Knights News

The St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus will be having their annual Tuition Assistance Breakfast and Country Store on Sunday, August 10th. The menu will include sausage, ham, eggs, biscuits, gravy, pancakes, fruit cocktail, coffee, milk, and juice. All profits from your free will offering for this breakfast will assist students with tuition at St. Mary School in Centralia. Please use the enclosed flier to help advertise the breakfast.

St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus Tuition-Assistance Breakfast & Country Store

The St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus will be hosting a Tuition-Assistance Breakfast on Sunday, August 10, 2025, at the St. Lawrence Parish Center. As part of the event, we're excited to reopen the Country Store—but our storage shelves are looking a little bare! If you have any gently used items, homemade goods, or treasures you'd be willing to donate, we'd be grateful for your help in restocking the store.

Need help transporting your items? Please contact any Knight or reach out to Theresa Ingles at 618-247-3300. Thank you for supporting this important cause for our students!

Message from our Pastor, Father Steve

Excuse Me While I Don't..."

A lighthearted reflection on Luke 10:38-42

Let's be honest, we all know someone who's really good at dodging work. And if you're sitting there thinking, "Well, I don't know anybody like that..." it might be you! We're talking about the great escape artists of everyday chores: the ones who suddenly remember they need to reorganize their sock drawer when it's time to wash dishes. The ones who vanish into thin air at the very mention of taking out the garbage. Or the seasoned pros who are "just about to" mow the lawn, clean the gutters, fold the laundry, scrub the toilet, sweep the garage, rake the leaves, or organize the Tupperware drawer that somehow only has lids. And oh, the excuses! "I'd help, but my back's acting up again." "I would've cleaned, but I couldn't find the mop." "I was going to do it, but I had to take the dog to the vet... well, no, not our dog." "I thought you liked doing dishes." "I didn't want to mess up your system." Or the holy classic: "I started praying and lost track of time." Nice try.

Believe it or not, these shenanigans aren't new. Even in Jesus' time, people tried to multitask their way around the moment. In today's Gospel, we hear about Martha, busy, bustling, probably burning the bread, and Mary, sitting quietly at Jesus' feet, soaking it all in. Martha, understandably annoyed, wants Jesus to back her up. But instead, He gently reminds her that Mary has chosen "the better part." Jesus isn't knocking hard work. After all, someone had to do the dishes! But He's making a point: sometimes we get so busy doing things for the Lord, that we forget to actually spend time with Him. We choose stress over stillness. Tasks over presence.

And here's the twist: sometimes, in our effort to look busy or feel productive, we miss out on what actually feeds our soul. Sure, the floors might shine and the laundry may be folded like a department store display, but if we've skipped the quiet, prayerful moments with God, we're just spinning our wheels. Mary teaches us that sometimes the holiest thing you can do... is nothing. Just be still. Be present. Be with Him. And if someone asks why you're just sitting there, you can smile and say, "Hey, I'm doing the better part, Jesus said so!"

STRAIGHT FROM THE COLLAR

PADRE STEVE, WHAT'S THE DEAL WITH...

Got burning questions, holy curiosities, or just want to stump your parish priest? Send them to spautler@stmarycentralia.org and I'll give it my best shot—collar, coffee, and a sense of humor included!

This week's question: "What's the difference between Last Rites, the Anointing of the Sick, Extreme Unction, and the Apostolic Pardon?"

Answer: Great question—and nope, they're not all the same, though they often happen together. Anointing of the Sick is the sacrament given to anyone seriously ill, elderly, or preparing for surgery, asking God for healing, peace, and strength. Extreme Unction is just the old name for this sacrament, back when it was reserved mostly for those near death. Last Rites isn't one sacrament but a combo: typically Confession (if possible), Anointing of the Sick, and Viaticum, which is Holy Communion given as "food for the journey" home to Heaven. And then there's the Apostolic Pardon, a beautiful blessing the priest offers at the time of death that forgives all temporal punishment due to sin, like a spiritual "get-out-of-purgatory-free" card. So while they're connected and often given together at life's end, each part has its own purpose.

"PRAY THE LORD OF THE HARVEST TO SEND LABORERS INTO HIS HARVEST"

MT 9:38 | LK 10:2

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 20, 2025

"The countless gravestones at Normandy American Cemetery in France stirred my heart. These brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives challenged me: Would I be willing to lay down my life, as these men did, for the Lord and his people? Long before this pivotal moment, the seeds of my vocation had been planted by family role models. My grandfather served his family and parish sacrificially for many years after his WWII duty. Likewise, my father coached me in self-discipline, and my dear mother raised me to serve others. It was at college that the Lord Jesus truly captured my heart. After graduation, I served as a missionary and met the Brotherhood of Hope. I admired the brothers and their work evangelizing students at secular universities, but I resisted the idea of celibacy and did not have the courage to explore a vocation with them until after my experience at Normandy Beach. My years with the Brothers of Hope have strengthened my conviction that Jesus Christ alone can satisfy our deepest desires."

Quote for the week: We cannot always choose the music life plays for us; we can choose how we dance to it.

Sixteenth Week of Ordinary Time

The readings for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time tell us about service. In the Genesis story, Abraham generously cares for three strangers who then tell him that his wife, Sarah, will finally have a son. Luke's gospel recounts the classic story of Martha and Mary: Martha ran around serving Jesus while Mary sat at his feet listening. "Mary has chosen the better part," Jesus says.

Tuesday is the Feast of Saint Mary Magdalene. Friday is the Feast of Saint James, Apostle, with its own special readings. Saturday is the Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The daily readings continue our second week from the Book of Exodus continuing the story of God's faithful deliverance of the people from slavery in Egypt. Pharaoh has a change of heart and chases the fleeing Israelites. Moses tells them to "Fear not! Stand your ground, and you will see the victory the Lord will win for you today." With Moses' outstretched arm, they pass through the sea on dry land, while their pursuers drown. Still the people grumble against God in the desert and God gives them manna to eat, with Moses saying, "This is the bread which the Lord has given you to eat." Then God comes to the people in smoke and fire. He summoned Moses and gave him the Ten Commandments and Moses shares them with the people in a covenant ceremony, sprinkling the blood of sacrificed bulls on the altar, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you."

In Matthew's Gospel this week some people come up and ask Jesus for a sign. He answers mysteriously by saying that the only sign they will receive is the sign of Jonah the prophet, whose preaching brought about conversion. His family comes looking for Jesus and he again asks the mystifying question about who is really a relative, an intimate, with him. His answer is that all of us who do the will of his Father. Then we hear the parable of the sower. It is important for us not to be discouraged because all of the seed doesn't find its way to good soil. Jesus encourages us to be sowers of the Word. He will guarantee a rich harvest. To understand his parables is Jesus' gift to us. Finally, we hear the parable about the weeds in the field again.

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time begins with a reading from Genesis. Abraham pleads for compassion for those few innocent people of Sodom and Gomorrah. God promises him, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." Jesus teaches us to pray in the reading from Luke's gospel, using the familiar words, "Father, hallowed be your name." He urges us to be persistent in our prayer: "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

Daily Prayer This Week

These weekly guides offer us an opportunity to practice being "contemplatives in action." For us busy people, it is possible to pray - "to lift our minds and hearts to God" - in the midst of our everyday, active lives. Prayer is really about our relationship with the Lord, a relationship that is always a gift of the Holy Spirit. That relationship can stay alive, and grow in its intimacy, to the degree we can let the daily events, responsibilities and relationships of our lives become a part of our relationship with our Lord. All it takes is a little focus and some practice.

Every morning this week, we can begin our day with a brief conversation with our Lord that expresses a desire that comes from within us and is shaped by the scriptures this week. We might say, "O Lord, help me trust your presence in what you call me to do today, letting me remember how tiny seeds grow." I may pray: "Dear Lord, thank you for this day. Let me trust your care for me. Let me not be afraid or grumble, but fill me with the nourishment of your presence today." Or we might ask, "Lord, let me do your will today, and experience the closeness you offer me as I do so." Perhaps, we can pray, "Thank you, Lord, for the gift of my children. Help me to trust that not everything I say or do will seem to work, but that you will take care of them and allow my efforts to be fruitful."

Throughout each day, we can repeat and refine these desires and prayers in our hearts. Each thing we do, each person we relate to, each request that is made of us will help us say this or that expression of gratitude or request for grace.

The practice comes in having this ongoing conversation and connection with our Lord in the background of our day - in the brief in between times: in the shower, while getting dressed, on the way to work, while walking to a meeting, during a meeting, while shopping, as we transition from any part of our day to the next. It all comes together as we take a brief bit of time at night, before we go to bed, to say thanks for the graces we have received, for the opportunity to feel connected and know that we are not alone throughout the day. Sometimes, we'll ask the same thing for several days. At times, we'll notice a pattern in what we are asking for and what we experience ourselves as receiving. In this very simple way, with just a little focus and practice, we will find a pearl of great value - a growing relationship with our Lord that transforms our spirits in the midst of our busy lives.

Purrs from the Pew Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

This week at St. Mary, I was minding my own business, which, as you know, usually involves sunbeams, soft naps, and just a dash of mischief, when the Summer Program kids decided to play hide and seek. Naturally, I was intrigued. Hide and seek? That's my game. I practically invented it!

They picked some good hiding spots, under desks, in closets, behind the copy machine—but nothing compared to my hideaways. Let's just say... I was in the rafters. Overhead. Watching. Waiting. I could have leapt down with a glorious Sister Fluff MEOW! just to see them scatter like startled squirrels. But I decided to be merciful. This time. Instead, I supervised from above. One kid hid inside the supply cabinet, bold move. Another tried to blend in with the mop. Points for creativity, minus points for smell. In the end, they had their fun. And I? I claimed victory without lifting a paw.

So, until next week... stay sharp, hide well, and if you hear a faint purr in the hallway, that's not your imagination, it's me. Sister Fluff. Silent. Swift. And always watching. P.S. Snacks left by the office door will be considered tribute.

With divine mischief, Sister Fluff
