May is the Month that we honor our Mother Mary. During the Saturday, May 8, 2021, 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass, the traditional Crowning of Mary will take place. The First Communion Class will receive the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.

Given by Our Lady herself to the Carmelite friar, St. Simon Stock, with special promises to its wearers, the brown scapular is a sign of devotion and personal consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Reflection on the death of Fr. Dale,

A woman in her 80's walked into the church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps. "Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely. "The front row please," she answered. "You don't want to do that," the usher said. "Father is boring." "Do you happen to know who I am? I'm his mother," she declared indignantly. "Do you know who I am?" the usher asked. "No," she said. "Good," he answered. I try my best not to "be boring" during my homilies. I have shared with the parishes that my brother Brian is known to start coughing when I go too long or get off-topic. Some of the best conversations I had about our faith were not heard inside the Church. They usually happen in some you would not expect. As a teen, I was hired by my local Knights of Columbus to clean the building each week. Many times, I would forget to lock the building. I would hear this old 1950's VW microbus pull up and stop. Out would hop, Father Joe Sense, a priest from a rural church, where I lived. He would pop his head in the door, "you open.?" How can I say no to a priest, "come on in, Father!" He was always dressed in a cassock; he wore tennis shoes, and his big toe would protrude for a tear in the shoe. He was an amazing priest and a devoted fan of STAG beer (Belleville Budweiser as it is known). He would drink a few beers, me a soda, and we would talk and chat. The subject always seemed to drift to religion. He could bring the bible to life and explain scripture so that it was clear and understandable. He was also the chaplain at Menard Correctional Center; little did I know that I would someday be a Volunteer Chaplain at the same institution.

I particularly remember him explaining the Gospel we heard today, of the grower and vine. In his Sunday homilies, which seldom exceeded five minutes, he explained scripture so that his mostly rural parishioners could grasp it. After his passing in 1990, it was revealed how frugal Father was. We now have the Sense Residence for retired priests and a beautiful new Church, St. Mary Divine Mercy, in Ellis Grove through his legacy. Father Sense influenced my life in a way I would never expected. He helped to nurture that seed, that turned into a vine, that brought forth fruit.

Fr. Steve

Bearing Much Fruit. It is the start of May and, in the northern hemisphere, some of us are about spring planting. The tasks today look to future fruit and vegetables. By analogy, God is the garden-er. We are the branches, the seeds, the fruit. To be healthy, we let ourselves be tilled around, watered, weeded.

- Because of how I behave now, how will I be tomorrow and in the future?
- What tending work will I let God do to me?
- What can I do to be a more fruitful Christian?

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Maggie Irwin who passed away on Saturday, April 17, 2021, and will have a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Mary on Saturday, May 1. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on her. May her soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed rest in peace. AMEN

RESPECT LIFE

“When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.” In Reading 1 from Acts of the Apostles, we are aware of the conversion that Saul, now Paul encountered on the road to Damascus, when he encountered the Risen Christ. Christ implored him to stop persecuting Jewish followers of Jesus. Barnabas spoke on behalf of Saul, later Paul, and opened up a dialogue that no one in the circle of the disciples was expecting. Barnabas took Saul under his wing and gave him a proper introduction and a proper welcome into the Jewish Christian community. Learn, Act, Connect and Pray- In the Gospels, we see that Jesus is deeply involved with the concerns of individual people, not entities of power. Jesus teaches us to take the same path, the path of dialogue. Who can we begin to really talk and listen to here in our own community? We are called to engage in subsidiarity, working with people and communities nearest to a problem and encourage them as they work to devise a solution. Guide our efforts, Lord, to truly help serve the needs of the poor and the oppression, not for our sake, but for theirs. change the world.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God, You have called us through Baptism to discipleship, believing in your Son, Jesus Christ, who has sent us to bring the Good News of salvation to the world. We pray to you, asking that you grant us more priests and religious who will help us build up your Church in the Diocese of Belleville and the world. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many of our youth. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves in service to our Lord Jesus and his people. May a new generation of priests, deacons, sisters and brothers be a sign of your presence among us. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

VOCATIONS CORNER

"As a teenager, I struggled to find my identity and purpose. I had a loving family and great friends, and I was a motivated student, yet I felt lost and empty. I had this gnawing desire to be whole. Everything changed when I encountered the Lord at a confirmation retreat. He spoke to my deepest desires, and for the first time, I felt at home with myself and the world. At the foot of the cross, I discovered that I am loved and known from all eternity. That same gaze of Christ crucified now calls me to respond to his love with love through the path of the holy cross." Sr. Viet Canh Nguyen; Lovers of the Holy Cross Columbia Magazine, December 2020

Curious Kitty Meows From Sister Gracie

Warm inside, warm outside...where should I go? Well they won't let me go outside even though I have had my eye on a squirrel who thinks our porch is open territory. So, Sister will stay inside watching and waiting and alert the tall cats if the squirrel makes any sudden moves and keep track of the tall cats by circling the office and peeking in each one to make sure they are busy and reporting to Father Steve any cat naps (OH, that would be me). I have my own bed and treats and toys at the office, so I am quite at home there and I love to lay on all the desks which I now feel are my desks.

Dear Friends,

One of my favorite passages of scripture is the Fifteenth chapter of John's gospel in which Christ declares I am the vine, you are the branches. Jesus wants us to "remain" or "abide" in him, so that his life flows into us who are the branches grafted onto the vine, Jesus Christ. What does it mean for us to "abide" in Jesus? Abiding means being in love with Jesus; being at ease with Jesus; finding my strength in Jesus, and being ready to share with others why Jesus is in my life. Perhaps in prayer we can simply ask: "Teach me Jesus what it is to live in you, and for you to live in me."

The gospel passage in John also includes our Lord speaking about the vine grower pruning some of the branches. Pruning is a familiar image with both negative and positive connotations. The negative would be a dry branch, lacking the vital sap, bearing no fruit; this branch the vine grower cuts off and tosses. The positive sense of pruning is when the vine grower prunes a living, healthy branch not as a hostile act. Rather the vine grower has confidence in the branch; he expects much of the branch and knows the branch can bear much fruit.

A similar dynamic happens on the spiritual plane: often God intervenes in our lives and introduces the cross. This does not mean God is upset with us. Rather the cross "prunes" our lives, leading us to let go of what is unimportant and focus on what is essential. For instance, our lives can have too many things, innumerable interests and hobbies. When we spread ourselves too thin, when we are too widely dispersed, we will not be outstanding in anything. The cross "prunes" our excesses and we are led to chose priorities.

Christ the True Vine gives us the courage to make choices in which we set aside some secondary interests and concentrate on what is primary. Leonardo da Vinci was a great artist who made a fascinating distinction between painting and sculpting. In painting, the artist adds more to the work, more paint and color on the canvas. Da Vinci loved sculpting and noted that sculpture is the art of removing, as the artist chisels away the excess marble. Christians who are branches being pruned, understand the art of removing. The cross leads us to remove desires, ambitions, projects and tendencies that spread us so thin and do not let us finish anything.

So what will be the yield once we are pruned? What will be the fruit? Love, commitment, courage, endurance and ordinary, daily kindness and compassion. These will be the rich yield if we allow Christ's life to flow through us and enter into the experience of pruning with great trust in the Lord. May the Risen Lord help us as we allow his divine life to coarse through us, making us fruit-bearing branches to the glory of God.
