Protecting Vulnerable Adults

Vulnerable adults are those who are over 18 years of age and at-risk due to illness, advanced age, abuse or special needs. These adults may be unable to seek assistance or report abuse.

Through this course, those who work or volunteer with vulnerable adults can become aware of ways to assist and ensure safe environments to prevent abuse and neglect.

All staff members, teachers, volunteers, coaches, parents who drive students for the school, or PSR, must be in compliance with the Diocese of Belleville, Safe Environment.

If you are new to volunteering with children, please complete the INITIAL TRAINING MODULE.

If not, please go to the website and take the 2023-2024, Protecting Vulnerable Adults module. Please complete your training/update by September 10, 2023.

22nd. Sunday of Ordinary Time
September 3, 2023

I wanted to take a moment to apologize for my limited availability. My commitment and dedication to serving our church and its congregation have always been at the forefront of my priorities. However, as we all experience at various points in our lives, there are times that demand our attention in unexpected ways. I've been navigating a particularly demanding period. I deeply regret any inconvenience or feelings of neglect you might have felt due to my busyness. I understand that my role as a pastor is not just to lead but to be present, to listen, and to be a source of spiritual guidance and support.

I am earnestly working on realigning my schedule and setting up measures to ensure I am more accessible in the days to come. My fervent prayer is that we, as a church family, continue to grow stronger in faith and love, even in the face of challenges. I value and cherish each and every one of you, and I am immensely grateful for your understanding, support, and the grace you've shown. Let us continue to uphold each other in prayer and walk together in the light of Christ.

In today's Gospel, just as Jeremiah spoke of his sufferings, Jesus seems to prepare his disciples for his approaching passion and death. Like Jeremiah, Jesus has to face the consequences of his relationship with God and his mission on earth, which will lead to his passion and violent death. Peter tries to deflect Jesus from the path that lies ahead. He is like so many of us who want to protect those whom we love respect and care for. Peter took Jesus aside and rebuked him, saying, "Lord! This must never happen to you." "Don't talk about suffering! Can't we find an easier way? Can't we compromise and find an equitable solution that does not cause pain?" Jesus denounces Peter: "Get behind me, Satan!" Then turning to the crowds Jesus puts the demands of the Gospel with all that they entail. Whether anyone comes after him is voluntary, but once they choose they must know that His path is not an easy comfortable path, it demands constant self denial, a saying 'No' to oneself and 'yes' to God. He then placed before them this paradox of Christian and human life. "Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it and whoever loses his life for Jesus' sake will find it." Strangely, those who are truly living are those who have never stopped finding ways of losing themselves in other people for Jesus' sake.

FORMER PASTOR FATHER DENNIS VOSS

May 30, 1938 - August 19, 2023

Father Voss attended Germantown Grade School, St. Henry Preparatory Seminary, and St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Zuroweste at St. Boniface Church, Germantown, IL, on May 16, 1964. Father Dennis served as associate pastor at St. Peter's Cathedral, Belleville, and St. Albert the Great Catholic Church, Fairview Heights, IL. He also served as pastor of St. Cyril Church, East St. Louis; St. Mary Church, Centralia; St. Stephen Church, Flora; St. Liborius Church, St. Libory; and St. Anthony Church, Lively Grove.

Father Steve spoke with Father Voss not long ago, and he shared his memories of being pastor of St. Mary Church. He spoke with pride, reflecting on the efforts to construct the SMS Gym. During, Catholic School's Week a number of students send Father Voss cards. Father Steve shared with some of the athletics, that Father Voss was instrumental in getting the gym constructed. He showed me a couple cards that our SMS students had drawn a picture of the gym, with a thank you.

Father Voss will be greatly missed as a kind, gentle, out-stand dedicated priest. He leaves behind, a legacy that has spanned across the diocese. May he find rest and peace.

St. Louis, Missouri

Sister Gracie has been minding her own business, and suddenly, without notice, 131 little cats, invaded my school. (I counted them) I had to take refuge inside a discarded paper, I found on the floor. Glad to see them back, but so many? New tiny cats, have taken over my favorite room, they moved in their nap rolls, treats, and water bottles. I decided not to let them see me, Gracie loves hugs and kisses, but it would be like I was a rock star, and I'm not ready for that. Anyways, its good to have them back, I promise to keep the critters from invading my school. Hope you have a great week. Love Sister Gracie.

WHAT IT MEANS TO FOLLOW

MATTHEW 16:21-27

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?"-Matthew 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else."We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.
