A Prayer of Thanksgiving for Pope Francis

In Gratitude for a Life of Goodness and Love Heavenly Father, From age to age, You raise up holy men and women who echo the heart of Your Son. Today, we give You thanks for Pope Francis—born December 17, 1936, and called home to You on April 21, 2025. In word and witness, he reflected the simplicity and compassion of St. Francis of Assisi, reminding us all that the path of humility is the path to Christ. Lord, inspired by the poor man of Assisi, Pope Francis showed the world a Church of open arms, mercy, and joy. He walked among the suffering, listened to the forgotten, and carried the Gospel to the margins of society. May we never forget his gentle spirit, his bold voice for peace, creation, and the poor, and his deep trust in Your boundless mercy.

St. Francis of Assisi, patron of peace and creation, pray for us.

*Pope Francis, servant of the servants of God,
intercede for us.*

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

Peeps, Puddles, and the Power of the Resurrection

"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." – Psalm 118:24

You've probably heard the old weather folklore: "If it rains on Easter Sunday, it'll rain for the next seven Sundays." Well, the meteorologists called for rain—and technically, they weren't wrong. But before a single drop fell, we were blessed with a glorious Easter morning: sunshine, warm breezes, and families gathered in their Sunday best. Even if the skies opened up later in the day, the joy had already taken root. It's a beautiful reminder that even when the rain eventually comes, it can't wash away the promise of the Resurrection.

This Easter, joy came bursting forth in every direction. Children laughed, families gathered, and yes—the indoor Easter egg hunts continued, but families still stepped outside for joyful photographs under bright skies. Nothing could dampen the true joy of Easter morning. Because here's the thing: Easter joy isn't weather-dependent. It's resurrection-dependent. And that, my friends, is rock solid.

That same joy continues to bloom in our parishes—especially as we celebrate First Holy Communion this Sunday at St. Mary in Centralia and next Sunday at St. Mary in Mt. Vernon. As a priest, there's no greater joy than saying, "The Body of Christ," and seeing a young person, full of faith and wonder, receive Jesus for the very first time. It's a sacred moment wrapped in smiles, proud families, and maybe a few wobbly dress shoes.

We also continue to walk with our newly baptized and confirmed members of the Church, welcomed into the faith on Holy Saturday. Their "yes" to the Church is a powerful witness—and although we may be tempted to immediately sign them up to chair the next rummage sale, let's give them a little breathing room first. (The Holy Spirit moves fast, but not that fast!)

Yet amid the joy of Easter, our hearts are also heavy with the news of the passing of our Holy Father, Pope Francis. His love for the poor, his tireless call for mercy, and his unwavering witness to the Gospel have left a mark on the Church and the world. As we commend him to God's eternal embrace, we remember that his life, like all lives rooted in Christ, does not end in death—but continues in the light of the Resurrection. "Well done, good and faithful servant." May he rest in peace, and may we honor his memory by living the mercy he so often preached.

And today, on Divine Mercy Sunday, we are reminded that the joy of Easter is never meant to fade. Through the witness of St. Faustina, we are invited into the heart of Jesus, whose mercy knows no bounds. Her simple prayer—"Jesus, I trust in You"—is both a whisper of hope and a bold declaration of faith. Whether we're riding the highs of celebration or carrying the weight of sorrow, that mercy meets us exactly where we are.

It's in the quiet of a hospital room, the uncertainty of a job search, or the silent ache of grief that Divine Mercy often shows up unannounced—like a warm breeze after a storm. It's in the strength to keep going, the courage to forgive, or the grace to begin again. Jesus doesn't wait for perfect conditions; He walks right into our mess with love that restores and mercy that heals. And that's the power of Easter: a Savior who steps into our storms, not to avoid them—but to transform them with mercy, love, and new life!

Prayers for Msgr. Darin and a warm welcome to Father Pat Peter

Many of you are aware that Msgr. Darin will soon undergo knee surgery. We've all witnessed the pain and discomfort he has carried with such grace in recent months. As he prepares for this important procedure, let us surround him with our prayers—entrusting him to the loving care of our Heavenly Father. May the Holy Spirit guide the hands of his surgeons, nurses, and all those who will tend to him. We pray for a smooth surgery, a swift recovery, and the joyful day when he returns to us, renewed and pain-free.

During his absence, we are grateful to welcome Father Pat Peter, who will be celebrating Mass with us at our three parishes in Centralia, Mount Vernon, and Sandoval. Please join us in extending a warm welcome and heartfelt gratitude for his presence.

Also, please note there will be adjustments to the Mass schedule at both St. Mary in Mt. Vernon and St. Mary in Centralia. We'll keep you updated on Msgr. Darin's progress and any further changes as they arise.

Come Grow With Us! Registration Now Open at St. Mary School

Registration for the 2025-2026 school year at St. Mary School is now officially open! We are excited to welcome new and returning families into our vibrant learning community where faith, knowledge, and service come together each day. Whether your child is entering preschool, kindergarten, or transferring from another school, St. Mary's offers a warm and welcoming environment where students grow academically, spiritually, and emotionally.

Catholic education is one of the most powerful gifts we can offer our children. At St. Mary School, we don't just teach curriculum—we form disciples. Our students learn to see the world through the eyes of faith, guided by values like compassion, integrity, and respect. But we can't keep this gift to ourselves! If you love what St. Mary's offers, share it with others—neighbors, friends, coworkers. Word of mouth is one of the best ways to help more families discover the blessing of Catholic education. Let's continue to build a community where Christ is at the center and every child can shine.

Our Lenten journey began in quiet humility on Ash Wednesday, as we received ashes—reminders of our mortality and need for God's mercy. For forty days, we walked with Jesus through sacrifice, prayer, and repentance. Along the way, we grew in faith, carrying one another's burdens and drawing closer to Christ. Now we stand before the empty tomb, where sorrow is transformed into joy and death into life.
