Fr. Steve Patler

This year, more than any other I can remember, social media has been alive with strong messages about the current political environment. It seems that every time I scroll through a page or read a comment, I find people speaking not with the kindness of Christ, but with words that wound. What troubles me the most is that, in many cases, those same people also share beautiful images of Jesus, quotes from Scripture, and prayers for peace.

I can't help but ask: How can we serve both cruelty and the goodness found in God?

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a clear challenge:

"Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you."

(Luke 6:27-28)

He doesn't say, "Love those who agree with you." He doesn't say,

"Bless those who think like you." He simply says, love.

The Challenge of Our Time

We live in a world that encourages division. It tells us to pick a side, draw a line, and fight. This year, more than ever, I have seen Christians—people who love Christ—fall into this trap. Instead of thoughtful conversation, we see insults. Instead of patience, we see outrage. Instead of love, we see condemnation.

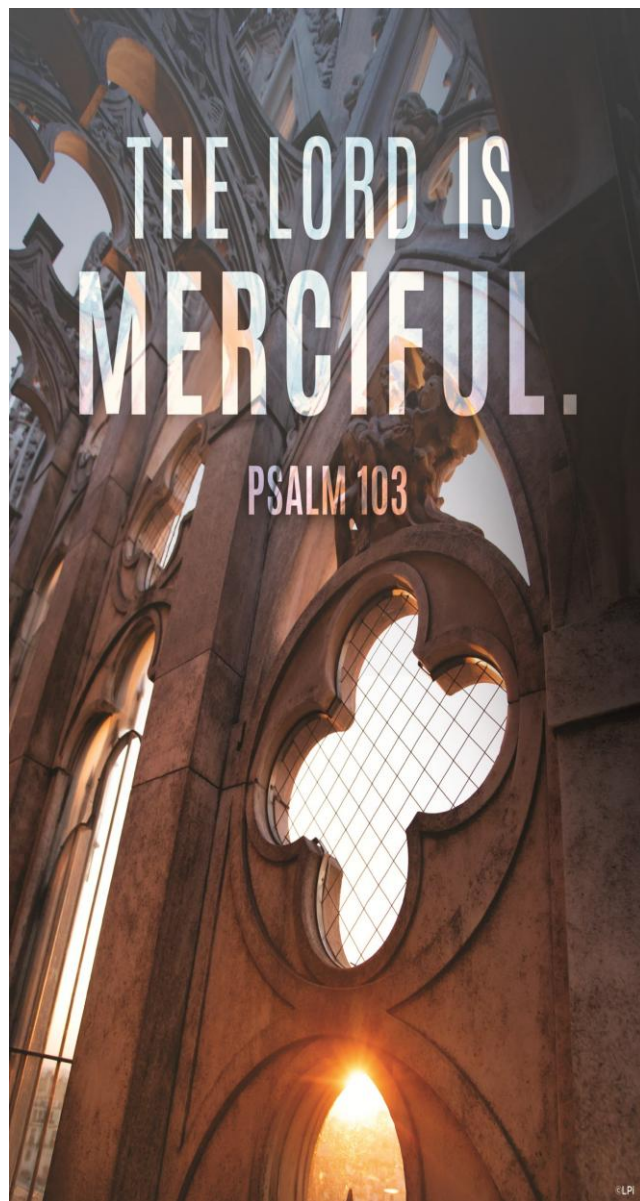

Most disturbingly, I have seen cruel words spoken about Pope Francis, particularly regarding his letter on immigration. Some used it as an opportunity to attack not only him but the Church itself. It makes me wonder: Has society allowed us to abandon God, His people, and His passion for other reasons?

When Jesus stood before Pilate, he did not shout or retaliate. He did not tear others down. He stood in truth. He stood in love. And He forgave.

A Time for Reflection

As we enter this season, let us take time to evaluate who we are as followers of Christ.

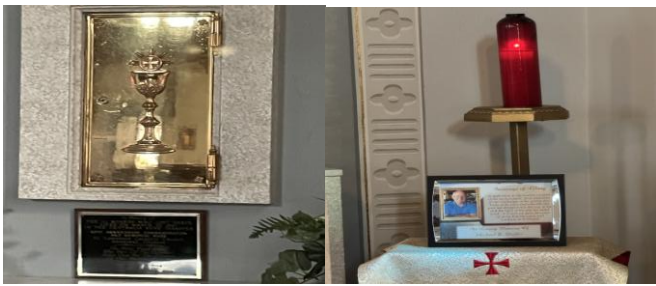

- Do we reflect Jesus in our words?
- Do we use our voice to build up or to tear down?
- Do we allow political anger to override our Christian love?
- Jesus reminds us today: "The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." (Luke 6:38)
- If we wish to receive mercy, we must show mercy. If we desire love, we must give love. If we long for a better world, we must be the ones who live out the Gospel—not just in church, but in every conversation, post, and interaction.
- May we be people of light, people of love, and people of truth. Not just in words, but in action.

Quote for the week: If you want to lift yourself, lift up someone else.

Seventh Week of Ordinary Time

This Sunday, the Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time, we hear Luke's account of the difference discipleship means in the real lives of Jesus' followers: loving your enemies, turning the other cheek, doing to others what we'd want them to do for us, being merciful as our Father is merciful, forgiving as we wish to be forgiven, measuring out our generosity as we would wish to receive it.

The first reading this week will be from the Book of Sirach. We are served some basic Wisdom about life..

We continue reading from Mark's gospel. Jesus heals a deaf and mute son of a man who humbly says "help my unbelief." Along the way to Jerusalem, the disciples miss Jesus' prediction of his passion and are arguing about who is the greatest. He tells us we must be servants of one another. Jesus doesn't reject good works from another - for anyone "who is not against us is for us." Jesus promises the rewards of discipleship but warns about anyone who scandalizes the innocent. When the Pharisees approach Jesus to trap him in a question about marriage, Jesus defends marriage. And, when they bring little children to Jesus, he welcomes the little children as he has welcomed all who are vulnerable.

For the Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus talks about removing the log in our own eyes before worrying about the splinter in another's eye. He reminds us the common sense reality that "a good tree does not bear bad fruit."

Daily Prayer This Week

We may feel like we never have enough. Enough money, time, love, status or anything else that seems to be the focus of our lives. We live lives that are packed with activities, meetings and obligations - keeping our hearts distracted away from our relationship with God, from our families and from others in our lives who need our love.

This week we have the treasures of the Book of Sirach to contemplate. Each day we can learn something about trusting in God, about learning discipline and where true happiness lies. We learn how God works with us and how we learn the ways of the Lord. There is even practical wisdom about friendship.

From the gospels this week, we have much fruit for our contemplation, for we see Jesus instructing his disciples about service about trusting God's working in others. We are warned about giving scandal. And, we see Jesus' unwillingness to be compromised by trick questions, and the way he speaks about marriage. Finally, we see his reverence for children. We can all draw much fruit from listening to him this week.

And every morning, we can begin by sitting at the side of our beds with our hands open on our laps, asking God to help us receive these gifts with open hearts. We can carry that focus with us throughout the day, remembering in the quiet moments what we are asking for. Always, we end our day simply thanking God for the love and gifts of the day.

St. Mary School's Daddy-Daughter Dance: A Night of Love, Laughter, and Luau Fun!

This year's Saint Valentine's Day Daddy- Daughter Dance at St. Mary School was a night to remember! With a Hawaiian luau theme, the gymnasium was transformed into a tropical par-adise, filled with bright floral decorations, festive music, and unforgettable memories.

Dads and their daughters arrived in style, dressed in their best island-inspired outfits. The girls looked absolutely adorable in colorful floral dresses and hula skirts, while their dads sported vibrant Hawaiian shirts and leis, bringing the tropical spirit to life. Everywhere you turned, there were smiling faces, twirling dresses, and the sweet sound of laughter filling the air.

One of the most heartwarming moments of the evening was seeing the special bond between dads and their little girls. Whether they were dancing hand in hand, posing for photos under the tiki hut, or sharing a sweet treat at the beautifully decorated tables, the love and joy were unmistakable. The highlight of the night? Watching the dads line up for a fun and friendly contest, showcasing their best dance moves while their daughters cheered them on!

A huge thank you goes out to all the organizers, volunteers, and families who made this night so magical. The Saint Valentine's Daddy- Daughter Dance was not just about dancing—it was about celebrating love, family, and the precious moments that will be cherished for years to come.

As the evening came to a close, dads and daughters shared one last slow dance, creating a truly heartfelt and unforgettable moment. It was clear that this event wasn't just about the music or decorations—it was about the love be-tween fathers and daughters, the laughter shared, and the memories made. The night served as a beautiful reminder of the special bond they share, one filled with love, support, and lifelong connection.
