in hearts that are just and true,
grant that we may be so fashioned by your grace
as to become a dwelling pleasing to you.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

PASTOR'S PAGE

Quote for the week: Are you drowning? Remember your Life Guard walks on water.

The Sixth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time we hear Matthew's Gospel. Jesus speaks to his followers about religious laws and also of our own relationships. Go to offer gifts to God at the altar, but first, Jesus says, "Leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Cyril, monk, and Saint Methodius, bishop.

We continue with first readings from the Book of Genesis. This is the beginning of the story of salvation: Cain and Abel, Noah and the Ark, the Tower of Babel. The week concludes with the Letter to the Hebrews' summary of the beliefs of our ancestors in the faith.

As we follow Jesus' ministry in Mark's Gospel, we witness Jesus' discouragement as he again encounters the challenges of the religious leaders: "he sighed from the depth of his spirit." As they retreat to the other side of the lake, Jesus warns his disciples against the rebellious "leaven" of the Pharisees and reminds them of the meaning of the miracle of the loaves - he is like God, come to feed them in whatever desert journey they encounter. Jesus heals a blind man who first sees only in a distorted way - a scene which begins the journey to Jerusalem on which Jesus tries to heal the blindness of his disciples. Peter acknowledges Jesus as the Christ but rejects Jesus' instruction that he must suffer and die before the resurrection. Jesus rebukes him and instructs his disciples about their discipleship. It is about taking up our own cross with him: "whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the Gospel will save it." Then Jesus takes Peter, James and John and shows them his glory, to prepare them for the scandal of the cross.

On the Seventh Week of Ordinary Time, Jesus gives us one of the biggest challenges to living the Christian life: Love Your Enemies. "I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well."

LENTEN MISSION 2024

Dates: February 19, 20, 21 (Mon-Tue-Wed)

Time: 6:30-7:45pm.

Theme: "The Name of God is Mercy":

The Proof is in the Parables

Preacher: Fr. Paulson Veliyannoor,
CMF, PhD

Jesus revealed a Father whose name is mercy and in whom there is absolutely no violence. Beginning from the declaration of his "Mission Statement" in Nazareth, Jesus preached, lived, died, and finally resurrected for driving home this truth. His parables were all geared to teach us this truth too beautiful to be true; and hence, they left his listeners initially stunned, challenged, and disturbed. Often they did not understand the full impact of the parables, which, like a task left incomplete, kept gnawing at them from within. Some of the listeners stubbornly refused to work through them. Others sought to kill him, for they could not bear the truth of mercy. Yet others found themselves transformed into a new way of being and doing. In this Lenten Mission, Father Paulson will guide us through a few select parables and their surprising, disturbing, challenging, but at the end of it all, transforming invitation and potential. Father Paulson holds a PhD in clinical psychology from California, and a license in spiritual theology and masters in mysticism from Spain. He is currently the Director of the Institute of Consecrated Life – Sanyasa (ICLS), India, which offers academic degrees in the theology of consecrated life and works for the renewal and revisioning of the same.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

FASTING: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

ALMSGIVING: The foundational call of Christians to charity is a frequent theme of the Gospels. During Lent, we are asked to focus more intently on "almsgiving," which means donating money or goods to the poor and performing other acts of charity. As one of the three pillars of Lenten practice, almsgiving is "a witness to fraternal charity" and "a work of justice pleasing to God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2462).

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together."

Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 77

The arts in all forms create an opportunity to animate our imaginations, see the world in new ways and call us to action. Now, after the pandemic, audiences are finding their way back to share experiences of concerts, films and live performances. My daughters and I recently attended a stage production of Jesus Christ Superstar. Before the show we enjoyed catching up with stories about our careers and our friends. After the show our discussion was about aspects of the performance we found moving, inspiring and surprising. We also remarked about the good timing of our seeing this show shortly before the beginning of Lent.

On this last Sunday of Ordinary Time before Lent, we hear more about the life of Jesus as he heals a leper. To give us context for the story, the first reading from Leviticus shares details about the response to leprosy. The actions to be taken by both the priest and the individual are outlined to clarify when a person is unclean. And in today's second reading we hear Paul tell the Corinthians that everything we do should be for the glory of God. Paul says, "just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved." Jesus certainly embodied these words.

In today's Gospel from Mark, we hear the story of Jesus taking pity on a man with leprosy and healing him from the disease. Jesus tells the man to follow the law of the day and go to the priest to be declared clean. Jesus also asks the man to tell no one else about his being healed. Filled with faith and overcome by gratitude, the man cannot help but share the news of the miracle he has experienced.

Seeing Jesus as a healer to all who have faith has always come easily to me, but I struggle to understand why Jesus would compel the man to not tell anyone about his being healed by Jesus. The performance of Jesus Christ Superstar helped me sort this out. The beginning of the show has a joyful and intimate feel. And as the story progresses, the crowds become more frantic and demanding. Caiaphas and the other high priests become more committed to the law. Jesus is living in that tension of wanting to be available to all who express their faith while also feeling the human limits of exhaustion. It is no wonder he asked the man he healed of leprosy to stay quiet.

As I anticipate the beginning of my Lenten journey this week, I pray with these questions: How can I support those who are excluded based on rules and laws? When have I been too afraid to ask for and accept God's mercy? How can I help disrupt systems of oppression in the way of Jesus? And I pray for the grace to know how best to give glory to God.

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

We invite you to join us in marking the beginning of Lent with the observance of Ash Wednesday on February 14th. Please check Mass times. This solemn day signifies the start of a 40-day journey of reflection, prayer, and fasting, leading up to the celebration of Easter. We look forward to sharing this meaningful time with you and your loved ones. Let us embrace this opportunity for spiritual renewal and deeper connection with our faith.

Altar Sodality Donations Needed

The St. Monica's Altar Sodality of St. Lawrence Parish has not had a fundraiser in over seven years. So now the time has come when we must ask for donations. Every lady of St Lawrence Parish is automatically a member of the Altar Sodality. There are no membership forms or qualifications and no dues and currently no meetings to attend. The Sodality provides funeral dinners for their families when requested. The Sodality proves the chicken and condiments for these dinners and the accompanying dishes and desserts are generously provided by the ladies of the parish. The expenses to the Sodality for these dinners for larger families can run up to $400.

Some families do give a generous donation to help defray the cost, but it is often not enough to cover the full amount. The Sodality also shares in the cost of supplies for the kitchen and hall which are split three ways with the Knights of Columbus and the parish. Rather than holding a fundraiser that takes a lot of work from a dwindling number of workers we are simply asking that you support the ladies by making a donation in the Sunday Collection. Make your check out to "St. Monica's Altar Sodality" and put it or cash in an envelope marked "Altar Sodality" and drop it in the collection basket. If you are making your donation at one of the other churches, please add "St. Monica" or "St Lawrence" to the envelope. Thank you for your generosity! Special Notice: If anyone is interested in starting up again as a more active group please contact Mary Williams. Mary Williams, President - Jane Waddell, Treasurer
