Message from Fr. Steve

We ended the liturgical year listening to readings with an apocalyptic description of the end of the world. We begin the new season of Advent with similar apocalyptic warnings. Again the purpose is not to frighten us but to fill us with hope. The prophet Jeremiah starts with the reiteration of the proclamation of the promise of the Lord. "The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah." Faith means accepting what God speaks and offers, rather than what human beings like and choose. Hope means trusting and accepting what God promises in Jesus Christ. Hence conversion is integral to responding to the word of God.

I want to share a verse that we would not often associate with Christmas, but I believe it is relevant, especially in light of all we have faced over the past months. (John 10:10) The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life and that they may have it more abundantly. The Global Pandemic has impacted so many lives in a variety of ways. Last year at this time, there was so much division about the various opinions of how things should or should not be. It was hard to imagine things could be more divided at the time, but it seems the enemy is doing all he can to "divide and conquer." The verse we just shared gives such a powerful thought that Jesus came not just so that we could have life, but that it would be abundant life! Perhaps we can become just a bit too focused on the things the enemy is doing and forget that the very purpose of the Lord's coming was to be a life-giver! Not only in the physical sense of living a full life but eternal life so that when we take our final breath on earth, we take our first breath in eternal bliss.

The message of Christmas is breath and life to all who believe! It is up to us to share this good news with the world, yet if we are so preoccupied with our own problems, it just won't get done! If you are looking to the media to share the "good news," you will find great disappointment as that will not happen for the most part! At the end of a half-hour, or hour of news, I have noticed that they might share a two-minute good news story. Then again, maybe not! Jesus came to bring life to a lost and dying world, yet it's up to us as believers to share the message! During these short weeks of Advent, let us allow ourselves to focus on the meaning of why we come together as a parish family. Through our love, may the world find harmony and peace this Advent and Christmas.

Jesus' predictions about the end times may sound dire, but later Luke tells us that people woke early to listen to Jesus' teaching in the Temple area. In his person and in his message, those who heard Jesus found strength and consolation. Like the first Christians, we may encounter events and circumstances that could lead us to despair. Through prayer, however, we find strength and consolation in Jesus' words and in his continuing presence with us to endure all things and to witness to the action of God in our world.

RESPECT LIFE

Jesus Christ suffered on the cross to free us from sin and to renew our hearts to love as He intended. It is His mercy that renews our hearts. Those who work for Planned Parenthood, especially those in influential or powerful roles, are in special need of this mercy. As long as their hearts are closed off to His mercy, they are unable to know the new life that comes from Christ. God, in His love for them, desires to show them His mercy. We must love all who work for Planned Parenthood by sincerely praying and offering sacrifices for their conversion. We pray that God may bestow His mercy upon them and that their hearts may be open and receptive to His mercy. We pray that they repent of their hardness of heart and that their hearts are filled with hope instead. We pray that their hearts may be freed from the bonds of sin and free to love as God created them to do.

My HOUSE smells delicious! I don't know what my big Cat is cooking up but it sure makes me hungry. I will say Thursday this huge chicken, with no feathers showed up in my kitchen. Never in my life have I seen such a big ole chicken. Not only that, there was all kinds of great delectable morsels of goodness everywhere. This cat is in heaven, nothing better than a great delicious meal. Hope there is left-overs. My big cat sure knows how to prepare great meals for me and my brother Blaise. We are to be thankful this time of year, so let me say, I am thankful. Blaise and I have a nice warm place to stay, a soft bed to rest and take long cat-naps, and we get a nice touch from our humans.

I hope those silly two youngsters, Snickers and Lillie know how good they have it. Knowing them, they are probably climbing a big green tree somewhere! Mmmm, there is one in my house! Let me see if I can talk Blaise into climbing it, see you later, Happy Thanksgiving! Sister Grace!

Diocese of Belleville PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God, You have called us through Baptism to discipleship, believing in your Son, Jesus Christ, who has sent us to bring the Good News of salvation to the world. We pray to you, asking that you grant us more priests and religious who will help us build up your Church in the Diocese of Belleville and the world. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many of our youth. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves in service to our Lord Jesus and his people. May a new generation of priests, deacons, sisters and brothers be a sign of your presence among us. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen
