SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:18-19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

GLPI

Let us pray, for peace in the Middle East and all lands torn by war, and for immigrants, refugees, and all who are exploited or displaced: that God may guide world leaders to choose dialogue over destruction, protect the innocent and vulnerable, and bring hope to the suffering. On this Independence Day, may our nation use its blessings not for comfort alone, but to uphold life, defend human dignity, and extend compassion to those in need. AMEN.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

“Are We There Yet?”

A Reflection for the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul
John 21:15–19

How many of you, and be honest, have been on a long trip and heard that immortal question: “Are we there yet?” Maybe it came from the back seat, or maybe, let’s admit it, you asked it yourself. And if it’s our kids or grandkids, the question slowly turns into a whine that could peel paint off the dashboard! We respond the same way every time: “We’re getting there... it won’t be long... just be quiet.” Translation: “If I hear that one more time, we’re turning around.”

Now picture Peter in today’s Gospel (John 21). He had walked with Jesus, seen miracles, denied Him three times, and wept bitterly. Now, face to face with the Risen Lord, Jesus asks him a familiar question, not once, but three times: “Do you love me?” And Peter, a little worn out, says again and again, “Yes, Lord, you know I love you.” I can’t help but think Peter was feeling a bit of that same frustration: “Lord, are we there yet?”

But Jesus wasn’t just repeating Himself for no reason. Each time Peter answered, Jesus responded with a mission: “Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep. Feed my sheep.” No map. No instructions. No finish line. Just a call. Peter didn’t realize it yet, but in those three short commands, Jesus was giving him the greatest responsibility ever entrusted to a human being—to lead the Church after Jesus returned to the Father.

Peter’s journey wasn’t a short ride to Holiday World. His journey was long, hard, and full of sacrifice. “Are we there yet?” would take on a whole new meaning—because “there” wasn’t comfort or ease. “There” was salvation.

And then there’s Paul. The firebrand! The former persecutor turned preacher. The man who once dragged Christians into chains now preaching Christ to the ends of the earth. He and Peter were wildly different, Paul was bold and brilliant, Peter was pastoral and often a bit slow to catch on. They even argued! Paul called Peter out publicly when he thought he was being inconsistent. And yet, they remained united in the same mission. Paul would later call Peter one of the “pillars” of the Church.

They both died in Rome. Peter, crucified upside down. Paul, beheaded. They gave their lives for the same Lord, in the same city, and are remembered together on the same feast day. The early Church didn’t see them as rivals. They were brothers, very different, but united in love for Jesus Christ.

So maybe this feast is a chance for us to ask a better question than, “Are we there yet?” Maybe we ask: “Am I on the road Jesus is calling me to?” “Am I feeding His sheep?” “Do I love Him enough to keep going, even when the road gets long?”

The journey isn’t easy. But Peter and Paul didn’t ask for easy, they asked to follow Jesus. And that’s what made all the difference.

To offer a Mass for a loved one or special intention, please contact the Parish Office at 618-532-6291.
A stipend of $10 per intention is requested.

"Boat Races & Blizzards: A Sweet Summer Splash!"

Our summer fun continues at SMS with a week full of creativity, teamwork, and treats! Students teamed up to design and build sturdy paper boats, putting their engineering skills to the test. The real challenge came when we launched them in the official SMS test pool (a.k.a. our trusty Walmart kiddie pool) to see which ones could stay afloat! After a day of boat battles and lots of laughs, we sailed our imaginations straight to Dairy Queen for a well-deserved ice cream break. Because nothing says "summer success" like floating boats and double-dip cones!

Today, on the glorious Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ—Corpus Christi—we lifted high the Real Presence of our Lord in procession. Though the weather kept us indoors, the power of our prayer was not diminished. With every step through the aisles of our church, we asked Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament, to bring healing to our broken world, justice for immigrants seeking hope, and strength to those who suffer persecution for their faith. The walls of our church became a sanctuary of mercy, a place where heaven touched earth, and Christ walked once more among His people.

Introducing Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

From the Desk (and Windowsill) of Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief
Successor to the Esteemed Sister Gracie, Retired in Dignity and Fur

Dear Parishioners and Feline Fans, Allow me to introduce myself—I am Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief, niece of the legendary Sister Gracie, who served St. Mary Parish with grace, poise, and a suspicious tolerance for toddlers pulling her tail during Children's Liturgy. As many of you know, Sister Gracie has officially retired and taken her vows of "sunshine and leisure" down to Florida, where she now patrols the Magic Kingdom. Yes, she now chases mice at Disney World. We wish her well, though rumor has it she's negotiating a truce with Mickey for full control of Tomorrowland. Now, the torch—or should I say catnip mouse—has been passed on to me. Why the name "Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief"? Well, it's not just the cloud-like fur and the angelic face—I've also been known to rearrange the altar flowers, lead unauthorized choirs of barking dogs from the parking lot, and sneak into the sacristy just as Father Steve is trying to prep for Mass. My mischief is never mean-spirited, only divinely inspired (with maybe a smidge of chaos).

Each week, I'll be taking over Sister Gracie's column right here in the bulletin, sharing my tales (and tails) from around St. Mary Parish and School. I'll report on who left the doughnuts unattended, which second grader tried to teach me Spanish, and why the janitor now double-knots his shoelaces. So buckle up, dear humans. The reign of fluff has begun. With a twitch of my whiskers and a purr in my heart, Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief!

Bulletin Contributor, School Mascot, and Unofficial Parish Watchcat ♀ P.S. Sister Gracie says hello and asks if the sisters are still hiding her treats in the hymnals.
