MASS INTENTIONS

You can remember your departed loved ones through a Mass Intention. In his encyclical Mirae caritatis (1902), Pope Leo XIII situated the offering of Mass for others in the true context of our concern for others, the Communion of Saints. Please contact the Parish Office 618-532-6291

Please call Mary Miller, if you have a prayer intention needing to be added to the prayer chain, phone 618-292-1229. The prayer chain also needs more prayer warriors if you can volunteer.

Prayer Intentions

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER MAY 7, 2023

These past few weeks have been a busy time for me. I have been called in all directions, but I continue to manage my time best I can. According to Gary L. McIntosh, president of the Church Growth Network and professor of Christian Ministry, there are ten areas that a pastor must assume. 1. Speaker (Bible Teacher) 2. Captain (Leader) 3. Coach (Developer) 4. Executive (Manager/Operator) 5. Director (Disciple/Overseer) 6. Counselor (Care Provider) 7. Student (Learner) 8. Pioneer (Trail-Blazer) 9. Conductor (Orchestrator), and 10. Reporter (Communicator). As someone who has served in church ministry for a while, I believe these are authentic hats. Why? Because the needs are significant in every church. Pastors are busy because they should be. Motivational speaker Matt Chandler says, "If you're not busy in ministry, you're not doing it right." I agree with his sentiment. Sure, pastors shouldn't be overworked. But pastors shouldn't be bored, either. Pastoral work is long hours and plenty.

Pastors who have loads of free time or think they have a relatively easy job, there's a real chance you may not serve your people well. Some positions may not require specific hats, but pastoral ministry gives us plenty to do. I feel like I've been in a busy season since I was ordained a priest. Pastoral ministry is not what they share at the seminary. It is much more complex and layered than I imagined. A few weeks ago, I met with my spiritual director, who also teaches at St. Meinrad School of Theology. After our meeting, I shared with him how much better I felt after our sessions. He commented that our meeting helped him with insight into busy pastoral ministry. As a professor in the school of theology, he seldom sees the "other side" of parish life. He thanked me for being open and sharing my experiences with him. He is responsible for preparing young men from St. Meinrad Seminary for parish life as a priest.

Being a pastor is one of the greatest privileges in the world because I get a front-row seat to how Jesus builds and leads his church. Jesus said he does the works he sees his Father doing. Jesus stayed busy in the business of his Father. I hope to live this way too. At least until I hear, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

After a short illness, Alvin Holthaus passed away peacefully after 82 years on God's earth. We extend our condolences to his wife Mary and family on their loss. Alvin was a fixture at the 10:30 a.m. Mass, he was a faithful usher and greeter. He was best known for making sure the ice and snow was removed from the parking lot and walkways. A memorial service will be held for Alvin at Sutherland Funeral Home at 4:00 p.m. Sunday, May 7, 2023. May he rest in peace.

5th Sunday of Easter

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. PETER 2:7

Every person has been given gifts from the Holy Spirit. These are called "charisms" and they are used to build God's kingdom of earth. While many people are able to recognize their natural talents and abilities, they may be unsure of their charisms. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern their charisms and how God is calling them to use them. Remember - no gift is too small or insignificant in God's salvation plan..

As I sun myself on my favorite window, I have pondered how wonderful this time of year is. All the colorful flowers and green grass. Gracie doesn't get out much, I am more of a house feline. But now and then I venture into the wilderness of the front yard to take in all the good stuff. I see felines and K9's roaming the neighborhood, I wonder what it would be like to be a "freestyle feline!" I do like my dinner bowl, and afternoon snacks are pretty tasty. Nah, I think I will just stay where I am, sound like a lot of work just to find some food. So I have made up my mind for vacation this summer. Felix tells me there is another place to visit, where our cousin, Alex hangs out in Orlando, called Universal. I'm going to give it a try! Sister Gracie
