MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Father Steven Pautler

Theme: “When Fresh Dirt , Meets Fresh Tears.”

The words of Jesus in the Gospel of John 6:37-40 hold a promise both gentle and strong. “Everything the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me.” It is a promise of welcome, a promise that no soul is forgotten, and a promise that death does not get the last word.

For those who may have missed my homily last week, I shared a little piece of wisdom I first heard from Sister Judith, my 5th and 6th grade teacher. Sister Judith belonged to the Adorers of the Blood of Christ in Ruma. She was young, full of joy, and made learning feel like a daily adventure. And yes, if I’m being honest, a classroom full of 5th and 6th grade boys had a collective crush on her. She was kind, funny, and she had a way of talking about God that made Him seem like a dear friend rather than a distant idea.

One day, as All Souls Day approached, Sister Judith told us something that settled into my heart and never left. She said, “Whenever you drive by a cemetery, say a prayer. There’s always fresh dirt where someone’s loved one was buried. And with fresh dirt come fresh tears. No one should ever cry alone.” Those words have been with me for fifty-five years. To this day, if I pass a cemetery, I say a quick prayer. Sometimes it’s a Hail Mary. Sometimes it’s a simple “Lord, receive them.” It’s become a quiet habit, a small thread tying my daily life to eternity.

A few years later, Sister Judith was taken far too soon by an aggressive cancer. She was in her early thirties. I cried when I heard the news. I wasn’t the only one. Many of my classmates did too. She left a mark on our hearts, not because she was extraordinary in the worldly sense, but because she loved with simplicity and depth.

All Souls Day is about remembering. It is about love that lingers, even when the voice we loved has fallen silent. It is about prayers offered for souls who may have no one else to pray for them. It is about refusing to let grief stand alone in the dark.

This day is not meant to be somber in a hopeless way. It is meant to be tender. It reminds us that our love and our prayers still matter. Our loved ones are not forgotten, nor are the souls of strangers buried in quiet corners. Every prayer offered is like lighting a small candle in the darkness.

Our faith does not deny grief, but it never lets grief win. The promise of Christ turns our tears into trust. When we pray for the faithfully departed, we join Christ in His promise: “I shall raise them on the last day.” Love remembers. Love prays. Love never ends. And somewhere, I like to believe Sister Judith is smiling, knowing a bunch of 5th and 6th graders grew up still saying those prayers at cemeteries.

This week’s question:

This week’s question: Church titles confuse me. Deacon, Priest, Bishop I get. But what about Monsignor, Cardinal, Archbishop?

Answer:

Think of Deacon, Priest, and Bishop as the Church’s “sacramental job titles”—the rest are kind of like holy bonus levels. A Monsignor is just a priest with a fancy title and maybe a nicer parking spot. An Archbishop is a bishop with more territory (and probably more emails). A Cardinal is usually a bishop who gets to wear red, advise the Pope, and help pick the next one—basically, the Church’s version of a VIP club. It’s not so much a ladder to climb as it is a divine way to keep the Church running smoothly (and globally) without total chaos.

Vocation Corners November 02, 2025

This Sunday starts National Vocations Awareness Week. National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these vocations. Please pray each day this week for an increase in vocations and for young people to hear their call to Holiness.

"Palliative care and hospice are precious and crucial instruments in the care of patients with serious and complex chronic or terminal illnesses, and they help provide comfort to both the patients and their families. While palliative care cannot entirely eradicate suffering from people's lives, it provides an authentic expression of human and Christian care—allowing us to 'remain' at the side of a suffering person, as the Blessed Mother and the beloved disciple remained at the foot of the Cross...The path of accompaniment until the moment of death must remain open, with appropriate care for body and soul customized to the personal needs of the patient." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "The Witness of the Good Samaritan: Palliative Care and Hospice"

Quote for the week: We remember!

All Souls Day

Sunday is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed or "All Souls." Let us pray for our loved ones and all who have died.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, Bishop.

During the regular readings this week, we conclude a four-week series of first readings from Paul's Letter to the Romans. He reminds us, "Who has known the mind of the Lord?"

In the Gospel according to Luke we see Jesus living out his daily life with challenging honesty. He calls us to extend an invitation out of our hearts, not with an eye on an invitation in return: "invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind." Then Jesus tells the parable of the invited guests who made excuses to decline the invitation. He sends his servants to invite everyone. Jesus tells a crowd that they have to renounce their possessions to be his disciple and that to do something really important, we have to prepare and be ready. When the religious leaders complain, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them," Jesus tells parables of the man who finds his lost sheep and the woman with the lost coin, both of whom rejoice in finding what was lost. A steward protects himself by pardoning those who owe his master. We end the week with Jesus asking which is more important, God or money? "No servant can serve two masters."

Sunday, November 9 is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, which reminds us of the unity of the Church and commemorates the dedication of the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome.

Daily Prayer This Week

This week guides us deep into our faith in several ways. All Souls day gives us the opportunity to remember and pray for all our brothers and sisters who have died. We confidently hope and pray that they may be embraced by the love and mercy of God, poured forth in the life-giving death and resurrection of Jesus. This is a wonderful day to name all those we want to pray for, and to include in our prayer those who have no one to pray for them.

As we go about our very busy lives this week, we can continue to practice focusing our attention on an ongoing conversation with our Lord throughout the day. Our desires - for union with our Lord, to know God's love for us, to become more aware of our failings, to become more generous with our family and friends, to be more patient and forgiving, to love as we have been loved - can be expressed in these simple expressions. These expressed desires will naturally interact with the real events of our day.

The gospels this week will draw us into desiring to be more merciful and to not let money or pride dominate our behavior. We won't be "unprepared" if we keep making openings for our Lord to enter the ordinary moments of our days. In repeated moments, we can simply open our hearts and ask God for the desire to have our lives focus on God's desires for us, rather than what our culture wants us to focus on so constantly.

Each night let's look back over the day briefly, and give thanks for a God who listens to our desires.

Congratulations to Mrs. Maria Pryor: Chamber of Commerce & Centralia BPW Boss of the Year!

It is with immense pride and joy that we celebrate Mrs. Maria Pryor, Principal of St. Mary Catholic School, on being named Boss of the Year by both the Centralia Chamber of Commerce and Centralia BPW (Business and Professional Women's Club). Surrounded by her dedicated staff, loving family, and supportive school community, Maria's leadership has not only guided St. Mary's through challenges but has also inspired a spirit of faith, unity, and excellence that radiates through every classroom and hallway. Her journey from a loving Pre-K teacher to the heart and helm of our school is a testament to her unwavering commitment, deep compassion, and extraordinary resilience.

Maria leads not with a loud voice but with a strong heart. She listens, uplifts, and serves—not only as a principal but as a role model of grace under pressure. From navigating the trials of the pandemic to ensuring every student feels seen and supported, she has been a steady light in uncertain times. This recognition is not just an award—it is a reflection of the countless lives she's touched and the community she's helped build. Congratulations, Mrs. Pryor—your St. Mary's family couldn't be prouder!

PURRS FROM THE PEW - Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

Operation Fluff Patrol: The Night of the Holy Howl

The world changed overnight. The little humans arrived dressed as ghouls, ghosts, aliens, princesses, and trans-formers. One even came as a cat, but I saw through the fake whiskers. Amateur. Those shiny parent chariots, also known as Treats on Wheels, packed the holy parking lot. Buckets of candy. Giggles. Tiny feet everywhere. It was glorious. No one recognized me because I wore my Father Steve disguise. Since he decided to become an Umpa Lumpa, I had no choice. I dragged my sacred stash of treats back to my lair with the determination of a nun guarding the last donut in the rectory. And guess who joined me? Sister Gracie. Her shiny tanned fur glistened like a monstrosity at Benediction. She gave me an A+ for following in her paw prints of feline holiness. She is staying a few more weeks. She has already taken over the third-grade hallway like a seasoned abbess. Beware if you drop a crumb; she will find you. Sister Gracie says Halloween reminds us of All Saints and All Souls, which means it is a perfect time for treats, tricks, and holy purring. Look for her lurking with the steady gaze of a sainted cat. I will be at her side, paws ready, tail raised, guarding the candy and blessing the children with every holy whisker.

Paws, prayers, and chocolate crumbs, Sister Fluff, F.D.M. Feline of Divine Mischief
