MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

At our final school Mass before summer break, I tossed out two simple questions to our St. Mary students: "What did you like most about school this year?" and "What are you doing this summer?" Now, if you think the answers were full of theological depth and saintly aspirations, well...

grab a snow cone and think again.

Let's start with the first question—What did you like most about St. Mary School? The top responses? Recess, snacks, and friends—a holy trinity of childhood joy. But what warmed my priestly heart (and not just because someone again, turned the A/C thermostat to 80!) was this: student after student said, "My teachers." Over and over again. What a beautiful testament to the vocation of teaching! Right here at St. Mary's, faith isn't just taught—it's lived, modeled, and passed on. You could say we're building saints with glue sticks and grammar books.

Now, question number two—What are you doing this summer? Oh boy. We had it all: visits to "the Mouse" in Florida (Mickey, not a parish rodent—I checked), swimming, camping, and even one proud soul who said, "I'm going to mow grass." A true suburban missionary. But the overwhelming winner? "Sleeping in!" Apparently the only bells they want to hear this summer are not from the 8:00 AM class bell. And hey, even Jesus told the disciples to rest a while—so who am I to argue?

Which brings us to this week's Gospel from Luke 24:46-53—Jesus blesses His disciples and is taken up to heaven. But before He goes, He gives them a mission: "You are witnesses of these things." That's our call too. As we step into summer, it's not just a vacation from math facts and spelling lists—it's a new season to live our faith in flip-flops and sunscreen.

So I'll ask you the same question I asked our students: What are you doing this summer? Sleeping in is fine. A little fishing? Perfect. Even a trip to the Magic Kingdom—enjoy! But here's the real challenge: Does God get any extra time? Maybe it's ten minutes in prayer, a good Catholic book, a family rosary, or helping a neighbor. Because the mission Jesus gave His disciples? It didn't end at the Ascension—it started there.

And if you're like me, you'll be spending part of the summer answering emails that begin with "Father, quick question..." and end somewhere around the Book of Revelation, trying to figure out who keeps resetting the church sign to say "Taco Tuesday," and dodging invitations to "just stop by for a minute" that mysteriously last three hours and involve moving furniture. It's the kind of pastoral cardio they never warned us about in seminary. Pray for your pastor—he's fueled by grace, coffee, and whatever baked goods show up in the office unannounced.

In all seriousness, our students remind us what joyful, authentic faith looks like. They laugh loudly, sing off-key, ask big questions, and hug hard. May we carry that same spirit into the summer—less stress, more joy, and yes, maybe a nap or two. After all, even saints need siesta.

A Little Tale from the Big Day: Kindergarten Graduation at St. Mary School

It was a sunny morning at St. Mary School, the kind of day that made you believe even the crayons were smiling. The gym was decked out in streamers and joy, and every folding chair seemed to lean forward in anticipation. Why? Because today wasn't just any day—it was Kindergarten Graduation for Bailey, Audrey, Geneva, Beau, Charlie, Cruz, Maaevrie, Harrison, Natalie, and Spencer.

The little graduates marched in, some with proud grins, others with shy glances—but all ten wore their paper caps like tiny crowns of courage. We aren't just proud—we're overflowing with pride. These ten bright stars have lit up our classrooms, our hallways, and our hearts.

Come Grow With Us! Registration Now Open at St. Mary School

Enrollment for the 2025–2026 school year at St. Mary School is now open! Whether you're new or returning, we welcome you to a Christ-centered community where students grow in faith, academics, and character. Love our school? Share it with others and help us grow the gift of Catholic education!
