MASS INTENTIONS

You can remember your departed loved ones through a Mass Intention. In his encyclical Mirae caritatis (1902), Pope Leo XIII situated the offering of Mass for others in the true context of our concern for others, the Communion of Saints. Please contact the Parish Office 618-532-6291

Please call Mary Miller, if you have a prayer intention needing to be added to the prayer chain, phone 618-292-1229. The prayer chain also needs more prayer warriors if you can volunteer.

TRINITY SUNDAY JUNE 4, 2023

As we enter another weekend at our parishes, a sense of joyful anticipation fills the air. This is no ordinary gathering for our regular mass and community activities. Instead, we come together to commemorate a momentous occasion: the ordination of Deacon Dan Laquet. Our community is blessed with new life as we witness the presence of our first permanent deacon. Through years of unwavering dedication, prayer, and diligent study, Dan has answered God's call to serve His people. The path to ordination has been challenging, but Dan's commitment and passion have illuminated his journey, guided by the grace of God. With the approval of Bishop McGovern, Deacon Dan has been granted full faculties to serve at St. Mary and St. Lawrence Parishes.

This weekend, we unite as one to acknowledge, celebrate, and support this significant milestone in Dan's spiritual journey. The highlight of our activities will be the joyous ceremony of Dan's Mass of Thanksgiving as a deacon. It will be a moment of awe and reverence, reminding us of our faith and the sacred vows of service to God and the community. Together, we will pray and rejoice, demonstrating our unity and unwavering faith. We extend our hopes and blessings to our Deacon Dan, offering our support and love as he embarks on this sacred path. We eagerly anticipate his first homily, as it celebrates his commitment and willingness to guide us on our spiritual paths. Following the 4:00 p.m. Mass, we will come together for a community gathering, a time of joy, gratitude, and fellowship.

Indeed, this weekend is not simply a joyous occasion for our parishes; it is a blessed event that will enrich our community and faith for years to come. As we embrace our newly ordained member, let us reflect on the profound words of 1 Corinthians 12:27, "Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it." May God's abundant blessings be upon Deacon Dan, and may our parish continue to radiate faith, love, and hope to all. Congratulations, Deacon Dan!

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..." JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.
