NEWS AND EVENTS...

Join Us for St. Boniface Germantown Picnic

St. Boniface Germantown Church Picnic is on Tuesday, July 29th. The fried chicken dinner with our famous dressing begins at 3:30PM. Handmade quilt and cash bingo starts at 6:30PM.

There will be inflatables and games for kids. There will also be a sandwich stand, popcorn, candy, soda and water and ice cold beer. You can try your luck playing some picnic poker, over/under and Big Six. We will also host a raffle with great prizes, so take a chance! The raffle drawing will be held at 11:00PM that evening. You do not have to be present to win. Come join us under the church steeple for the most fun you will ever have on a Tuesday night.

Join us for the 82nd Healing and Hope Novena to Our Lady of the Snows, held nightly at 7:00 PM from July 28 to August 5 at Our Lady of the Snows Church. For over 80 years, this cherished novena has served as a source of spiritual inspiration and healing for the faithful. Each of the nine consecutive evenings includes a special Mass with reflections, prayers, music, and a beautiful rosary procession by candlelight.

This year's themes address a variety of needs, including Addictions and Recovery, Caregiving, Crises of Faith, Adolescent and Young Adult Issues, Physical Illness, Mental Health Challenges, and more. Join us in prayer as we seek healing and hope through the intercession of Our Lady. All are welcome to attend any or all of the evenings. For more information, visit snows.org or call 618-397-6700.

St. Francis, Aviston, Parish Picnic

Join St. Francis Church for their annual Church Picnic on Saturday, August 2, 2025, at Kopff Field, 161 South Clinton Street, Aviston, IL. Enjoy a delicious fried chicken dinner (dine-in and carry-outs), Mass at 4:00 p.m., and fun for all ages including games, inflatables (starting at 5:00 p.m.), raffles, drinks, and more. Don't miss live music by Ethan Carl from 8:00 p.m. to midnight and Quilt Bingo at 6:30 p.m. where every game wins a quilt!

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

"Midnight Texts and Holy Persistence..."

Let's be real. If a friend knocked on your door at midnight—scratch that, texted you at midnight, saying, "Hey, I ran out of bread, can you help me out?" most of us wouldn't even reply. Or we'd respond with something like, "There's a 24-hour gas station three blocks away... Godspeed." The idea of someone disturbing our sacred sleep for sourdough sounds absurd today. We're more likely to ignore the message, turn our phone over, and say a prayer for their carb situation in the morning.

But back in Jesus' day? No QuickTrip. No DoorDash. No Walmart pickup. No "tap to reorder." If you were out of bread, you were really out of luck, unless you had a friend stubborn (or desperate) enough to knock until you got up, slippers and all.

In Luke 11:1-13, Jesus shares a parable that fits this exact scenario. A man wakes up his neighbor in the middle of the night to ask for bread—not for himself, but for a guest. The poor guy inside groans (like any sane person would), muttering, "I'm in bed, the kids are asleep, I've got my comfy pants on, go away!" But eventually, he gets up—not out of neighborly love, but because of the man's persistence. He just won't stop knocking.

And that's the punchline. Jesus isn't just telling a quirky story. He's showing us what prayer should look like. Persistent. Bold. A little shameless. Like someone who won't take "no" (or "go away, I'm sleeping") for an answer.

God isn't annoyed by our repeated prayers. He doesn't roll His eyes and say, "What does she want now?" even if that's what we say when certain cousins text us after 11 PM. Instead, He welcomes it. He wants us to ask. To seek. To knock. And to keep knocking—not because He's hard of hearing, but because prayer changes us. It strengthens our trust, stretches our patience, and softens our hearts.

The Father isn't asleep. He's not bothered. He's not overwhelmed with requests. He's waiting—lovingly, patiently, and joyfully—for us to reach out. So the next time life hits you with a spiritual midnight emergency, don't hesitate. Go ahead and text Heaven. Knock loud and often. God always answers—even when the world is silent and the bread's all gone.

STRAIGHT FROM THE COLLAR
PADRE STEVE, WHAT'S THE DEAL WITH...

Got burning questions, holy curiosities, or just want to stomp your parish priest? Send them to spautler@stmarycentralia.org and I'll give it my best shot—collar, coffee, and a sense of humor included!

This week's question: Why do Catholics go to Confession instead of just talking to God directly like my non-Catholic friends do?

Answer: This is one of the most common, and honest, questions Catholics get. Many of our non-Catholic friends say, "Why go to a priest? I confess directly to God." And yes, we should all speak directly to God and ask for forgiveness. But here's the Catholic kicker: Reconciliation isn't just about a private apology, it's about healing a relationship with God and the Church. In John 20:21-23, Jesus gave His apostles the authority to forgive sins. He didn't say, "Just keep it between you and Me." He breathed the Holy Spirit on them and said, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven." That's the foundation of the Sacrament. Confession isn't a man-made rule, it's a gift from Christ.

Saying our sins out loud takes humility. It's easy to gloss over sin in our minds, but when we name it aloud in the presence of a priest, we experience accountability and the grace of starting fresh. The priest, acting in the person of Christ, offers real absolution, and that's not just symbolic. It's sacramental. It's powerful. It's freeing. So yes, we talk to God directly, but in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God speaks back, with mercy we can actually hear.

Lightning, Laughter, and Lanes: SMS Knows Summer Fun!

Splish, Splash... Strike!"

Well, lightning tried to rain on our parade—but St. Mary's students don't back down from a little weather drama! Our wet and wild adventure at the Salem Pool hit a brief pause thanks to a few dramatic flashes in the sky. But did we sulk in soggy towels? Nope! We traded swimsuits for bowling shoes and hit the lanes. No perfect 300s, but plenty of giggles, gutter balls, and one heroic spare that will go down in SMS history. Don't worry, Salem Pool—we'll be back with floaties blazing!

Sometimes the best memories come from unexpected detours. From pool noodles to pin resets, our summer fun just kept rolling. Rain or shine, SMS knows how to make a splash and a strike!

Purrs from the Pew Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

So let me set the record straight, I am the one and only Sister Fluff, feline-in-residence of St. Mary School and Church. But lately... something strange has been afoot. With Father Steve's help (I always suspected he was too clever for his own collar), an imposter has been prowling these sacred halls. Looks like me (sort of), purrs like me (poorly), even meows like me (embarrassing, really), but this fluffy fraud runs on four AA batteries! A battery-powered "Sister Fluff"? Please!

The summer kids have been on the prowl, trying to sniff out my latest hiding spots. They keep pestering Father Steve like he's a feline informant. But he's not cracked—yet! Meanwhile, while Robo-Fluff distracts them with her twitchy tail and synthetic sass, I've been reclaiming my rightful peace and quiet. Cat naps in the library. Uninterrupted sunbathing in the window. Midnight snack runs to the parish office.

So yes, welcome, dear mechanical decoy. You've bought me time and tuna. Long may your batteries last! Just don't start preaching at school Mass.

With a swish of my tail and a smug whisker twitch,
Sister Fluff
Queen of SMS (and she knows it)
