Knights News

The Knights of Columbus District Free Throw Competition will be Saturday, February 15th at 9:00 a.m. in St. Lawrence Gym.

The next monthly meeting of the St. Lawrence Knights will be on Monday, February 17th at 7:00 p.m. in the hall.

Deacon Dan Laquet

This week we celebrate National Marriage Week and Sunday, February 9th, is World Marriage Day. In celebration of these special days, it is important to recognize the sanctity of marriage, and the vocation of married life. For those of us that are married, there are many ways we can support and grow our relationships, and perhaps the most important is through prayer and living out our faith.

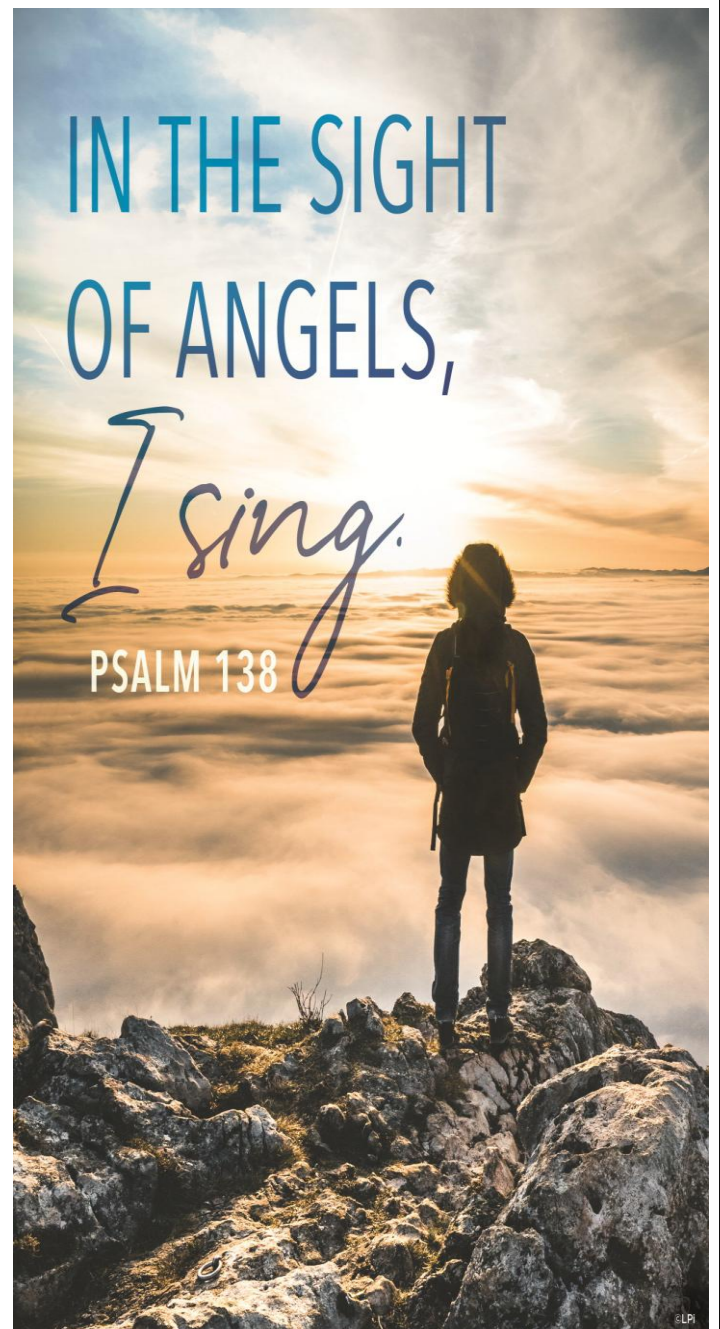

It is by God's design that the vocation of marriage links aspects of married life to the four parts of the Mass: the Introductory Rite, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Concluding Rite. Through prayer and reflection, our married lives mirror the sacrifice of the Mass in many ways.

Firstly, we should always reconcile and rejoice in our marriage. As in the Introductory Rite, where the Church comes together, makes the Sign of the Cross, and asks God for forgiveness through the Penitential Rite, married couples are encouraged to pray together and reconcile any differences that they have experienced. No matter how hard we try, there will be moments in our shared lives where we hurt each other. Each day or week, we should recognize those moments, discuss them, and apologize. These steps will lead to forgiveness from our spouse, as God forgives us, and will help us rejoice anew in our sacramental union.

Secondly, we need to discover God together and recognize the impact he has on our lives. As in the Liturgy of the Word where God speaks to us through the readings, and we listen to Him intently and purposefully, we can emulate this same aspect of the Mass at home together. By reading scripture passages together, discussing what they mean to us, and seeing how they apply in our lives, we will develop a deeper relationship with God and each other. We can also approach God together in other ways. Through prayer, we can let God know what is on our hearts and minds. We can let Him know what we are thankful for, what we are struggling with, and what we need from God and each other.

Thirdly, it is important that we share our love. As in the Liturgy of the Eucharist where Jesus gives himself to us, married couples are invited to a deeper intimacy and union by lovingly sharing their lives with each other. There are many meaningful ways that couples can communicate their love for each other; a kiss, a hug, acts of kindness, words of affirmation, caring for each other during illness, rejoicing with each other during moments of joy, supporting each other during difficult times. In all of these moments, we should have a thankful heart, because our intimacy is deepened through the presence of God.

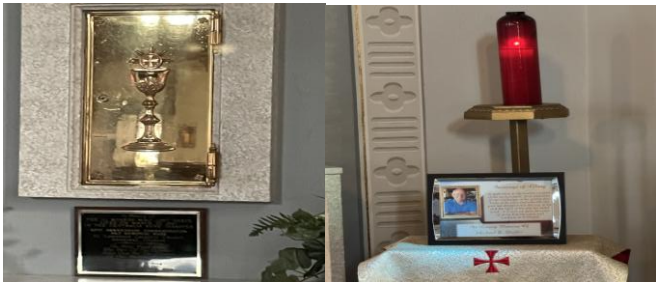

Lastly, married couples live out their marital vows through service to each other. In the Concluding Rite, we are sent to love and serve the Lord. In our marriages, we are blessed to serve the Lord by serving each other. Throughout our lives together, prayer, intimacy, and service are vital to deepening and strengthening our relationship with God and each other. Christ modeled spousal love for us through his bride, the Church. Our marriages are a reflection of that love.

VOCATION CORNER - February 9, 2025

A sage once wrote that a good marriage is like a fire around which others come to warm themselves. So, as we celebrate World Marriage Day on this Sunday, we realize that no matter our station in life - married, single or religious - we have benefited from this sacred covenant relationship whether through the example of our parents, grandparents, and other role models or through our own stewardship of the marriage covenant. For the Catholic steward, marriage goes far beyond the legal or societal agreement that our culture might define. Marriage brings us countless blessings but is met with many obstacles. Busy schedules, the challenges of parenthood, the strains of finances, mortgages, issues of health, and aging – all of these tests the bonds of even the finest unions.

Sunday, February 9th, 2025 - Respect Life Corner

“Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together.”

USCCB, Married Love and the Gift of Life

Marriage Prayer for Maintaining Vows

Dear Heavenly Father,

Grant us the strength to hold fast to our vows.

When we got married we promised to love, honor, and cherish each other as long as we both shall live.

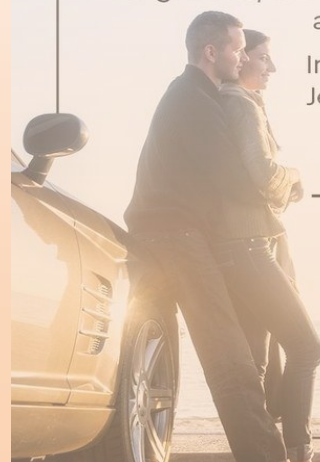

And so we ask that you teach us to love the way that we should, with patience and kindness, forgiveness and grace. Show us the best way to bestow honor one another. Open our hearts to fully cherish each other, and open our eyes to see the blessings we have.

Finally, Lord, may we never take these vows for granted, but rather fulfill them with honor and strength.

In the name of Jesus we pray.

Amen.

Women's Day

Quote for the week: *What's meant to be will always find its way.

Fifth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we reflect on Luke's gospel's marvelous call of Peter. Jesus preaches from Peter's boat, invites Peter out into "deeper water" and shows him his power to catch fish. When Peter recoils in fear, Jesus calls him to gather people with Jesus' same power.

For the next two weeks, our first reading on the weekdays will be the from the Book of Genesis. This week begins with the stirring story of creation, one that will be repeated at the Easter Vigil.

Mark's Gospel continues with stories of Jesus' healing and of his challenging and being challenged by the religious authorities. "People immediately recognized him. They scurried about the surrounding country and began to bring in the sick on mats." The Pharisees and scribes question Jesus asking, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?" A frustrated Jesus responds, "You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." Jesus challenges the people to disregard rules about being defiled by food but to avoid the evil desires and deeds that defile their hearts. Traveling north into pagan territory, Jesus visits a woman whose daughter has an unclean spirit. Jesus heals her because the mother believes in him. On his way back, Jesus heals a man, allowing him to hear and speak again. Jesus feeds 4,000 people for whom he is moved with pity.

On the Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time we hear Luke's account of the Beatitudes and warnings, as Jesus proclaims the blessings he offers us and the warnings he gives us. It all is about accepting discipleship now versus choosing our own way now.

Daily Prayer This Week

Every week we are trying to find intimacy with our Lord in the midst of our everyday life. We use the stories about Jesus in the readings of the week to help us - because our days are so busy - make connections between what we are experiencing and God's Word to us and the desires that are coming to the surface in us. This week we can let various parts of this week's rich scripture readings touch us, depending on what is going on in us. It all begins with our beginning the day, establishing a connection. With the briefest of rising prayers, we can talk with our Lord about what we anticipate needing that day.

One day I might know that, with what I have to face that day, I need to ask that the healing Jesus be with me. I might be able to name what needs healing. "Lord, you know the fear that is developing in me as I face this meeting today." "Lord, take this anger away from my heart." "Most loving Lord, have mercy on me and heal this pattern that plagues me and takes away my happiness, my freedom, my ability to love."

On another day, I may know that I'm right in the middle of the struggle over my disregarding what God really wants me to do, using legalistic excuses to avoid God's will. I might beg, "Lord, I've become such a hypocrite. Purify my heart so I can see as you see, judge as you judge and love as you love. Help me be truly religious, truly compassionate, truly your disciple today."

On other days, I might be in a "foreign" territory, or at least one that seems quite a distance from believing territory. I might ask, "Dear Lord, keep me safe here. Give me courage here. Help me find intimacy with you here. And let me see the faith of so many of your people here."

Some day this week, let's imagine how Jesus has pity on our hunger and feeds us. And every night this week, let's express our gratitude for receiving what we asked for in faith, from the One who is waiting to give us what we need.

St. Mary School Catholic Schools Week: A Celebration of Faith, Fun, and Friendship!

Catholic Schools Week at St. Mary School was a whirlwind of joy, faith, and community spirit! From bouncing high on inflatables to showcasing talents and even leaving a lasting mark on the school grounds, the week was packed with unforgettable moments.

The excitement kicked off with giant bouncy houses, where students raced up ladders and zoomed down slides, filling the room with laughter. Even teachers joined in on the fun, making it a fantastic start to the celebration. The fun continued with a special treat—delicious cookies provided by Jack Graham. His generosity brought smiles to everyone's faces, making the week even sweeter!

One of the highlights of the week was the "Turn Up the Talent" show. The gym transformed into a grand stage where students showcased their talents through singing, dancing, and comedy skits. From a Michael Jackson-inspired performance to a hilarious skit featuring "elderly" characters, every act brought joy to the audience. A student in cowboy boots and a blue dress captivated everyone with her singing, proving that St. Mary is full of talent! In the midst of the fun, students took time to reflect on their faith. Bennet and Griffin led a discussion on the parable of the mustard seed, reminding everyone that even the smallest acts of faith can grow into something amazing. Their inspiring words encouraged students to trust in God's plan and the strength of their community. Another powerful moment was the Living Rosary for Vocations, where students gathered in prayer, forming a human rosary to ask for God's guidance in the lives of those called to serve. It was a beautiful and moving experience that united the school in faith and purpose.

The week also included some friendly competition with the Knights of Columbus Free Throw Contest. Students took their best shots, aiming for victory and enjoying the thrill of the game. Cheers and encouragement filled the gym as classmates rooted for one another, showing great sportsmanship and school spirit.

A particularly special moment was when students and teachers left their handprints in wet concrete, creating a permanent reminder of their time at St. Mary. Dressed in St. Mary Red, they pressed their hands into the fresh cement, knowing that their mark would remain for years to come. Even the younger students participated, with teachers guiding them in this meaningful action for the future.

As the week came to an end, everyone reflected on the joy, faith, and friendships that made Catholic Schools Week so special. From bouncing and performing to praying, competing, and leaving their mark, it was a beautiful reminder that St. Mary School is more than just a school—it's a family filled with love, faith, and unforgettable memories.

JOIN MARY'S MERRY QUILTERS

MONDAY, ST. LAWRENCE PARISH - 9:00 A.M.

In the tapestry of life, it's the threads of love, faith, and fellowship that make the most beautiful patterns. We hope you'll consider weaving your unique thread into our quilting group. Whether you come for the quilting, the community, or both, know that a warm welcome awaits you. Contact Sally Tiemann, or visit us at St. Lawrence.

Dear saint and glorious martyr, teach us how to love unselfishly and to find great joy in giving. Enable all true lovers to bring out the best in each other in God and in God in each other. "Love is patient and kind, it doesn't envy or boast and it's never proud, love is not rude or selfish, it doesn't get angry easily or keep track of wrongs. Love doesn't delight in bad things but it rejoices in the truth. Love always protects, trusts, hopes, and perseveres. Love never fails."

National Marriage Week

Feb 7-14, 2025

Marriage: Source of Hope, Spring of Renewal.
Pursue a Lasting Love!

O God, who in creating the human race willed that man and wife should be one, keep, we pray, in a bond of inseparable love those who are united in the covenant of Marriage, so that, as you make their love fruitful, they may become, by your grace, witnesses to charity itself. Through Christ our Lord Amen.
