The St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus will be hosting a Tuition-Assistance Breakfast on Sunday, August 10, 2025, at the St. Lawrence Parish Center. As part of the event, we're excited to reopen the Country Store—but our storage shelves are looking a little bare! If you have any gently used items, homemade goods, or treasures you'd be willing to donate, we'd be grateful for your help in restocking the store.

Need help transporting your items? Please contact any Knight or reach out to Theresa Ingles at 618-247-3300. Thank you for supporting this important cause for our students!

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Reverend Steven Pautler

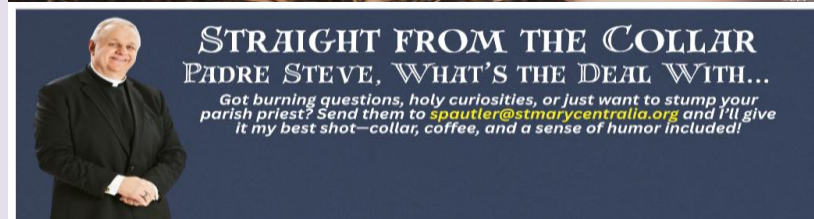

“Midnight Texts and Holy Persistence...”

Let's be real. If a friend knocked on your door at midnight—scratch that, texted you at midnight, saying, “Hey, I ran out of bread, can you help me out?” most of us wouldn't even reply. Or we'd respond with something like, “There's a 24-hour gas station three blocks away... Godspeed.” The idea of someone disturbing our sacred sleep for sourdough sounds absurd today. We're more likely to ignore the message, turn our phone over, and say a prayer for their carb situation in the morn-ing.

But back in Jesus' day? No QuickTrip. No DoorDash. No Walmart pickup. No “tap to reorder.” If you were out of bread, you were really out of luck, unless you had a friend stubborn (or desperate) enough to knock until you got up, slippers and all. In Luke 11:1–13, Jesus shares a parable that fits this exact scenario. A man wakes up his neighbor in the middle of the night to ask for bread—not for him-self, but for a guest. The poor guy inside groans (like any sane person would), muttering, “I'm in bed, the kids are asleep, I've got my comfy pants on, go away!” But eventually, he gets up—not out of neighborly love, but because of the man's persistence. He just won't stop knocking.

And that's the punchline. Jesus isn't just telling a quirky story, He's showing us what prayer should look like. Persistent. Bold. A little shameless. Like some-one who won't take “no” (or “go away, I'm sleeping”) for an answer.

God isn't annoyed by our repeated prayers. He doesn't roll His eyes and say, “What does she want now?” even if that's what we say when certain cousins text us after 11 PM. Instead, He welcomes it. He wants us to ask. To seek. To knock. And to keep knocking—not because He's hard of hearing, but because prayer changes us. It strengthens our trust, stretches our patience, and softens our hearts. The Father isn't asleep. He's not bothered. He's not overwhelmed with re-quests. He's waiting—lovingly, patiently, and joyfully—for us to reach out. So the next time life hits you with a spiritual midnight emergency, don't hesitate. Go ahead and text Heaven. Knock loud and often. God always answers—even when the world is silent and the bread's all gone.

STRAIGHT FROM THE COLLAR PADRE STEVE, WHAT'S THE DEAL WITH...

Got burning questions, holy curiosities, or just want to stomp your parish priest? Send them to spautler@stmarycentralia.org and I'll give it my best shot—collar, coffee, and a sense of humor included!

This week's question: Why do Catholics go to Confession instead of just talking to God directly like my non-Catholic friends do?

Answer: This is one of the most common, and honest, questions Catholics get. Many of our non-Catholic friends say, “Why go to a priest? I confess directly to God.” And yes, we should all speak directly to God and ask for forgiveness. But here's the Catholic kicker: Reconciliation isn't just about a private apology, it's about healing a relationship with God and the Church. In John 20:21-23, Jesus gave His apostles the authority to forgive sins. He didn't say, “Just keep it between you and Me.” He breathed the Holy Spirit on them and said, “Whose sins you forgive are forgiven.” That's the foundation of the Sacrament. Confession isn't a man-made rule, it's a gift from Christ. Saying our sins out loud takes humility. It's easy to gloss over sin in our minds, but when we name it aloud in the presence of a priest, we experience accountability and the grace of starting fresh. The priest, acting in the person of Christ, offers real absolution, and that's not just symbolic. It's sacramental. It's powerful. It's freeing. So yes, we talk to God directly, but in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God speaks back, with mercy we can actually hear.

Join us for the 82nd Healing and Hope Novena to Our Lady of the Snows, held nightly at 7:00 PM from July 28 to August 5 at Our Lady of the Snows Church. For over 80 years, this cherished novena has served as a source of spiritual inspiration and healing for the faithful. Each of the nine consecutive evenings includes a special Mass with reflections, prayers, music, and a beautiful rosary pro-cession by candlelight.

This year's themes address a variety of needs, including Addictions and Recovery, Caregiving, Crises of Faith, Adolescent and Young Adult Issues, Physical Illness, Mental Health Challenges, and more. Join us in prayer as we seek healing and hope through the intercession of Our Lady. All are welcome to attend any or all of the evenings. 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 27, 2025

St. Luke shares with us another form of the Our Father which Jesus is teaching his disciples. We are shown that we can ask the Heavenly Father for anything just as we would our earthly father. "And I tell you, ask and you will receive." Our daily prayer needs to include a request for more men and women to answer that call from the Lord to enter the seminary or religious community. "For everyone who asks, receives." How beautiful a relationship that is with the one who made us.

The 2025 Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal Hope in the Lord

YOU have the opportunity to support the four men who have answered "YES" to God's call to serve the Priesthood of Jesus Christ in our Belleville Diocese. The annual cost for each of our seminarians is over $50,000.

Funding from the Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal helps support the expenses of our seminarians and Vocation Office, you pledge or one time gift is truly an investment in our faith and the Life of the Church here in southern Illinois. Please continue to pray for vocations and consider making your gift today!

Quote for the week: Having a soft heart in a cruel world is courage, not weakness.

Seventeenth Week of Ordinary Time

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time begins with a reading from Genesis. Abraham pleads for compassion for those few innocent people of Sodom and Gomorrah. God promises him, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." Jesus teaches us to pray in the reading from Luke's gospel, using the familiar words, "Father, hallowed be your name." He urges us to be persistent in our prayer: "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Martha. Thursday is the Memorial of St. Ignatius of Loyola. Friday is the Memorial of St. Alphonsus Liguori.

The first readings this week continue to be from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah. Jeremiah delivers God's messages about the laxity of the rulers. It is a powerful call to conversion for all of us today.

We continue to read from Matthew's Gospel this week, entering into sayings of Jesus about the Kingdom of God. God's reign is like mustard seeds and it is like yeast. It's coming and growth is small and slow, but it is assured. It may be compared to a field where an enemy sowed weeds among the good seed. Jesus knows the world is full of both the children of God, and also the children of the Evil One - mixed together. We need not worry. It is God who will judge at the end of time. The Kingdom is like a buried treasure or a merchant's search for a really fine pearl. It is worth investing all we have in it. The Kingdom is like the net used for fishing which gathers everything in it. At the end of time God will gather all to separate the good from the evil. We hear that Jesus could not work miracles in his home town, because of their lack of faith in him. They thought they knew him and therefore took him for granted. Herod arrested John because John's preaching was bothering his conscience. He had John beheaded to honor a drunken promise to his niece and an oath to impress his guests.

On the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the first reading from Ecclesiastes offers a powerful caution about focusing too much on the things of this world: "Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!" In Luke's gospel Jesus tells the parable of the rich man storing up treasures for the future, and he warns, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Daily Prayer This Week

This whole week could be a time for each of us to grow in a sense of what we most deeply desire. If we let Sunday's gospel open our hearts we might find ourselves asking, begging God for what we need.

And we can let the daily gospels renew our hope. Have we become cynical and jaded a bit? The world does seem to be like a field someone sowed weeds into. The growth of God's reign in this world doesn't seem to be growing, and the seeds seem so small. This is a good week to get in touch with what is discouraged in our hearts and to let the courage the Lord is offering us renew us. He promises that even small seeds work and that even a little yeast allows dough to grow. The process is sometimes imperceptible, but that's why Jesus reminds us to place our trust in him. Our own hearts might be full of weeds, but the Lord doesn't want us ripping ourselves apart. He is full of mercy and healing reconciliation. Jesus does not want us to be scandalized by the evil we see in the world. God is patient. And, God alone will judge.

So every day this week, we can begin our day, establishing a focus. This might be while standing next to our bed for a brief minute, or while pouring ourselves a cup of coffee, or while washing or getting dressed. This is the time that can transform any busy day into a more focused time of connection with our Lord. Using all sorts of background times throughout the day will take no "extra" time for prayer, but will make it possible to let these powerful scriptures interact with the daily events and relationships with which we are involved.

One morning we might begin our day, simply by saying, "Lord, thank you for this day. Help me to pay attention to what and who I'm treasuring today." Or, "Lord, be with me this day and help me check my need to judge others. Help me place my trust in you today." While in the shower or going to work I might talk with the Lord about the day ahead, asking for particular help, focus, or a new way of valuing during that difficult 10 a.m. meeting or with the clients or students or patients I will see. While doing the wash or shopping or preparing meals or while taking time with my family or friends in the evening, I can let myself have these 30 second friend-to-friend conversations with the Lord. The readings provide a compass for our daily journey, but it is the continual practice at connecting with our Lord that carries us through the day. Looking back and saying "thank you" every night, if even for 30 seconds, will gradually transform us and give us more courage and hope.

Lightning, Laughter, and Lanes: SMS Knows Summer Fun!

Splish, Splash... Strike!"

Well, lightning tried to rain on our parade—but St. Mary's students don't back down from a little weather drama! Our wet and wild adventure at the Salem Pool hit a brief pause thanks to a few dramatic flashes in the sky. But did we sulk in soggy towels?

Nope! We traded swimsuits for bowling shoes and hit the lanes. No perfect 300s, but plenty of giggles, gutter balls, and one heroic spare that will go down in SMS history. Don't worry, Salem Pool—we'll be back with floaties blazing!

Sometimes the best memories come from unexpected detours. From pool noodles to pin resets, our summer fun just kept rolling. Rain or shine, SMS knows how to make a splash and a strike!

Purrs from the Pew Sister Fluff of Divine Mischief

So let me set the record straight, I am the one and only Sister Fluff, feline-in-residence of St. Mary School and Church. But lately... something strange has been afoot. With Father Steve's help (I always suspected he was too clever for his own collar), an imposter has been prowling these sacred halls. Looks like me (sort of), purrs like me (poorly), even meows like me (embarrassing, really), but this fluffy fraud runs on four AA batteries! A battery-powered "Sister Fluff"? Please!

The summer kids have been on the prowl, trying to sniff out my latest hiding spots. They keep pestering Father Steve like he's a feline informant. But he's not cracked—yet! Meanwhile, while Robo-Fluff distracts them with her twitchy tail and synthetic sass, I've been reclaiming my rightful peace and quiet. Cat naps in the library. Uninterrupted sun-bathing in the window. Midnight snack runs to the parish office.

So yes, welcome, dear mechanical decoy. You've bought me time and tuna. Long may your batteries last! Just don't start preaching at school Mass.

With a swish of my tail and a smug whisker twitch, Sister Fluff Queen of SMS (and she knows it)

ST. MARY SCHOOL IS LOOKING FOR A FEW HELPING HANDS!
