Easter Sunday 2025 Respect Life Corner

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)." MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

The Stone Is Rolled Away—So Now What?

"He saw and believed." – John 20:8

On behalf of myself, Msgr. Darin, Deacon Steve, Deacon Mark, and Deacon Dan—Happy Easter! There's something beautifully human about Easter morning. It's that deep breath, that exhale after the long journey of Lent and the powerful, emotional days of Holy Week. I think even the church pews seem to sigh a little. For many of you, today is filled with family traditions, joyful worship, big meals, and yes—plenty of chocolate bunnies (solid ones, not hollow—we have standards). For those of us in collars, Easter is joy, relief, and maybe just a little sleep. We love this season, but let's just say it's not exactly low-impact ministry.

I want to offer my sincere thanks to everyone who helped make this Lent and Holy Week so meaningful. From those who prepared and served our fish fries (I'm fairly certain the smell of fried cod is now permanently embedded in my collar), to the volunteers who led Stations of the Cross, decorated the church, participated in the liturgies, played music, cleaned, cooked, organized, showed up, and supported in a hundred unseen ways—thank you. The Church is at its best when it feels like a family, and that's exactly what you made it feel like. You brought life to the season, and that same life is what Easter is all about.

Today's Gospel from John (20:1–9) is fascinating. It doesn't give us trumpets or a shining, risen Jesus breaking out of the tomb like a superhero. It gives us an empty tomb, a rolled-away stone, and a lot of confusion. Mary Magdalene runs, Peter and the other disciple race to see, and what do they find? Nothing—just linen cloths and a whole lot of questions. And yet... he saw and believed.

That's Easter faith. It's not always about what we can touch or see or prove. Sometimes, it's about recognizing hope in emptiness, trusting love even when things feel uncertain.

And since we live in Illinois—"The Land of Lincoln"—here's a little historical twist I always find oddly perfect for Easter. Did you know that President Abraham Lincoln's coffin was opened not once, but twice? The first time was in 1887, 20 years after his death. Why? Because rumors had spread that the coffin didn't actually contain Lincoln's body. So they opened it, and sure enough—he was there. Fourteen years later, the same rumors popped up again. And yes, they opened it again, and guess what? Still Lincoln.

Now, imagine if that happened with Jesus. When the disciples went to the tomb, they found nothing. And that wasn't proof of a cover-up—it was proof of a miracle. The rumors about Jesus' body spread too, but this time the absence confirmed what He had promised: He is risen. No body. Just life.

The angel's question in another Gospel account rings loudly: "Why do you look for the living among the dead?" It's still a question worth asking. Sometimes we search for hope in the wrong places, trying to bring life out of things that are already gone—old grudges, fears, failures. Easter invites us to stop searching among the dead and instead look for life: in Christ, in our relationships, in our community, and in the ways we care for one another.

So today, let's rejoice—not because the tomb was full, but because it was empty. That emptiness is our fullness. It's the start of something new. May this Easter fill your heart with hope, joy, and renewed purpose. And may you laugh a little too—because resurrection means that even death doesn't get the last word. God does.

He is risen! He is truly risen! Alleluia!
With Easter joy,

Father Steve

Did you know....

The Easter Bunny traces back to 1600s German Lutherans, symbolizing judgment and new life, while eggs represent the empty tomb and were a Lenten treat on Easter Sunday.

From Our Hearts to Yours – Thank You!

The St. Mary School PTO would like to extend our deepest gratitude to everyone who made this year's Fish Fry such a wonderful success. Whether you brought a dessert for the free-will donation table, fried fish in the kitchen, served with a smile, set up tables, cleaned up afterward, or simply came and enjoyed a delicious meal with your family—we are so thankful for you!

Events like this don't just happen—they're made possible by the incredible spirit of our school and parish family. We're especially grateful for the students and their parents who stepped up to serve and support in countless ways. Your generosity, time, and cheerful hearts brought our cafeteria to life and reminded us all what makes Catholic education so special: a community that comes together in faith, fun, and fellowship.

Proceeds from the Fish Fry will directly support Catholic education at St. Mary School, helping us continue to provide a nurturing environment where our children can grow in knowledge and faith.

Thank you again for showing up, pitching in, and making a difference. We are truly blessed! With gratitude, St. Mary School PTO

Registration Now Open at St. Mary School

Registration for the 2025-2026 school year at St. Mary School is now officially open! We are excited to welcome new and returning families into our vibrant learning community where faith, knowledge, and service come together each day. Whether your child is entering preschool, kindergarten, or transferring from another school, St. Mary's offers a warm and welcoming environment where students grow academically, spiritually, and emotionally.

Catholic education is one of the most powerful gifts we can offer our children. At St. Mary School, we don't just teach curriculum—we form disciples. Our students learn to see the world through the eyes of faith, guided by values like compassion, integrity, and respect. But we can't keep this gift to ourselves! If you love what St. Mary's offers, share it with others—neighbors, friends, coworkers. Word of mouth is one of the best ways to help more families discover the blessing of Catholic education. Let's continue to build a community where Christ is at the center and every child can shine.
