As I sit down to write this column, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, has spent his tenth night in the Gemelli Hospital in Rome where he is being treated for bronchitis and double pneumonia. Since he entered the hospital over a week ago, I have been closely following the news and praying for the Lord to restore Pope Francis to health. I certainly encourage all of our readers to join me in asking the Lord to watch over, bless, protect and heal our Holy Father.

Ever since the College of Cardinals elected Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio of Buenos Aires as Pope twelve years ago, Pope Francis has encouraged many people, Catholics and others, to discover the joy of the gospel. Whether greeting the crowds at his Wednesday General Audience in Rome or his encounters with students, the elderly or the incarcerated during his pastoral visits across the globe, Pope Francis has encouraged us to encounter the Lord in the scriptures and the Holy Eucharist. Such encounters become rich sources of joy in our hearts because we are filled with the life and light of Christ, and therefore, experience the renewal of our own lives.

The joy that the gospel instills in us strengthens our hearts so that we can go to the people and places where Jesus wishes to be present through our presence. Again I think of Pope Francis traveling on Holy Thursday each year to a prison, a home for the elderly or troubled youth and celebrating the Eucharist with them. Moreover, Pope Francis would perform the traditional washing of the feet with a dozen of the residents. Images of Pope Francis washing the feet of inmates or the elderly on Holy Thursday has given us a reminder to follow the example of Christ who came not to be served but to serve.

The hospitalization of Pope Francis invites us to reflect on his life and ministry, thanking the Lord for his ministry as the Successor of St. Peter and asking the Lord to grant him peace and good health. Please join me in praying for Pope Francis and his intentions today and in the days ahead.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Bishop Michael McGovern

Respect Life Corner

The Gospel of Life is “meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to each and every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life, every human life! Only in this direction will you find justice, development, true freedom, peace and happiness!” (The Gospel of Life 5).

March 2025 Vocation Corners

March 2:

I grew up in Kerala, India, where my Syro-Malabar Catholic family planted faith in my heart at a young age. Ever since I can remember, we prioritized family prayer and the rosary, as well as going to daily Mass and weekly charismatic prayer meetings. My faith continued to grow after my family moved to Houston, and later when I went to college. It was during a silent retreat in college that I received my call from Jesus to become his bride. That night changed everything. I no longer wanted to belong to the world; I longed to be with him who gave peace and joy to my heart. After a few years of discernment, I came to know the Disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ and was attracted to the community's charisms of prayer, praise and evangelization, and its love for the cross. To anyone discerning...my advice is to give your whole life to Jesus. He is worth it all.

Quote for the week: Having a soft heart in a cruel world is courage, not weakness.

The Eighth Week of Ordinary Time and the First Four Days of Lent

For the Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus talks about removing the log in our own eyes before worrying about the splinter in another's eye. He reminds us the common sense reality that "a good tree does not bear bad fruit."

On Monday, we hear Jesus adding to the depth of the Ten Commandments and describing how difficult it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. On Tuesday, Jesus talks about the rewards for those who have "given up everything" to follow him.

Beginning of Lent

The Season of Lent begins with four days that serve as an introduction to the four Lenten practices of Prayer, Fasting, Repentance and Almsgiving.

Ash Wednesday is a day of fasting and abstinence. We wear ashes on our foreheads to remember who we are and express our desire to turn away from sin and to believe the Good News. The Prophet Joel helps us begin our journey: "return to me with your whole heart." "Rend your hearts, not your garments," reminds us that this is an interior journey. The Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 51, has the antiphon: "Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned." Paul, in his First Letter to the Corinthians says, "be reconciled to God ... we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain ... Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." In Matthew's Gospel Jesus gives us a guide for our Lenten practices, "Take care not to perform righteous deeds in order that people may see them."

On Thursday we read in Deuteronomy how Moses urges his people to turn away from sin. "Choose life, then, that you and your descendants may live, by loving the LORD, your God, heeding his voice, and holding fast to him."

Friday and Saturday: It is the long tradition of Lent to prepare us for our journey by having us reflect on Isaiah, Chapter 58, as we begin. "This is the fasting that I wish" gives us the true picture of fasting: letting God's Spirit transform us. It is a call to conversion. Jesus confirms his desire to help us, "I have not come to call the righteous to repentance but sinners."

On the First Sunday of Lent, as we begin our Lenten journey, we recall in the reading from the book of Deuteronomy how God was faithful to Israel, leading them out of Egypt to a land of "milk and honey." Luke's gospel gives us the temptation of Jesus when he was "led by the Spirit" into the desert. Jesus resists the devil. "You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test."

Daily Prayer This Week

We may feel like we never have enough; enough money, time, love, status or anything else that seems to be the focus of our lives. We live lives that are packed with activities, meetings and obligations - keeping our hearts distracted away from our relationship with God, from our families and from others in our lives who need our love.

In these few days before Lent begins, we can begin to prepare our hearts by asking ourselves how we want Lent to be different this year. What do we want to ask the Lord to give us - and more importantly, we can ask what the Lord wants for us this Lent. What gift of generosity, love or attention can we share with others in the weeks ahead? How can we focus on the Lenten season and ask that our hearts be opened to what is real - not to the externals which distract us so much? How will I be with my family and friends this Lent? What will I do that sets this season apart from my normal routines? How can I name, anticipate and feel the gifts the Lord showers on me with such love in the weeks ahead? And every morning, we can begin by sitting at the side of our beds with our hands open on our laps, asking God to help us receive these gifts with open hearts. We can carry that focus with us throughout the day, remembering in the quiet moments what we are asking for. Always, we end our day simply thanking God for the love and gifts of the day.

For these first four days of Lent, it will be a great help to set aside some time, even if it means getting up earlier each morning, to read about what Lent can mean and to let that soak into our hearts. The key is not to be somber or severe in any way, but to know that this is a time of great grace so that we can be attentive to it. The first thing to remember is that these 40 days are a gift to us. We are not trying to save ourselves by our Lenten practices. God has already saved us. We are only trying to let God get our attention and to give grace a chance to work in us. These days are critically important for choosing to establish some Lenten patterns. Depending upon our age or health, we will want to do some fasting and abstinence, in regard to food. But, each of us can choose what else we can fast and abstain from during Lent. What practices of mine get in the way of my being open to hearing God's Word and responding freely? That's what needs transforming. Giving up needing to be right, fasting from my impatience, totally abstaining from escapist fantasies will open our hearts to God's grace. None of that takes extra time. It just takes desire. Adding new acts of kindness, gratitude and love each day for family and friends will open our hearts to the greater acts of charity and generosity for the poor.

Finally, Lent is the perfect time to choose to grow in gratitude. Every night, before going to bed, let us be faithful to giving thanks to the Lord who has given us so many blessings and offers us new graces each and every day.

Bishop Braxton wishes to share this announcement with friends and neighbors:

"SUFFERED UNDER PONTIUS PILATE" Lenten Reflections on the Gospel Accounts of the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ"

His Excellency
The Most Reverend Edward K. Braxton, Ph.D., S.T.D.

2:00 PM
Sunday, March 30, 2025
The Cathedral of St. Peter
(In the Blessed Sacrament Chapel)

During Advent on Sunday, November 17th, 2024, Bishop Braxton delivered an address in the Cathedral on the topic of eschatology (DOES EVERYBODY GO TO HEAVEN? A November Reflection on "the life of the World to Come"). This presentation was well-attended, followed by a fruitful dialogue about the Church's teachings on the meaning of Christian death and the hope for eternal life. Many of those in attendance asked the Bishop if he would consider offering another presentation sometime during Lent.

During Holy Week this year, we will hear the passion according to Luke on Palm Sunday, and, on Good Friday, we will hear, as always, the passion according to John.

St. Jerome, the great biblical scholar, stressed in his writings that "those who do not know the holy scriptures cannot truly know Jesus Christ."

Bishop Braxton will offer a lecture examining the very different accounts of the suffering and death of Jesus as found in the Gospel according to Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John.

He will examine the similarities and the differences between these Gospel texts and provide explanations for the reasons why they are different. He will examine some of the questions about the death of Jesus asked throughout the centuries. "In what way does meditation on the suffering of Jesus help Christians accept pain, sickness, and suffering in their personal lives?" "Why was Jesus's death necessary for the forgiveness of sins?" "Did 'God Himself' die in the Crucifixion, or did only the human Jesus die?" "Was it necessary for Jesus to die?" "Were the Jewish people responsible for the death of Jesus?" "Has the Gospel of John been used to defend antisemitism?" "Did Judas have a choice about betraying Jesus?" "Does the Church know with certainty where Jesus was buried?"

Catholic elementary and secondary school religion teachers, Catechists, Deacons, Deacon candidates (and their wives), Confirmation candidates and sponsors, and those preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation are encouraged to attend this lecture. ALL ARE WELCOME.

There will be an opportunity to ask questions after the Bishop's presentation.
