Illinois Right To Life

Illinois Right to Life believes Governor Pritzker plans to push a constitutional amendment securing abortion through all nine months of pregnancy. He signaled this in his 2023 inaugural address, and the effort appears to be moving closer. We launched the 2025 Ground Zero Tour to prepare pro lifers across Illinois, yet nationwide giving has dropped and we face a serious deficit. Steady support is essential for our outreach, media efforts, pro life march, aid to mothers, and rapid response team. Your monthly gift of thirty seven dollars strengthens this work and brings hope to a difficult moment. ## MESSAGE FROM OUR DEACON

Deacon Dan Laquet

On this Gaudete Sunday, this gospel invites us to reflect on something unique as the foundation of the source of our joy: Sharing what we have as a source of God's love for the poor.

Today, the third Sunday of Advent, let us remind ourselves that the true sense of joy is sharing what we can with those in need. In the gospel of Luke, the crowd asks the prophet John the Baptist, "What should we do?" the prophet responds by inviting them to stop amassing unnecessary things as they wait for Jesus' coming, and to share what they have. Jesus modeled that for us by giving of himself to help those who were in need, the sick, the lame, the blind, the poor.

We are invited to make this advent the most spiritual season of our lives, where we can learn how to wait and meet Christ in others. In his apostolic exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, which means the Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis says, "Whenever we encounter another person through showing them love and giving of ourselves, we learn something new about God. We become closer to God, and therefore, we are happier."

This Advent reminds us that the coming of our Lord requires a certain emptying on our part. We must let go of our attachments, get closer to Christ, and free ourselves of everything holding us back. It is challenging to live a life of giving and not possessing but doing so can bring us great joy. In our faith, we can still be child-like, trusting in God to give us what we need and allowing us to share what we have with others. We might not immediately understand the spiritual reason behind what God is asking of us, yet, if we pray, if we have faith, hope, and love, we can discover that joy.

This sense of joy that Advent invites us to is not easy to achieve. It requires work to learn to detach ourselves from whatever is holding us back from meeting our Lord. Advent is about waiting, sharing, and love. Let us share what we have as we wait for the one who is coming. While we wait, let us make this time the most joyful experience of our faith. The church invites us to pray and to reflect this Advent season. We may want to pray with the following questions: What is holding me back in this season? How can I best prepare myself to receive the Lord? How would I feel if I found that my reluctance to share what I have would diminish Christ in the life of someone in need? In this season of waiting and giving may our greatest joy come from receiving Jesus through our giving and sharing with others.

Gloria in excelsis Deo

You are invited to bring a Christmas bell to the 4:00 p.m. Children's Mass on Wednesday, December 24. During the Gloria in excelsis Deo, lift your voice by ringing your bell. Small or large. New or antique. Let every sound honor the newborn Christ and echo the song of the angels who praised him in Bethlehem.

This week's question:

Why does the Church have Midnight Mass on Christmas? I love it, but why so late or early?

Answer:

Midnight Mass goes back to the early Church in Bethlehem, when Christians gathered at night to honor the birth of Christ at the very hour He entered the world. It's meant to mirror that sacred stillness when heaven touched earth. The darkness reminds us of the world before Christ's light broke in. Sure, it's tough to stay awake, but there's something powerful about stepping into the cold night and hearing "Glory to God in the Highest" right as a new day and the Savior arrive.

Sister Fluff's Pilgrimage to the Land of the Gaudy Mouse!

Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief reporting before takeoff. Father Steve is circling the rectory with the expression of a man asked to escort a relic through customs. He worries about traveling with a Feline Support Kitty, and I reminded him the early martyrs handled lions, so he will manage one small nun in fur. I persuaded him to bring me on his long-awaited trip to Florida, home of the oversized over dressed mouse. Aunt Sister Gracie secured lodging for me in her lofty feline condo atop Cinderella's Castle, insisting it reflects proper monastic dignity, though I have doubts. I packed all essentials including favorite snacks, emergency Snickers, and a prayer card for when turbulence tests Father Steve's composure. He gets Seat A1 because he is pastor, and I shall claim A2 with seasoned pilgrim calm. The weather promises seventy four and sunny. Father Steve mentioned I might sit quietly by the pool, and I offered a polite nod that convinced no one. He spoke of an Uber to the Magic Kingdom, and I pretended deep understanding. Once we arrive, I intend to enjoy the sun with modest discipline or mild chaos. More adventures soon!

Advent Sparkles at St. Mary School and Parish

The Advent spirit at St. Mary blooms with steady joy. The Holly Jolly Christmas Pajama Party brought bright faces, warm laughter, and enough sugary fuel to keep every child wide awake well past bedtime. The Altar Society Christmas Party followed with the familiar rhythm of friendship at long tables filled with stories, good food, and a few playful moments that reminded everyone why these gatherings matter. Every seat held a person who showed up with heart.

The lighting of the nativity scene and courtyard drew parishioners outdoors as the figures in the manger stood quietly under the evening sky. Families lingered, talked, and took in the gentle glow before heading inside for more celebration. The SMS girls stepped forward as the entertainment for the Christmas party and delivered with confidence. Their voices and presence lifted the room. Advent at St. Mary stands rooted in community, steady faith, and the simple strength of people coming together.
