Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary our Mother, and of all the saints, grant Your merciful pardon to all mothers for whom we pray, whether they still are living in this world or have departed from this flesh into the world to come. ## Happy Mother's Day to you!

What a wonderful time of the year! Once again, it is time to "give honor where honor is due" by honoring all Mothers. As we continue to navigate these complicated times in our Nation and world, I wanted to take a few moments to give a "shout out" to all Mothers. We often hear appreciation for those on the front lines making sure we have food in the stores and people responding to emergencies and other professions that are such a blessing to all of us. One of the things we hear is that because someone is an "essential worker," they cannot only go to work but are expected to go to work! The pressures on all these people must be profound at this time, so keep them in prayer in the weeks and months ahead.

The original "essential worker" was Mom. Someone who can multi-task and juggle day-to-day activities like a trained professional. Mothers certainly live in a challenging day and age as they often are juggling work, ball games, school functions, church, duties at home, and oh yes... some personal time once in a while! (Some of you are asking, "what's that"?). Even though Mother's Day isn't necessarily a Christian holiday, we seek to honor all mothers today: new mothers, older mothers, mothers who are no longer with us, mothers who have lost children, mothers who bore us and gave us life, and those women who may not have raised their own children but have indeed nurtured others and served as spiritual mothers in their roles as friend, sister, or aunt. It is in Exodus 20:21 where we first receive this command: "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may belong in the land that the Lord your God is giving you."

Yes, we grow up, become independent adults, and become unbound to the rules of our parents' homes, yet we are still instructed to honor our mothers, to treat them with respect, to hold them in high esteem. Today, as we remember the freedom and life we have in Christ, remember the woman who God selected to be your mother, the woman who carried you, cared for you, and helped you become who you are today. Let us give thanks for the blessings of mothers.

Love, Love, Love. “Love” or “loved” is spoken seventeen times in the Bible readings today. Not a mushy Hallmark movie kind of love. But the love God has for us. The love we have for God and Christ. The love, therefore, we must have for everyone else. Strong, bold, lasting.

- How do I know I am loved? Let me count the persons and ways?
- How will I love those who are near?
- How will I love everyone else?

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

RESPECT LIFE

“Get up, I myself am also a human being.” In the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (Chapter 10) Peter meets Cornelius at his house and Cornelius immediately falls to his feet to honor Peter, but he is told to literally ‘get up, I am no different than you.’ Then Peter delivers the big news, that Jesus shows no partiality in salvation and that all of us can be saved! This astounded the crowd, especially as Peter began to baptize them into new life in the name of Jesus Christ.

Learn, Act, Connect and Pray- Through our faith, we know that we can never repay what we owe to our Father, but the seeds we plant today through our good works in love and obedience will bear fruit tomorrow. Our efforts are never wasted. May we too fall to our knees in gratitude of Christ who came for all mankind. As Bishop Kenneth Untener reminds us, “We are prophets of a future that is not our own.”

VOCATIONS CORNER

Mothers' Day – what a wonderful commemoration of one of the greatest vocations there is. We are inspired by the example of Mary, the Mother of God, to live by the words from the Cana feast “Do whatever He tells you”. We pray for all our Mothers today and for the families they form, nurture and love. We also ponder our own “FIAT” – our surrendering to God’s plan for us.

Curious Kitty Meows From Sister Gracie

I gave my cousin, Cheetah, who lives in Africa a call last week. I was telling her all about my hunting skills. She told me that sometimes she has to run 60 mph, to catch her prey. Not for me, my prey comes to me. I sent her the picture below to show her my superior ability to catch that silly blue mouse that lives in Father Steve's office. It dashes all over the place, under tables, flies in the air, and even jumps up on the desk.

My cousin Cheetah laughed! I told her to come visit me and I will show her. She said, “I might take you up on that!” Anyways, Sister has been busy chasing that silly blue mouse all morning time for a “cat nap” I need to find a desk, a stack of papers, and it's off to Zzzzzzzzz! Ciao & Meow Sister Gracie

CATHOLIC EDUCATION MAKES A DIFFERENCE

For the past several months, I have been visiting the Catholic schools of our diocese. I am very impressed by the students, the staff and faculty of the schools, and the commitment of the families that send their children to a Catholic school. Catholic schools are important to me personally; I am forever grateful that my parents sent me and my seven siblings to Christ the King School in Chicago. Between our life together in our home and our life together in our parish and school, we received an excellent formation and education. Economically, my family would be described as middle-class. However, my parents sacrificed a number of things even a middle-class family normally could afford in order to provide us with a Catholic education. ...and we continue seeing parents who sacrifice in order to send their children to one of our Catholic schools here in Southern Illinois. I am very grateful to the school leadership, faculty and staff who say "yes" to being part of the mission of Catholic education, so that parents can offer their children an environment where children can pray together, participate in the sacraments and be formed in our Catholic values. My sincere hope is that we can find a way to keep Catholic education affordable, so that more children and their families will benefit from the great opportunities available in our Catholic schools.
