MESSAGE FROM OUR DEACON

Deacon Dan Laquet

Luke tells us in the Acts of the Apostles that Jesus was seen in his risen form for forty days. After those forty days, Jesus ascended into heaven. The feast of today marks this stage of transition in the story of incarnation and resurrection – that Jesus will not be seen in his earthly body anymore. Luke describes this “withdrawal” of Jesus in terms of being “lifted up”, and Mark, in his Gospel, describes it as “being taken up into heaven”. I would like to focus on two phrases from the first reading of today which capture important dimensions of our Christian life, namely, we have our eyes fixed on heaven but at the same time we have our feet firm on the ground.

Eyes Fixed on Heaven: “He was lifted up while they looked on” (Acts 1:9)

The feast of today invites us to look up, to have our eyes fixed on heaven. Luke tells us in the gospel: “Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and raising his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven.” He goes on to add in the Acts of the Apostles, as we heard in the first reading of today, “As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight.” What did this mean for his apostles?

This description of Luke reminds us of what happened in the Hebrew Scriptures. The Second Book of Kings (2King 2:9-15) tells us how one day Elijah was with his disciple Elisha near the river Jordan. Suddenly there appeared a chariot of fire drawn by horses of fire. Elijah was taken up in a whirlwind as Elisha looked up to heaven. From that time Elisha received the spirit of his master and was empowered to continue his mission in the world. In fact, from then on Elisha was able to perform the same deeds as his master, this would also be the case for Jesus’ apostles.

Luke reminds us, through his own narration in the readings of today, that we will be empowered by the Spirit to do the same things that our Lord and master Jesus performed. In similar words, St Paul, writing to the Colossians, assures them – and us: “Since you have been raised up to be with Christ, you must look for the things that are above, where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand. Let your thoughts be on things above, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed..., you too will be revealed with him in glory” (Col 3:1-4). That is why, in the gospel of today, Luke tells us that after the parting of Jesus his disciples “went back to Jerusalem full of joy”.

Feet Firm on the Earth: “Why are you standing here looking into the sky?” (Acts 1:11)

Looking up to heaven is not meant to be an escape from life here below. The disciples are told in the Acts of the Apostles, “Why are you Galileans standing here looking into the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way as you have seen him go to heaven” They can’t possibly be “witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to earth’s remotest end”, if they kept standing there just gazing at the sky. The disciples’ belief in the Risen Lord, the power of the Spirit in them, and their hope in the second coming of Jesus must be expressed in their commitment to transforming the world. Yes, they need to have their feet firm on the earth.

Elsewhere, Jesus tells us, “Blessed are those servants that the Lord, on his return, will find busy at work serving their brothers and sisters.” (Lk 12:35-48). During the transfiguration of the Lord, when Peter wanted to pitch tents on the mountain-top to get lost in the clouds, Jesus brought them down the mountain, back to the challenge of daily life (Lk 9:28-37). Moments of looking up to heaven, being on the mountain-top, and experiences of being elated are necessary and important in our spiritual lives. They are moments of grace. However, the fruits of those moments are truly expressed in the trials of daily life. People of faith must also have their feet firm on the earth. As Christians we are not lost in the narrow confines of this world. We have a sense of upward and forward-looking hope. At the same time, we are ‘not lost in the clouds.’ For us, genuine holiness consists of the meaningful integration of the spiritual and mundane aspects of our daily life.

Heading Off to High School!

Our St. Mary's 8th Grade Graduation was nothing short of magical. It's never easy saying goodbye to Junior High, but this sendoff? Absolutely perfect. The church was filled with joy, a few tears, and a whole lot of pride. Our Gospel reminded us: "Be not afraid." And that's what I told them—heading off to high school might feel a little scary, but God walks every step with you.

I've had the joy of knowing this amazing crew since they were in third grade. I've watched them grow in faith, friendship, and wisdom. I've seen them serve at Mass, lead by example, and bring laughter to the halls. What a gift they've been to our parish and school community. Each graduate brings something unique and beautiful to their families, our church, and the world. They are smart, kind, funny, faith-filled, and ready for the next chapter.

We're deeply grateful to Ashlee Wethington Photography and Tim Ferguson for generously capturing and sharing beautiful moments from graduation, first communion, sports, and school events. Thank you so much—we truly appreciate you! Your time and talent mean so much to our community. Thanks to you, these special memories will be cherished for years to come.

Blessing of Vehicles

Join us for the Blessing of Vehicles after Mass on Saturday, May 31, and Sunday, June 1, in the parking lot. Bring your cars, vans, trucks, bikes, Harleys, strollers, scooters—whatever you drive or ride—for a special blessing as we pray for safety and protection on the road.

Blessing of Vehicles, Sunday, after the 4:00 p.m. (vigil) Mass and 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass
