19TH. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
August 13, 2023
Deacon Dan Laquet

Focusing on the Gospel reading this week, we are reminded that God is Lord over all the earth. He has divine power over all the forces of nature that He has created. Jesus displays that power by the miraculous event of walking on water. The disciples are undoubtedly amazed because they are fearful that the stormy waters are going to engulf them, and then they see Jesus calmly walking across the rough sea. In a moment of great faith, Peter requests that he be allowed to walk out on the water to Jesus, and he steps out of the boat.

For a while, all is well, then the human tendency of fear and doubt in the face of the wind and waves overwhelms Peter and he begins to sink. In our humanness, we are so easily swayed by external circumstances, even in the presence of Jesus. Peter calls out to Jesus, acknowledging Him as his savior and the one who can rescue him and bring him to safety. Jesus then admonishes Peter for his wavering faith, emphasizing that he must keep his focus on Jesus, rather than being distracted by the challenges that are surrounding him.

How many times have we let the "storms" in our own lives distract us from God? Many times, we only dwell on our fears, when we should be reaching out and seeking ways to trust in God's assistance. The powerful imagery in today's passage can give us a point of reflection to help us foster courage, resilience, and a deep reliance on the Lord in our lives. We can discover God in the midst of the challenges and uncertainties in our lives. God often reveals himself in difficult moments. Although we may feel afraid and have doubts, if we have faith and trust in God, we can find calm and comfort in His presence.

We are invited today to examine our own faith journey. Just like the disciples, we face many trials that test our faith, but Jesus serves as a reminder to have courage, trust in Him, and step out into the world in faith. Even though we may falter, we are encouraged to call out to Him, fully aware that He is always present and willing to save us from whatever we are facing. Ultimately, by placing our faith in the Son of God, we can find peace and strength, knowing that He walks us through the storms of life, guiding us safely to the shores of His love and grace.

"He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus." -Matthew 14:29

When you hear Jesus calling, do you responded immediately and trust that He knows what He's doing? If so, you are walking on water! When we say "yes" to Jesus, we feel the power of his presence in our lives. We can feel the freedom it gives us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.
