*The Eternal Rest, in Latin requiem aeternam, is the prayer with which Christians ask God his intercession for the souls of their beloved ones. It is possible to recite the Eternal Rest even during other days, not only on 2 November. The Pope, in fact, recites this prayer every Sunday during his Angelus. Usually it is recited in the morning, in the evening, or at the end of the prayers of the Holy Rosary. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen

THIRTY- SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The epitaph of Benjamin Franklin: In one of his lighter moments, Benjamin Franklin (one of the most important Founding Fathers of the United States: author, political theorist, politician, printer, scientist, inventor, civic activist, and diplomat), penned his own epitaph. It seems he must have been influenced by Paul's teaching on the resurrection of the body. Here's what he wrote: The Body of B. Franklin, the former printer lies here, food for worms, like the cover of an old book: its contents torn out, and stripped of its lettering and gilding. But the work shall not be wholly lost: for it will, as he believed, appear once more in a new & more perfect edition, corrected and amended by its Author.

(<http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/treasures/franklin-epitaph.html>)

In today's gospel, Jesus is approached by some Sadducees who question him about the resurrection. Like so many of us, the Sadducees clung to their own way of thinking which led them to be religiously conservative, opposing any doctrine that did not fit into their way of thinking and living. They believed only in the present life, they enjoyed the present without any worry or concern about the afterlife and hence they questioned the resurrection. In today's gospel, they pose a tricky rabbinical question to Jesus to catch him. They attempt to ridicule the resurrection of the dead by recalling the Mosaic Law on levirate marriage, which stated that if a man dies and has no son, and therefore no legal heir, his brother must marry the widow. In this way, the continuity of the family would be guaranteed.

The Sadducees develop their example to absurdity in instancing seven brothers each of whom marries the same woman, but each of whom dies childless. Jesus in his response elevates the discussion to give a deeper understanding of the resurrected life. Firstly, he said we should not look at the afterlife from our human and limited perspective. Life there is quite different. Secondly, since the Sadducees held only to the Law of Moses, Jesus returned to that citing the remarkable incident of Moses encountering God in the burning bush where he identifies himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. When Moses heard from God, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were long dead, yet God said "I am the God of these three patriarchs" not "I was" but "I am!" their God. So Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob still lived! So the creative power of God brings about life after death! The Sadducees became silent. Jesus had shown them that God was the God of life, and God of the living, and those who believe live forever.

Congratulations to Tyler and Alicia Langenfeld, who had their marriage blessed on Thursday, October 27, 2022 at St Mary Chapel. Tyler and Alicia have been married just over one year. They are joined by Tyler's mom and dad, Ron and Bonnie. Congratulations and Happy 1st. Anniversary.

RESPECT LIFE

The Catholic bishops of the United States are pleased to offer once again to the Catholic faithful Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship (en Español), our teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics. This statement represents our guidance for Catholics in the exercise of their rights and duties as participants in our democracy. We urge our pastors, lay and religious faithful, and all people of good will to use this statement to help form their consciences; to teach those entrusted to their care; to contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue; and to shape political choices in the coming election in light of Catholic teaching. The statement lifts up our dual heritage as both faithful Catholics and American citizens with rights and duties as participants in the civil order.

Civilize It

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has launched a campaign inviting Catholics to model civility and love for neighbor throughout the year. Civilize It: Dignity Beyond the Debate will ask Catholics to pledge civility, clarity, and compassion in their families, communities, and parishes, and call on others to do so as well. Find out more information and resources to share with your community at CivilizeIt.org.

I need a nap after all that! Wow, free snacks and treats - the little cats have it made. This Halloween thing can become addictive. I think they should make it every Friday, just Gracie's opinion. Anyways, my belly is full, and my Brother Blaise can barely walk. Well, even without Halloween he is pretty lazy. So I hope all you Little Cats got your buckets filled with snacks and treats. Love, Gracie

Gospel

Luke 21:5-19

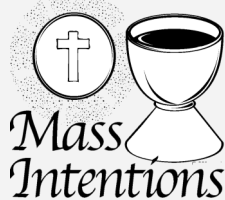

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

There are two important lessons here. First, we are called to be generous with our encouragement and hope with others. As God shows us mercy, we must be merciful to others. Second, joy is contagious! The joy we receive from doing good works not only strengthens us, it encourages others as well. Share the joy of living your faith whenever you can.

ST. MARY'S HISTORICAL THREE CHAIN THURIBLE RESTORED.

As a gift to the Parish a parishioner has generously commissioned the restoration of the traditional three chain thurible used in solemn Liturgical celebrations.

Hidden away for decades inside a dusty closet in the Church Sacristy, it was brought out of retirement! It was used this past year as an incense pot, during the Lenten Stations of the Cross. A parishioner recognized the beauty, history and importance to preserve our history and offered to have it restored. From all indications this relic dates prior to 1957.

The thurible is used in some of the key moments of the Eucharistic celebration: the beginning, before the reading of the Gospel, during the Offertory, and at the moment of consecration. During the funeral, the priest spreads the smoke of the thurible on the coffin containing the corpse to bless and purify it. Similarly, representations of the Virgin Mary and the saints are censured.

The term 'censer' comes from the Latin thus, Thuris "incense." This is also the origin of censer's synonym is derived: it is sometimes called 'incense'. In Latin, it was also referred to as thymiatarium, incensarium, and fumigatorium.

The traditional thuribles commonly are equipped with four chains that make possible the suspension and ritual with which they are shaken on the assembly of the faithful. Three of the chains are used to hold up the thurible, the fourth also serves to raise the lid and insert the incense. St. Mary Parish has always been blessed with parishioners who give of their time, talent and treasure. This treasure of our past, will once again be used as an expression of our prayers and love of God's Church.

The Cardinal Express

During Red Ribbon Week, we "Gave Drugs the Boot!"

Trinity/St. Mary Girls Basketball Team got 2nd in St Mary's tournament! Way to go Defenders!!

At the beginning of the year, Pre-K read the book "Have You Filled a Bucket Today?" They have talked about what it means to fill someone's bucket (being nice to friends, smiling at others, doing something nice for someone). They have also talked about not being a "bucket dipper" (being mean to friends, fighting with others, making fun of someone) and have worked hard to only fill buckets. Today, we decided to fill Ms. Maria's bucket by making her cards and taking them to her office! We love to "fill buckets"!

FIRST QUARTER AWARDS

First and second grade students had their first baking class! They made mini apple pies. We hope to do a Fun Food Friday each month! They also enjoyed a Halloween art project and cookies and milk, while the pies were baking!
