The St. Lawrence Knights are selling raffle tickets for a Cardinals vs. Cubs baseball game at Busch Stadium. The winner will get four seats in the all-inclusive National Car Rental Club with unlimited food and drink. Parking is also included. Game date is June 25, 2025 at 6:45 p.m. The drawing will be held on June 16th at the monthly KC meeting. Tickets are $10.00 each. Get your raffle ticket from Grand Knight David Schulte or any St. Lawrence Knight. The Knights will be selling tickets after Mass.

The Knights will be having a breakfast fundraiser on Sunday, June 8th from 8:00 - 11:00 a.m. at St. Lawrence Hall. The menu will be sausage, eggs, biscuits, gravy, pancakes, fruit cocktail, coffee, milk, and juice. Free will offering. All profits from this breakfast will assist with Knights of Columbus charities. Please invite your family and friends.

Deacon Dan Laquet

Luke tells us in the Acts of the Apostles that Jesus was seen in his risen form for forty days. After those forty days, Jesus ascended into heaven. The feast of today marks this stage of transition in the story of incarnation and resurrection – that Jesus will not be seen in his earthly body anymore. Luke describes this “withdrawal” of Jesus in terms of being “lifted up”, and Mark, in his Gospel, describes it as “being taken up into heaven”. I would like to focus on two phrases from the first reading of today which capture important dimensions of our Christian life, namely, we have our eyes fixed on heaven but at the same time we have our feet firm on the ground.

Eyes Fixed on Heaven: “He was lifted up while they looked on” (Acts 1:9)

The feast of today invites us to look up, to have our eyes fixed on heaven. Luke tells us in the gospel: “Then he took them out as far as the out-skirts of Bethany, and raising his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven.” He goes on to add in the Acts of the Apostles, as we heard in the first reading of today, “As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight.” What did this mean for his apostles?

This description of Luke reminds us of what happened in the Hebrew Scriptures. The Second Book of Kings (2King 2:9-15) tells us how one day Elijah was with his disciple Elisha near the river Jordan. Suddenly there appeared a chariot of fire drawn by horses of fire. Elijah was taken up in a whirlwind as Elisha looked up to heaven. From that time Elisha received the spirit of his master and was empowered to continue his mission in the world. In fact, from then on Elisha was able to perform the same deeds as his master, this would also be the case for Jesus’ apostles.

Luke reminds us, through his own narration in the readings of today, that we will be empowered by the Spirit to do the same things that our Lord and master Jesus performed. In similar words, St Paul, writing to the Colossians, assures them – and us: “Since you have been raised up to be with Christ, you must look for the things that are above, where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand. Let your thoughts be on things above, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed..., you too will be revealed with him in glory” (Col 3:1-4). That is why, in the gospel of today, Luke tells us that after the parting of Jesus his disciples “went back to Jerusalem full of joy”.

Feet Firm on the Earth: “Why are you standing here looking into the sky?” (Acts 1:11) Looking up to heaven is not meant to be an escape from life here below. The disciples are told in the Acts of the Apostles, “Why are you Galileans standing here looking into the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way as you have seen him go to heaven” They can’t possibly be “witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to earth’s remotest end”, if they kept standing there just gazing at the sky. The disciples’ belief in the Risen Lord, the power of the Spirit in them, and their hope in the second coming of Jesus must be expressed in their commitment to trans-forming the world. Yes, they need to have their feet firm on the earth.

Elsewhere, Jesus tells us, “Blessed are those servants that the Lord, on his return, will find busy at work serving their brothers and sisters.” (Lk 12:35-48). During the transfiguration of the Lord, when Peter wanted to pitch tents on the mountain-top to get lost in the clouds, Jesus brought them down the mountain, back to the challenge of daily life (Lk 9:28-37). Moments of looking up to heaven, being on the mountain-top, and experiences of being elated are necessary and important in our spiritual lives. They are moments of grace. However, the fruits of those moments are truly expressed in the trials of daily life. People of faith must also have their feet firm on the earth. As Christians we are not lost in the narrow confines of this world. We have a sense of upward and forward-looking hope. At the same time, we are ‘not lost in the clouds.’ For us, genuine holiness consists of the meaningful integration of the spiritual and mundane aspects of our daily life.

Vocation Corner 6th Sunday of Easter May 25, 2025

Jesus prepares the apostles for his return to His Father in heaven. He gives us His peace. Unfortunately, peace has not always been upon us. This weekend, we gratefully and prayerfully remember all those who sacrificed their lives serving our country. This ultimate giving of oneself, as Christ did, is the most selfless act of love we humans perform. That raises the question - are we that giving of our spiritual selves? Today provides an opportunity for us to take a moment to reflect on how well we are fulfilling our vocation in life – ordained, married, consecrated, or single. Perhaps a prayer of recommitment is appropriate as we give thanks for those who have sacrificed so much for us.

Hope in the Lord

Your contribution to the Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal enables the Office of Education to impact the lives of over 10,283 students at 25 Catholic grade schools, three Catholic high schools and in PSR (Parish School of Religion) classes throughout our Belleville Diocese. If you haven't already done so, we prayerfully ask you to consider making a gift to the 2025 Appeal today...no amount is too large or too small! Thank you.

Quote for the week: God can make a way when there seems no way. Just ask him.

Sixth Week of Easter

John's Gospel offers us comfort and peace in a very direct way for the 6th Sunday of Easter. Jesus says "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

On Thursday in some dioceses, we celebrate The Ascension of the Lord. In the rest of the world it is celebrated on Sunday.

Our Easter season readings from Acts of the Apostles continue this week. We read of Paul converting a wealthy cloth trader, Lydia; of the dramatic conversion and baptism of the jailer and his family; Paul's bold speech to the crowd at the Areopagus and his fearless preaching in Corinth, despite the growing threat from the Jews. We also see how followers of Paul catch the fire of his faith and now begin to convert others.

In John's Gospel, we realize we are approaching Pentecost in a few weeks as Jesus begins to speak of his leaving the earth and of the coming of the "Advocate" - the Spirit of Truth. The image of the Trinity is clear: "when the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father...." To his disciples, the idea of his leaving fills their hearts with grief but Jesus reassures them, "it is better for you that I go" so that the Spirit can come to them. The Spirit "will guide you to all truth." Jesus promises, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, while the world rejoices; you will grieve, but your grief will become joy." "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." "Whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you."

Whether the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord is celebrated this Thursday or on Sunday, it is a stirring story from Acts of the Apostles of Jesus leaving his disciples and promising them the support of the Holy Spirit. The Gospel of Luke tells of Jesus as he led his disciples out "as far as Bethany, raised his hands, and blessed them. As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven."

On Sunday, those dioceses celebrating the Ascension on Thursday will celebrate the Seventh Sunday of Easter. As if in preparation for Pentecost Sunday, we read in Acts of the stoning of Stephen, who is "filled with the Holy Spirit." In John's Gospel the poetic words of Jesus are a love song to us as he prays to his Father, "Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me...."

Daily Prayer This Week

We sometimes keep the idea of the Trinity firmly in our heads, rather than move it to our hearts. Our logical, practical minds cannot make sense out of three persons in one God.

But clearly this week Jesus wants us to have some sense of what the Trinity is - a continuation of the seamless love and identity between him and the Father. It is the Spirit of that love between them that lives on in us today, guiding us and helping us to follow the message of Jesus' life. It is that Spirit of Jesus that is with us in each of the difficult and joyous moments of our days.

Jesus invites us to discover the power of the Spirit in our lives through an awareness of "the Advocate" supporting us each day. Jesus encourages us in the same kind of intimate relationship he has with the Father. The startling idea of this close, personal conversation one might have with a parent, models for us how we can speak to him.

If we feel tongue-tied or don't know where to begin, that is exactly the place to start. Each morning as we awaken, we can speak from our hearts.

Loving Jesus, I'm not sure how to do this. I can feel in my heart an emptiness or longing for something deeper in my relationship, but I don't always know where to begin. Help me to open my heart to you this day, and to carry with me the sense of how much you love me and how much you want this kind of personal relationship with me.

Let me feel your Spirit present with me as I face the challenges of the day and let me live my life this day as your follower, in the peace of your love.

It is a simple prayer and one that we can remember as we go about our day, head to a meeting, stand in the kitchen or fold laundry. It is not complicated to have a closer relationship with God but it takes focus. And always, we can end our day with a simple prayer of thanks for the many blessings of the day.

Heading Off to High School!

Our St. Mary's 8th Grade Graduation was nothing short of magical. It's never easy saying goodbye to Junior High, but this sendoff? Absolutely perfect. The church was filled with joy, a few tears, and a whole lot of pride. Our Gospel reminded us: "Be not afraid." And that's what I told them—heading off to high school might feel a little scary, but God walks every step with you.

I've had the joy of knowing this amazing crew since they were in third grade. I've watched them grow in faith, friendship, and wisdom. I've seen them serve at Mass, lead by example, and bring laughter to the halls. What a gift they've been to our parish and school community.

Each graduate brings something unique and beautiful to their families, our church, and the world.

They are smart, kind, funny, faith-filled, and ready for the next chapter.

We're deeply grateful to Ashlee Wethington Photography and Tim Ferguson for generously capturing and sharing beautiful moments from graduation, first communion, sports, and school events. Thank you so much—we truly appreciate you! Your time and talent mean so much to our community. Thanks to you, these special memories will be cherished for years to come.

Prayer for Vocations

Gracious God, You have called us through Baptism to discipleship, believing in your Son, Jesus Christ, who has sent us to bring the Good News of salvation to the world. We pray to you, asking that you grant us more priests and religious who will help us build up your Church in the Diocese of Belleville and the world. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many of our youth. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves in service to our Lord Jesus and His people. May a new generation of priests, deacons, sisters and brothers be a sign of your presence among us. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord Amen.

PRAYER REQUEST – CAN YOU PLEASE GO OVER THESE NAMES TO SEE IF ANY NEEDS TO BE REMOVED PLEASE LET OFFICE KNOW
