Knights News

The Knights will be having a Pork Steak Dinner this Saturday, June 13th from 4:00 - 6:30 p.m. at St. Lawrence Hall. Menu will be pork steak, baked potato, baked beans, applesauce, dessert and drink. Dine in or carry out. Free will offering. Invite all your family and friends.

The drawing for the four St. Louis Cardinal baseball tickets will be on June 15th at the next Knights meeting. The seats are in the National Car Rental Club including unlimited food and drink. See Grand Knight David Schulte for raffle tickets.

All right, here goes my confession. This past Friday, found myself traveling through the Belleville area. As I headed north on Illinois 159 into Fairview Heights, there it was! Bright yellow letters. A glowing orange sign. A beacon of temptation calling my name. "Krispy Kreme Donuts. HOT NOW!" This Padre has very low resistance when it comes to warm donuts. Before I knew it, I had pulled into the parking lot and purchased a six-pack of sugary delight and fluffy goodness. And yes, for those keeping score at home, half of them were gone before I reached the O'Fallon exit.

What can I say? The spirit was willing, but the willpower was weak. There is something about fresh donuts. They are warm, satisfying, sweet, and for a brief moment all seems right with the world.

This weekend, the Church places another invitation before us. Not "HOT NOW." Not glazed. Not sprinkled. Not filled with cream. Yet far more satisfying. Far more nourishing. Far more important. Jesus says in today's Gospel. "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever." Think about that for a moment. Every day people line up for things that promise happiness. New gadgets. New cars. Bigger houses. Better jobs. Donuts fresh off the conveyor belt. Yet every one of those things eventually leaves us wanting more.

The Eucharist is different. The Eucharist is not simply a reminder of Jesus. It is Jesus. Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. The same Christ who walked the shores of Galilee. The same Christ who healed the sick, forgave sinners, carried the cross, and rose from the dead. He comes to us under the humble appearance of bread and wine. What amazes me is that God did not choose to remain distant. He chose to remain close. So close that we receive Him into our very bodies.

Every Mass is God's "HOTNOW" sign flashing before the world. Come and receive. Come and be nourished. Come and find strength. Come and receive eternal life. Unlike those donuts, which disappeared somewhere around O'Fallon, the gift of Christ never runs us at this altar with the same generosity, the same mercy, and the same promise of eternal life. And that is truly sweet.

QUESTION:

My son came home the other day and said he thinks he would make a good priest. I have never pushed the idea or even talked much about it. Part of me smiles. Part of me immediately thinks, "There go the grandkids." What should I say?

Answered by Father Steven Paulter

ANSWER:

First, do not panic and do not start measuring him for Roman collars by supper time. A vocation usually begins quietly. The best response is simple. "That is wonderful. Let's pray about it together." Pray for him. Support him. Encourage him to talk with your pastor or a vocation director. If God is calling him, He will make that clear in his way and in his time. If not, you still get a son which is a very good vocation too!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER JUNE 07, 2026

"Christ's blood reveals to man that his greatness, and therefore his vocation, consists in the sincere gift of self. ...It is from the blood of Christ that all draw the strength to commit themselves to promoting life. It is precisely this blood that is the most powerful source of hope, indeed it is the foundation of the absolute certitude that in God's plan life will be victorious."

Pope Saint John Paul II,

VOCATION CORNER JUNE 07, 2026

Today we celebrate the great gift of the Eucharist. This gift is what truly defines us as Catholics. We rejoice that Jesus gave His Body and Blood for our redemption. This is the remembrance we commemorate during each Liturgy, which is only possible through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, celebrated by a priest. We are challenged to pray for more priests and are challenged to encourage those who may have a calling to Holy Orders. Consider posing the question: "Have you ever considered becoming a priest?"

This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - in the U.S. It is the great feast in which we celebrate the gift of the Eucharist, but also the special blessing our the presence of our Lord with us in the Blessed Sacrament. In the Gospel, Jesus offers the most consoling good news: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Barnabas, Apostle. Friday is the solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

During the week, we begin a three-week period of looking at the Books of Kings. Elijah follows the Lord's direction and changes the hearts of many. The week ends as Elijah calls Elisha into service for the Lord.

This week, we begin reading the Gospel According to Matthew, starting with the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is the new Moses and offers us a radical new teaching. It begins by his telling a small group of followers that they are blessed - not because they have their acts together, but because they are spiritually poor, meek, those desiring justice, the merciful, the clean of heart, the peacemakers, and the persecuted. Salt and light explain who they are as disciples. They are to obey the law and prophets, which Jesus came to fulfill. Whereas the law forbade killing, Jesus calls his disciples to be reconcilers. The law forbade adultery, but Jesus warns about lust and whatever is an occasion for sinning. The law forbade taking false oaths, but Jesus calls his disciples to a deeper fidelity and integrity.

On the eleventh Sunday, Jesus summons his twelve disciples and sends them out.

Daily Prayer This Week

The Sermon on the Mount can help us be contemplatives in action this week. The Beatitudes are not eight new commandments. Rather, Jesus saw those following him and saw their weakness and their need, their goodness and their desire, even the cost they pay to follow him. He looked at them and called them "Blessed."

Let us all begin this week by letting Jesus look at us and call us blessed. Each morning, we can practice choosing to focus on some way we are spiritually poor or desiring justice, some way we are merciful or a peacemaker, or some way we might be experiencing the cost of being a believer, and simply ask our Lord to convince us of our blessedness there. It is likely that each of us, every day, can be attentive to some aspect of our daily lives, some part of our relationships or responsibilities, that places us right there, in a place where Jesus can tell us that we will be comforted, satisfied, blessed beyond our imagining.

Some day this week, each of us will have the opportunity to be the salt that gives relationships and faithful living their flavor. We will have our chances to be light in the midst of the darkness that crosses our paths. We can ask Jesus those days - whether in the morning, or in brief background moments during the day - to have us not lose our flavor or to cover our light. And, all of us will face the greater responsibility of a disciple of Jesus, to avoid anger and find the path to reconciliation, to turn from lust and greed, and to love genuinely and honestly.

It is a wonderful week to remember the tremendous gift of the Body and Blood of Jesus, given to us for our nourishment and an example of self-sacrificing love. We can take time to express our gratitude and humbly ask for the grace to be able to be broken and given, shared and poured out, as our Savior is for us.

WE WANT TO THANK

FOR PLACING FLAGS AT THE GRAVES OF OUR VETERANS ON MEMORIAL DAY. They were able to locate most of our veterans by their military footstone, unfortunately some do not have one.

If you have a loved one who is a veteran, could you contact Rosa at the office so we can get an accurate list of veterans.

LET'S ENSURE EVERY VETERAN AT CALVARY CEMETERY IS REMEMBERED.

Thank You!

What a beautiful gathering as we came together to honor our departed veterans and all those who sacrificed so much for the freedoms we enjoy today.

In his homily, Father Steve reflected on the many headstones bearing the same date, March 25, 1947, the day of the tragic Centralia No. 5 Mine Disaster that claimed 111 lives. Those stones stand as a powerful reminder of the price paid by ordinary men and women whose sacrifices helped shape a safer future for generations to come.

We remember with with gratitude our veterans, our miners, and all who gave of themselves for the good of others.

We are thankful for those who fought for freedom, those who labored under difficult and dangerous conditions, and those whose lives and sacrifices brought about changes that continue to protect and benefit us today. Their courage, dedication, and service will never be forgotten.

Peace and purrs from Florida! It is I, Sister Fluff, reporting from the most magical place on earth. This adventure began at the crack of dawn when I boarded the 4:30 a.m. City of New Orleans train in Centralia. Let me tell you, this kitty traveled in style. The train even had a snack car. Purrrrrrr heaven!

When I arrived in New Orleans, I spotted one of those rolling tin cans humans call cars. I hopped into the back seat with the kids. Mom and Dad never noticed. They were too busy arguing with a little box that kept saying, "Make a U-turn."

Eventually, I arrived at the Magic Kingdom, where my Aunt Sister Gracie was waiting at the gate. She whisked me through the mysterious Utilidors beneath Cinderella Castle. I saw a five-foot mouse walking around like he owned the place. Then I saw a dog that walks on two legs. I briefly wondered if I had wandered into the Book of Revelation. Aunt Sister Gracie and I paused for a moment of gratitude. Even a traveling kitty knows every adventure is a gift from God. Then we headed off in search of more excitement and a few more snacks. Until next time, may your food bowl be full and your guardian angel keep watch over you. Purrs from Florida, Sister Fluff, FDM
