NEWS AND EVENTS...

Autumnfest 2025 Needs

Autumnfest is coming up, and we need your help to make it a success! We're asking for donations of stuffed animals for the kids' games, baskets for the basket raffle, cakes for the cake walk, and desserts for the Chicken Dinner. Gilster-Mary Lee has generously donated cake mix and icing—these will be available soon at the back of church if you'd like to bake a cake. Not sure what to give? Cash donations are always appreciated and go a long way in supporting the event. A volunteer sign-up sheet will be available online and at the back of church. We need many hands to keep things running smoothly. Thank you for helping us make Autumnfest great!

MESSAGE FROM OUR DEACON

Deacon Dan Laquet

Commentary for the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in Middle Eastern cultures. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church, and to all of us. Either way, the parables remind us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, making merry, and only concerned with the temporal things of this world—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living our lives in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

STRAIGHT FROM THE COLLAR PADRE STEVE, WHAT'S THE DEAL WITH...

Got burning questions, holy curiosities, or just want to stump your parish priest? Send them to spautler@stmarycentralia.org and I'll give it my best shot—collar, coffee, and a sense of humor included!

This week's question: If I receive Communion at a Catholic Wedding Mass or Funeral Mass on a Saturday, can I receive Communion again that evening at the Saturday Vigil Mass?"

Answer: Yes, you can! The Catholic Church allows the faithful to receive Holy Communion twice in one day, provided that the second time is during a full Mass that you attend. So, if you participate in a Wedding or Funeral Mass on Saturday and receive Communion, you may also receive again that evening at the Saturday Vigil Mass—which fulfills your Sunday obligation. The Church's Code of Canon Law (Canon 917) makes this clear, stating that a second reception of Communion is permitted as long as the second reception is within a Eucharistic celebration.

What's not allowed is receiving Communion a second time at something that's not a Mass, like a Communion service, adoration, or outside of a liturgy. The intent behind this guideline is to keep our reception of the Eucharist rooted in the full celebration of the Mass, which includes the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Splash-tastic Summer Send-Off!

To wrap up our awesome Summer School Program, students and staff were treated to a giant inflatable water slide right in the parking lot! From belly laughs to soaked swimsuits, everyone dove into the fun, literally! It was a day full of sliding, splashing, and smiles all around. A huge shoutout to the amazing team who made this epic event happen. What a perfect way to end the summer, wet, wild, and wonderful!

As the sun peeked through the clouds and music played in the background, friendships grew stronger and memories were made that will last all year long. Whether it was racing down the slide or cheering on friends from the sidelines, the joy was contagious. Here's to a summer of learning, laughter, and a splashy grand finale!

Blessing of Backpacks!

Sunday, August 10, 2025
Following the 10:30 a.m. Mass

Students of all ages—Pre-K to college and everything in between—are invited to bring their backpacks to the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, August 10, 2025, for our Back-to-School Blessing! Whether you're just starting out with crayons or diving into college textbooks, come receive a special blessing as we launch into a new year of learning, laughter, and maybe a little homework. Parents and teachers, come too—we'll have a few surprises and plenty of prayers to go around. Let's start the school year with faith, fun, and a little extra grace for math class!

After Mass, St. Mary School will be open for students and parents to drop off backpacks, organize supplies, and get a head start on being ready for that exciting first day. Come take a peek at your classroom and say hello!

Purrs from the Pew Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

God gave me fur, not patience."

Well, friends, something is definitely going on around here. Sister Fluff reporting live from what used to be my peaceful nap headquarters, the school hallways! But this week, the humans have returned in full force, and they've brought... bulletin boards. And coffee cups. And that weird teacher energy that smells like dry erase markers and ambition!

I stopped by the 7th and 8th grade room to investigate. Let me just say, I almost had to shield my delicate feline eyes, the place dazzled! New lights, fresh posters, tidy desks... if last year's room was a mild hairball, this year's setup is a full-blown catwalk! Color me impressed.

Then I padded down to the cafeteria, normally a reliable source of stray snacks—but I had to do a double-take. The floor! It was so clean, I saw my reflection. I winked at myself. It was deserved.

But here's the odd thing... my summer crew, the kids who read stories to me and gave me contraband treats—gave me hugs and said goodbye. One even got teary-eyed. What do they know that I don't? Is something big about to happen? Is this... an omen?

Anyway, I'm on high alert. I've officially moved operations to the windowsill near the front office for better surveillance. If the Holy Spirit's up to something, I'm watching, and if it involves snacks, count me in! Until next week, stay furry and faithful.

-Sister Fluff
