CENTRALIA CARE CENTER

We are in need of one more extra-ordinary minister to bring Holy Communion to Centralia Care Center. There are two ministers serving now, we need a third to make the monthly rotation work better.

MASS INTENTIONS

You can remember your departed loved ones through a Mass Intention. In his encyclical Mirae caritatis (1902), Pope Leo XIII situated the offering of Mass for others in the true context of our concern for others, the Communion of Saints. Please contact the Parish Office 618-532-6291

Please call Mary Miller, if you have a prayer intention needing to be added to the prayer chain, phone 618-292-1229. The prayer chain also needs more prayer warriors if you can volunteer.

Prayer Intentions

For those who are sick, homebound, in the hospital or suffering in any way, especially: Blain Loll, Robin Cimera, Waylon Vick, Natasha Lang, Brian "Gooter" Gurthrie, Ruby Stratmann, Deb Steward, Mark Schwartz, The suffering of Ukraine and all Covid19 patients.

For those in Care Centers, and Specialized Living Centers... May they stay safe and healthy.

For those serving in the Armed Forces especially: Dylan Huether or away at College...

JULY 23, 2023

Deacon Dan Laquet

I am going to focus on the Gospel reading this week because it relates such a beautiful message to us about the nature of God. This week we continue to hear of several parables in the Gospel of Matthew. Parables that Jesus uses to teach about the Kingdom of God when He addresses those who have come to hear Him speak. Last week we heard of the Sower, whose seeds fell in a variety of places and produced different results based on where they landed. Jesus explained that the seeds were the Word of God, and depending on the person who received God's Word, it produced varying outcomes.

Today, we hear of the Sower who spread good seed in his field, but then an enemy came behind him and sowed weed seeds amongst the wheat the farmer had spread. When the weeds began to grow with the wheat, the Sower chose to let them coexist until harvest time realizing that if the weeds were pulled out some of the wheat would be too. Jesus explains that the wheat represents the righteous, while the weeds symbolize the wicked, and that God will separate them from one another at the final judgement. This parable depicts the ongoing spiritual battle between good and evil, showing the strategies used by the devil to sow deception within the world and thus hinder the growth of God's kingdom. It also emphasizes God's patience and love for us as He allows both the wheat and weeds to grow till harvest, symbolizing the delay of final judgement, and giving those who need it an opportunity for repentance. We become aware of God's ultimate sovereignty and authority here when the righteous will be gathered into His kingdom and the wicked will be cast into eternal punishment.

Jesus tells us, "Whoever has ears ought to hear", a challenge to us to reflect on our hearts and choices. We all have moments of goodness and weakness, love and selfishness. Recognizing our imperfections humbles us and allows for self-reflection. It is our job to protect the wheat within us and uproot the weeds. We nurture the good while striving for spiritual growth, increased love of God and neighbor, and repentance. By embracing this process, we create space for God's grace to transform us into someone who bears abundant fruit. Simple acts of kindness, compassion, and faithfulness can have extraordinary impacts on our own lives and the lives of those around us. God's kingdom works through humility. Through our humble efforts, we trust that God can use them to grow His kingdom and create receptive hearts in those we encounter.

DISCERNING WHEAT & WEEDS

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom."-Matthew 13:24, 37-38

As children of God, we are all "good seeds". We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

Vocation Corner

"The countless gravestones at Normandy American Cemetery in France stirred my heart. These brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives challenged me: Would I be willing to lay down my life, as these men did, for the Lord and his people? Long before this pivotal moment, the seeds of my vocation had been planted by family role models. My grandfather served his family and parish sacrificially for many years after his WWII duty. Likewise, my father coached me in self-discipline, and my dear mother raised me to serve others. It was at college that the Lord Jesus truly captured my heart. After graduation, I served as a missionary and met the Brotherhood of Hope. I admired the brothers and their work evangelizing students at secular universities, but I resisted the idea of celibacy and did not have the courage to explore a vocation with them until after my experience at Normandy Beach. My years with the Brothers of Hope have strengthened my conviction that Jesus Christ alone can satisfy our deepest desires."
