And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth." (Genesis 9:17)

Congratulations to Meyer Andrew Wright, infant son of John and Rita Jo (Gierten) Wright, who was baptized at St. Mary on Sunday, July 11, 2021. Meyer is the grandson of Mary Jane Gierten, and the great-grandson of Fay Vaccaro, both of St. Mary Parish. Welcome, Meyer!

POPE FRANCIS APPOINTS FATHER JOHN IFFERT BISHOP OF COVINGTON, KY

Pope Francis appointed Father John Iffert, a priest of the Diocese of Belleville as the bishop-elect of the Diocese of Covington in Kentucky. Bishop-elect Iffert, 53, has served as the Vicar General of the Diocese of Belleville since 2020. He is also currently the diocesan Moderator of the Curia and Pastor of St. Stephen Parish in Caseyville. "I am astounded and deeply grateful that Pope Francis has elected me to serve as the eleventh Bishop of Covington, Kentucky" wrote Iffert in a letter to the faithful of southern Illinois. "I am inspired by Pope Francis' vision of a Church so deeply rooted in a relationship with Christ that we accompany the outcast, tend the wounded, mourn with the brokenhearted and rejoice and give thanks in every circumstance, and so carry out Jesus' mission of evangelization." A native of DuQuoin, Bishop-elect Iffert is the youngest of John and Mary Iffert's three children. He grew up on the family farm on the outskirts of DuQuoin and attended Sacred Heart School and DuQuoin High School. He holds a degree in political science and economics from Illinois State University. In August, 1992 he entered Mundelein Seminary where he earned a bachelor's degree of Sacred Theology and a Master of Divinity degree.

On June 7, 1997 Bishop Wilton Gregory ordained Iffert a priest of the Diocese of Belleville. After ordination to the priesthood, Iffert served as Pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish in Columbia, St. Mary Parish in Mt. Vernon and St. Barbara Parish in Scheller. Additional diocesan responsibilities have included membership on the College of Consultors, the Priest Personnel Board, and the Diocesan Finance Council. "Bishop-elect Iffert is an excellent priest and a dedicated pastor, and he is widely respected in our diocese" wrote Belleville Bishop Michael McGovern in a letter to the faithful. "With his strong faith and many talents, I believe Bishop-elect Iffert will be an excellent shepherd for the people of northern Kentucky." Bishop-elect Iffert will be ordained and installed as the eleventh Bishop of Covington on September 30 in the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption. He succeeds Bishop Roger Foys who is retiring after leading the diocese since 2002. Established in 1853, the Diocese of Covington encompasses the City of Covington and the counties of northern Kentucky. The diocese has 48 parishes and approximately 90,000 Catholics within 3,358 square miles.

I must admit; Lincoln Street is a noisy place to live! I have realized that Lincoln Street is a convenient shortcut through town. At all times of day and night, there is road traffic that penetrates a quiet neighborhood. It is interesting how noises either bother us or we can easily ignore them. Growing up only a few houses down from the Missouri Pacific (Now UP) railroad tracks, it became customary to hear the coal trains sliding through town. On Lincoln Street, I am seldom disturbed by the many trains that converge in Centralia, since at an early age, I developed an immunity to that noise. Noise is defined as an unwanted sound, and modern life is full of it. The world's background noise levels are likely louder now than at any point in human history.

Jesus said to his disciples, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile." Jesus and his disciples had amassed a vast following. People recognized that he was something special, someone, who could heal, and his compassion for all was apparent. Jesus' invitation to go to a quiet place for rest comes amid life-changing ministry for all who were near him. I imagine some of the disciples may have wondered why Jesus would lead them to a quiet place and rest when they were doing so much good. As a person of faith in a world of diminishing faith, what do you need? Could you use some rest? Can you imagine a break from the worry, division, and anxiety that dominates our conversations and country? Would you consider allowing your fears to rest in the company of Jesus? Are you willing to explore this practice of quiet reflection, prayer, and rest? It is not easy! Finding that perfect place takes effort, then to rid our thoughts of our noisy world is a superhuman feat. Did I turn the iron off? What am I going to prepare for supper? I wonder how Mary is doing; I haven't heard from her in weeks! Drifting, distracting thoughts that can wait permeate our quiet time.

There are several resources available to help us. One that works for me is Lectio Divina. It is an ancient form of entering into prayer and silence. This fall, I will be conducting a mini workshop, "Introduction to Lectio Divina," so stay tuned for time and date. If you would like to explore the benefits of Lectio Divina, you can find resources at: <http://lectio-divina.org/> "So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place." (Mark 6:30-34) Find your deserted place... Father Steve

Hard Work Requires Rest. After all the traveling light last week to do ministry, Jesus tries to take the apostles away for some rest. But the people see them go, discover where they are headed, and get there first. Oh, my! So, Jesus ministers to them by teaching many things. After we work hard at mercy works, sometimes we can rest. Sometimes not.

- How can I find some rest from work in the quiet place of prayer?
- How can my restful prayer strengthen me to do more?
- What will I do next?

RESPECT LIFE

"The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." Psalm 23, "Prayer to the Good Shepherd," is a profession of the joyful trust in the Lord as the Good Shepherd/King that has become one of the world's greatest prayers. In praying this psalm we can ponder the fact that Our Heavenly Father's love embraces us from eternity, preparing for us, through Christ, many spiritual blessings. He watches over us as the Good Shepherd and seeks out the stray sheep. "Green pastures" symbolize all that makes life flourish. The "restful waters" are Christ himself beckoning us to live in the tranquility of His peace, to dwell in security. Learn, Act, Connect, Pray-How can we share our trust in God with others? How can we share His message in friendship with others? In a compassionate, calming manner try sharing your faith with those around you to lift them up. Share your faith with those around you who need encouragement. Share your faith with those who are looking for answers to their problems, such as a crisis pregnancy. Local statistics show that 83% of women who chose abortion said they would have carried their child to term if they had at least one person offering loving guidance. Chemical abortions (the abortion pill) are now being prescribed via tele-health appointments. The need is now. By dwelling in Christ's love, we can offer that compassion to others. The Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen was known for saying, if you believe the impossible, you can do the incredible.

Curious Kitty Meows From Sister Gracie

My weekly patrol of the small cat's school has become interesting. I can see myself looking back from the floor! It's as if there is a mirror all over the school. Everything is so shiny and clean. The best part is retracting my claws, and sliding down the hallway. Don't tell Fr. Steve, he might put me into detention, or worse yet, turn the 3rd & 4th grade small cats loose on me! They are way... too happy for Gracie. I am looking forward to their return, I hear that the time is getting closer. They will be happy to know that, my expert hunting skills, and stealth patrol has resulted in any unwanted critters from taking up residence. Sister Gracie is on the job, and those pesty critters know better....Meow, adieu! Gracie

VOCATIONS

Mark's Gospel recounts the return of the Twelve, having been sent two by two, without money, food nor second tunic. He encourages them to rest awhile. Jesus demonstrates the value of taking some quiet time to reflect on all the activity in one's life. It is in this reflection that a young person can "hear" the call of God and what their true vocation in life is. Try this week to find some quiet time to "listen for" the Lord's call.
