MASS INTENTIONS

You can remember your departed loved ones through a Mass Intention. In his encyclical Mirae caritatis (1902), Pope Leo XIII situated the offering of Mass for others in the true context of our concern for others, the Communion of Saints. Please contact the Parish Office 618-532-6291

Please call Mary Miller, if you have a prayer intention needing to be added to the prayer chain, phone 618-292-1229. The prayer chain also needs more prayer warriors if you can volunteer.

Prayer Intentions

For those who are sick, homebound, in the hospital or suffering in any way, especially: Blain Loll, Robin Cimera, Waylon Vick, Natasha Lang, Brian "Gooter" Gurthrie, Ruby Stratmann, Deb Steward, Brian Logsdon, Mark Schwartz, The suffering of Ukraine and all Covid19 patients.

For those in Care Centers, and Specialized Living Centers... May they stay safe and healthy.

For those serving in the Armed Forces especially: Dylan Huether or away at College...

SOLMNITY OF THE BODY AND BLOOD JUNE 11, 2023

As we embark on warmer weather, let us take a moment to reflect on the beauty that surrounds us and the countless blessings we have received. Summer offers us an opportunity to appreciate the wonders of creation and to be grateful for the abundant gifts bestowed upon us. In the midst of the longer days and balmy evenings, I encourage you to pause and reconnect with your spiritual journey. Find solace in prayer, seek quiet moments to reflect, and deepen your relationship with God. Let this season be a time of spiritual rejuvenation, as we draw closer to our faith and nurture the seeds of love and compassion within us.

Furthermore, summer also beckons us to engage in acts of kindness and charity. Let us open our hearts to those who are in need, reaching out to the vulnerable and marginalized in our community. Whether it is extending a helping hand, volunteering our time, or sharing our resources, let our actions be a testament to our faith and a reflection of God's infinite love.

Finally, as families gather and vacations are planned, let us not forget the importance of nurturing our relationships. Cherish the moments spent with loved ones, creating lasting memories and strengthening the bonds that unite us. May our interactions be filled with understanding, forgiveness, and compassion, radiating the love of Christ in every encounter.

As we embrace the blessings of summer, may we also carry the light of faith wherever we go. May our actions and words reflect the teachings of Jesus Christ, inspiring others to seek God's love and mercy. May the grace of God guide us throughout this season, illuminating our path and filling our hearts with joy and peace. Fr. Steve

ORDINATION OF DEACONS

On Saturday June 3, I [ordained 14 candidates from the Diocese of Belleville to the Order of Deacon. Our candidates are Catholic men from the parishes of southern Illinois who have experienced the Lord's call to serve him and the Church in the ministry of deacon. Along with their wives, our candidates have participated in the various aspects of the formation program for about five years. It has been a privilege to get to know them since I arrived in Belleville in July 2020, and I look forward to developing the bond between us in the years ahead.

In the Catholic faith, Holy Orders is one of the seven sacraments. Within Holy Orders, we have the Order of Bishop, the Order of Priest, and the Order of Deacon. After the Second Vatican Council, the Church restored the possibility of a man being ordained a deacon and remaining in that order permanently. For many centuries, deacons were exclusively ordained as they prepared for ordination to the priesthood. For the past fifty years, deacons may be "transitional" (moving toward priesthood) or permanent (remaining a deacon for life). All of our 14 candidates will be permanent deacons.

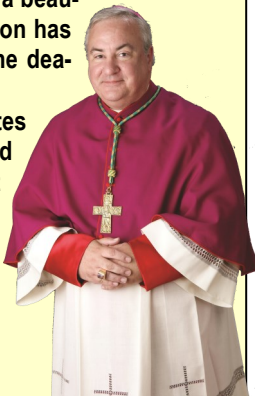

The Rite of Ordination of a Deacon includes several important moments; permit me to focus on three of them. First, the candidate promises obedience and respect to his bishop and the bishop's successors. A key aspect of the ministry of the deacon is service, and that service is performed in collaboration with the diocesan bishop. The deacon receives his assignment or "mission" in the diocese from the bishop. The bishop is the overseer of the diocese and has a responsibility to send the deacons to the place or ministry that the bishop believes the deacon can best serve the Lord and the Church at this time. Obedience, whether it be a bishop who is obedient to the pope, or a deacon obedient to his bishop, requires humility and flexibility. This is especially true when a cleric must set aside his personal preferences about where to live or serve and accept being sent to a place and a people that may be new and unfamiliar to him. In all of this, we rely on the Holy Spirit to help us to say "yes" to being sent.

A second important moment in the ordination rite is when the bishop places his hands silently on the head of the candidate for a few moments. The "laying on of hands" is the unbroken gesture of ordination going back to the time of the apostles. Once the bishop has finished imposing his hands on the head of each candidate, the bishop prays over the candidates asking for the Lord's help for them. The "laying on of hands" is normally surprisingly brief, with the bishop only imposing his hands for a few moments. I think the reason for that brevity is so that the focus is on Christ ordaining the candidates through the ministry of the bishop.

The third important moment in the ordination of a deacon is when the bishop hands the Book of the Gospels to the newly ordained deacon. The bishop says: "Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe and practice what you teach." This is a beautiful summation of the mandate that the deacon has received. It is also an excellent maxim for the deacon to follow.

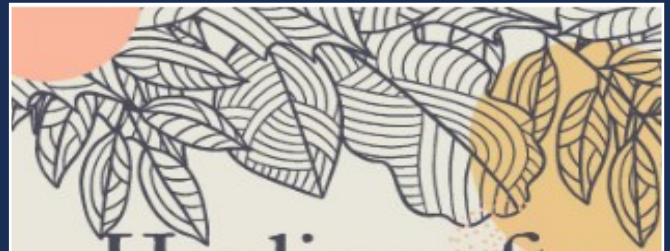

Please join me in praying for our candidates for the diaconate and for their spouses and families. The ordination day will be a great joy for all the people of our diocese. May God who has begun such a great work in them, bring it to completion on the day of Jesus Christ.

*Sincerely yours in Christ,
Bishop Michael McGovern*

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"FOR MY FLESH IS TRUE FOOD, AND MY BLOOD IS TRUE DRINK."

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." 1 CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

To mark Deacon Dan Laquet's ordination, the members of St. Mary Parish gifted him a chalice as a token of remembrance. Deacon Dan holds the distinction of being the first permanent deacon to be ordained from St. Mary Parish. During his Mass of Thanksgiving, Father Steve blessed the chalice, which was used for the celebration of the Holy Mass. Congratulations, Dan and Vicki!

Thanks to everyone who made Deacon Dan's Ordination so special. It was a glorious day for our parishes. Special thanks to the kitchen crew who prepared the delicious dinner. Blessings to everyone and thanks!
