Congratulations to James Burris, who has been accepted into the Deacon Formation Aspirancy Year, a year of introductory formation before Formal Classes begin in the fall of 2024. Aspirants, alongside their wives (some not present) from Belleville Diocese and Cape-Springfield Diocese, convened at the Cathedral of St. Peter Bishop McGovern spoke to the attendees, and Deacon Steven Kramer, a professor of homiletics at Sacred Heart Seminary and School of Theology in Hales Corners, WI, led the retreat. The five year formation begins. Please support James and his family as he travels this road, with prayers and encouragement.

20th. Sunday

O God, who have prepared for those who love you good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of your love, so that, loving you in all things and above all things, we may attain your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever
AMEN

As the warmth of summer gradually fades and the anticipation of a fresh academic year fills the air, we came together to honor a distinct tradition: the Blessing of the Backpacks. A backpack is not merely a bag; it shoulders the textbooks, the tools of learning, and aspirations for what's yet to come. Within its confines lie the pens and pencils that fuel imagination, as well as drawings, toys, and cherished possessions. It's heartwarming to watch our youth eagerly present their new belongings for a special blessing.

20TH. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
August 20, 2023
Seminarian Luke Fitzgerald

By now, nearly everyone has either seen or heard about the movie "Sound of Freedom." For those who do not know, the movie is about the true story of Tim Ballard, a Federal Agent, and how he ended up risking his life and livelihood to rescue victims of child human trafficking. While the movie is not graphic, there have been a large number of controversies due in part to the truth being spoken about human trafficking, not only abroad but even in our own local areas. It is hard to listen to, speak about, or even think about these horrors that the victims have had to endure in their lives.

So, how is it that I or even others in the public can speak about this being a good movie while many in Hollywood speak against it? Personally for me, it's because this movie gives a voice to those who have none. It speaks about a bigger problem going on not only in dark corners halfway around the world but also for anyone with power or money in our own country. It shows how there are people willing to stand up against the powerful at the risk of losing everything they have for what is right.

Recently, there have been others in the entertainment industry whose careers have also suffered because of their own outspokenness. Mark Wahlberg, Mel Gibson, and Aston Kutcher and all recently spoken up for not only what they believe but also against the horrors of human trafficking and how Hollywood has played a roll in it. Also, each of them have had to pay dearly in different ways for going against the elites. Now, I'm not one to back away from pointing out great saints, like Saint Stephen the Martyr, who also spoke boldly and openly about Christ and their faith to the elites of their day, but when I see big names in Hollywood starting to shine a light in the dark corners of their industry, it give me hope. Hope that you and I can too find the courage needed in our own lives to stand with Christ no matter what the cost and help bring an end to any wrongdoings that might be going on. Hope that a voice will be given to those that don't have one. But more importantly, Hope that God is not only at work but still in control even in the darkest of places.

Dear Friends in Christ:

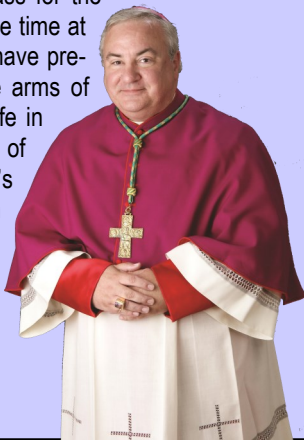

Many of the Catholic schools in our diocese will be starting classes in mid-August. In fact, some schools will open on August 15, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I'm glad that the students will celebrate Mass together on that holy day because it will remind them of the life and holiness of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It will also be a teachable moment for the youth about the goal of our lives: life forever with the Holy Trinity, the Blessed Mother and all the saints and angels in heaven!

"Keep eternity in mind" was a frequent saying of a Carmelite priest who acted as my spiritual director when I was a young priest. On August 15, as we thank God for raising Mary body and soul into eternal glory at the end of her life on earth, let's "keep eternity in mind." We frequently use the word "journey" to describe our lives on earth; yet that "journey" at some point will come to a destination. It's important that we keep in mind the eternal home we long for while we live here on earth, as people motivated by God's love.

I encourage everyone to participate at Mass for the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Take time at church to reflect upon the loved ones who have preceded us in life and passed away into the arms of God. Ask that God grant them the gift of life in heaven even as we wait for the resurrection of the dead at the end of time on earth. Let's "keep eternity in mind" and stay focused on following the Lord Jesus who leads us to the Father's house.

Our Lady of the Assumption, pray for us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Bishop Michael McGovern

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable."-
Romans 11:29

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan. us! Listen how Jesus is calling you to live the extraordinary life He has intended for you.
