mary on Friday, March 19. Parish family includes son Mr. & Mrs. Vince (Julie) Holtkamp, and daughter Mary Holtkamp. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace. AMEN.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. & Mrs. Steve (Tammy Meador) Miller upon the death of Tammy's father, Edward "Butch" Meador, who passed away on Monday, March 15, 2021. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. AMEN.

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Ruth Holloway who passed away on Tuesday, March 16, 2021. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace. AMEN.
