MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

Three Divine Persons... and a Thousand Flashcards!

Some of you remember the days when Catholic school desks came equipped with only the bare essentials: a No. 2 pencil, a holy card of St. Jude (because we were all hopeless), and a copy of the Baltimore Catechism—which, let's be honest, weighed more than most second graders.

Before Vatican II, you didn't "talk about your faith." You recited it. Word. For, Word! You knew the answer to every question because Sister Mary Adrenaline was standing over your desk with a ruler in one hand and eternal consequences in the other. Personal reflection? That was what you did when you got sent to see Father.

Then came the post-Vatican II era. Suddenly, we traded in the "Q and A" for "Let's hold hands and imagine walking on a beach with Jesus while writing a haiku about inner peace." And hey, who doesn't love Jesus on a beach? But somewhere along the shoreline, we dropped our catechism in the surf. Out went memorization and in came meditation—just with a little too much lava lamp and not enough doctrine.

To be fair, there was some beauty in learning to pray from the heart, but let's not forget—knowing what we believe gives power to what we believe. You can only "walk with Jesus" so far before someone asks you why you're walking with Him... and if all you've got is a vague sense of "good vibes" and the scent of incense, you might end up accidentally quoting a yoga poster instead of the Nicene Creed.

Now, we've wised up. Turns out, there was some wisdom in those old-school memory drills. After all, when someone asks, "What is the Blessed Trinity?" I don't want to say, "It's like a clover... or a triangle... or a really complicated family reunion." I want to be able to say, "One God, three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Boom."

Memorization wasn't just about parroting lines—it gave us anchors. Solid truths that don't shift with the tide. No matter your generation, from the nuns-with-rulers era to the guitar-Mass crowd, one thing has never changed: The Holy Trinity. Three Divine Persons in one God. Let that sink in.

And for the record... yes, the Father is God. Yes, the Son is God. Yes, the Holy Ghost is God. No, they are not triplets. Got it? Good. Now go find your old catechism, dust it off, and remind yourself why you memorized it in the first place. Sister might still be watching... and God definitely still is.

And here's the funny thing—what we memorized as kids has a sneaky way of showing up just when we need it. At a bedside. In a crisis. In a moment of doubt. Like spiritual muscle memory, those lines we drilled into our brains echo back and remind us: we are loved by the Father, redeemed by the Son, and filled with the Holy Ghost. That's not just theology, it's truth worth re-

Behind the Scenes of Success: Thank You to Our Amazing Rummage Sale Volunteers and Supporters!

Ever wonder who sorted through thousands of items for the rummage sale? Who carefully placed price tags on each one? Who organized the Christmas, Easter, and Halloween decorations into perfect order? And who put in countless hours to make the event another great success? You're looking at them! A huge thank you to this incredible team of volunteers who gave their time, energy, and heart to make it all happen. We also want to extend our gratitude to everyone who came out to shop and to those who continue to support St. Mary Parish and School. Your generosity and dedication make a lasting impact—thank you!

Summer fun is in full swing at St. Mary School: A Day to Remember—and We Did It!

Our lemonade stand is still standing strong, all thanks to the amazing support from our community. A huge thank you to all the family members, friends, businesses, and colleagues who took time out of their day to stop by. Your presence meant the world to us and helped our students learn some pretty incredible lessons—like empathy, teamwork, gratitude, event planning, food preparation, and social responsibility.

It's clear that most of them totally got the assignment! The top photos show the children proudly running the lemonade stand, while the bottom ones give a glimpse into all the hard work that went into preparing the delicious snacks. None of this would've been possible without you. And we didn't stop there—everyone joined in to make the Rummage Sale a huge success as well! Our summer program kiddos even moved their lemonade stand to the entrance, knowing that picking out your favorite treasure could be thirsty work. They thought of everything—even memorizing a cheerful little mantra they recited to each potential customer. Who says summer school can't be fun? We just proved otherwise. A huge thank you to this incredible team of volunteers who gave their time, energy, and heart to make it all happen. We also want to extend our gratitude to everyone who came out to shop and to those who continue to support St. Mary Parish and School.

ST. MARY SCHOOL IS LOOKING FOR A FEW HELPING HANDS!

DO YOU HAVE ONE DAY A WEEK TO SPARE? WE'RE SEEKING PARENTS, GRANDPARENTS, PARISHIONERS, AND FRIENDS OF THE SCHOOL WHO CAN COMMIT TO ONE DAY EACH WEEK—ON THE SAME DAY—TO HELP WITH SERVING LUNCH AND CLEANUP. IF YOU'RE WILLING TO ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES AND LEND A HAND IN OUR LUNCHROOM MINISTRY.
