MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

How many of you can actually remember your Confirmation? Go ahead, think about it. For some of us, it's a bit of a blur—like an old home movie that skips a little when it gets to the good part. But I guarantee you, if you were confirmed by Bishop Zuroweste, you remember one thing crystal clear: the questions and the tap on the cheek!

And these weren't whispered sweetly in the sacristy. Oh no—these were asked publicly, in front of God and everybody at Mass. It was like "Who Wants to Be a Catholic Millionaire," except no lifelines and the prize was the Holy Spirit.

When the Bishop came to town, it was an event. The altar servers took their cassocks home to have them washed and pressed—yes, even middle school boys managed to look presentable. The sisters had us prepped like we were heading into theological battle: How many Gospels? What is the Trinity? Name the Sacraments in order, go! Meanwhile, Father was quietly making sure the rectory was stocked with plenty of good Scotch. You know—for "after the Spirit descended."

And let's not forget the outfits. Back then, we were stuffed into stiff white robes that made us look like either angels or marshmallows—depending on your build. Hair slicked back, shoes too tight, and that corsage your aunt pinned on like she was tacking up drywall. And heaven help the kid who fainted during the bishop's prayer (yes, it happened—we all stepped over him like he was just resting in the Spirit). Today's Confirmandi stroll in with confidence, hair gelled just right, shoes that actually fit, and maybe even a pair of Converse under their dress pants. But whether you were confirmed in the days of incense and interrogation or in the age of digital photos and donuts afterward, the Holy Spirit doesn't change. He's the same fiery breath of God, showing up every time with power, purpose, and maybe—just maybe—a wink at how far we've come.

Those were the days of starch and structure, of fear and fire. And yet—despite all the nerves and the memorization—those were the moments the Holy Spirit entered into our lives. Not because we had all the right answers, but because we were ready to receive the One who brings all the answers.

Today, Confirmation looks a little different. The Confirmandi are more relaxed—some even smile during the Bishop's homily (bless them). They might not know all the answers (neither did we), but the same Spirit still comes down.

As Jesus says in John 7:37-39: "Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as Scripture says: 'Rivers of living water will flow from within him.' He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in him were to receive."

Confirmation is not graduation from the faith—it's the start of something. Like the Apostles in the Upper Room, we receive the Spirit and then go out and do something with it. We don't just sit there glowing like a Bic lighter. No, we're set ablaze to light the world.

So whether your Confirmation came with a slap on the cheek, a memorized catechism, or a relaxed nod and a sponsor who forgot their ID—remember this: the Spirit remains. He still whispers. He still burns. And He still calls us to get off our pew and into the world. And hey—if Bishop Zuroweste was here, he might still ask you, "How many Gospels?" Just smile and say, "Four, Your Excellency." Then pray he doesn't follow up with, "Name them in order." The Spirit has come. Now let's get to work.

Little Hands, Big Hearts: Lemonade & Learning.

Summer fun is in full swing at St. Mary School—and we did it! Our lemonade stand is still standing strong, all thanks to the amazing support from our community. A huge thank you to all the family members, friends, businesses, and colleagues who took time out of their day to stop by. Your presence meant the world to us and helped our students learn some pretty incredible lessons—like empathy, teamwork, gratitude, event planning, food preparation, and social responsibility.

The kids had an absolute blast serving you, and we couldn't be more proud of how they stepped up. It's clear that most of them totally got the assignment! The top photos show the children proudly running the lemonade stand, while the bottom ones give a glimpse into all the hard work that went into preparing the delicious snacks. None of this would've been possible without you. Who says summer school can't be fun? We just proved otherwise! This day will be one of those sweet summer memories our kids—and all of us—will never forget.

Remembered in Faith, Honored in Love.

On a beautiful Memorial Day morning, we gathered at Calvary Cemetery to honor our departed loved ones, especially those who served and died in the military. Surrounded by quiet reverence and the warmth of the sun, Deacon Dan and Father Steve led us in a heartfelt outdoor Memorial Mass near the statue of the Blessed Virgin. After the service, everyone was invited to stand by the graves of their loved ones for a special blessing and sprinkling of holy water. As Father Steve and Deacon Dan moved through the cemetery, offering prayers and blessings, the community stood together in faith and remembrance. It was a peaceful and meaningful day, filled with gratitude, reflection, and love for those we carry in our hearts.
