Deacon Dan Laquet

On the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert and temptation by the devil to the glory shown in Jesus' Transfiguration. On the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert. Likewise, on the second Sunday, we hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration. The report of Jesus' Transfiguration is found in each of the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. The context for Luke's Transfiguration story is like that found in both Matthew and Mark. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his Passion. After the prediction there is a discussion of the cost of discipleship in each of these Gospels. The placement of the Transfiguration story close to Peter's confession and Jesus' prediction encourages us to examine the Transfiguration in the larger context of the Paschal Mystery.

The Transfiguration occurs on a mountain in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples—Peter, James and John. These are among the first disciples that Jesus called in Luke's Gospel. Only Luke's Gospel, which often describes Jesus at prayer, indicates that Jesus is praying as his appearance changes to bright white. Luke indicates that the three disciples were sleeping while Jesus prayed. They will be sleeping again as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane before his Passion and death.

As they awake, Peter and the disciples see Jesus Transfigured and Elijah and Moses present with Jesus. Elijah and Moses, both significant figures in the history of Israel, represent Jesus' continuity with the Law and the Prophets. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospels, there is reference to conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel explains that this conversation is about Jesus' upcoming events in Jerusalem. Luke de-scribes this as his exodus, connecting Jesus' Passion, death, and Resurrection with Israel's Exodus from Egypt. We also notice that Peter reverted from his earlier confession that Jesus is the Messiah, by calling him "master" instead. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven speaks, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding that the disciples listen to him. This voice from heaven recalls the voice that was heard at Jesus' baptism which, in Luke's Gospel, spoke directly to Jesus as God's Son.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, the disciples keep secret what they have seen. Not until they also witness his Passion, death, and Resurrection, will the disciples understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death.

This week, how will you resist temptation and grow closer to God?

Respect Life Corner

"To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life... In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ" (The Gospel of Life 84).

Vocation Corners

March 16:

This week is the feast of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church. "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him." (Matt 1:24) "It was grace that moved Joseph to embrace his vocation as the guardian of Israel's Messiah. It's the same grace that empowers us to accept God's call and wisdom for our lives. Joseph's yes in faith changed the world. God also has a plan for your life. You don't know where your yes might lead and how God might use it. Ask Joseph to help. Then, like Joseph, go out in faith to be a "doer of the word" (James 1:2d2d)." (The Word Among Us)

Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit

at St. Mary Parish-Mt. Carmel

Sat., March 22 7 Sun., March 23rd

St. Mary-Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish in Mt. Carmel is hosting The Eucharistic Miracles Exhibit that was initiated by soon to be St. Carlos Acutis, a 16-year-old millennial blessed. It consists of over 150 Eucharistic miracles approved by the Church that had been simply explained and shared with the world by Blessed Carlos Acutis. Using photographs and historical descriptions, the exhibition presents a magnificent display depicting the full approved exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles recorded throughout the ages. Affirming the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Enjoy a self-guided tour of these miracles and reflect upon how we reverently receive Jesus in the Eucharist today.

This will be held during the day in the St. Mary School gymnasium Sat., March 22nd and Sun., March 23rd with Eucharistic Adoration available in the church on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. All faiths are welcome. There is no cost. And with Kid activity pages are available at the entrance of the exhibit to aid in engagement, this is for families and all ages! Praying for you and hoping to see you there!

Quote for the week: Life has no remote, get up and change it yourself.

Second Week of Lent

For the Second Sunday of Lent we read of how God made a covenant with Abraham. In Luke's gospel we witness how Jesus showed his disciples his glory, to prepare them for what is to come. A voice from a cloud said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." All we need to do for the journey ahead is to listen to him.

Each day the first reading is chosen to prepare for the gospel and the theme of both readings is complementary.

Wednesday is the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The second week begins with Jesus telling us: "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. ... For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." All week we will be taught by Jesus about the simple lessons of being his followers. "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Jesus predicts his passion again. Again, they misunderstand, and so he says, "whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant." Jesus tells the Pharisees a parable about a poor man and a rich man. The rich man asks Abraham to warn his brothers about the consequences of this behavior. Abraham answers: "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Then Jesus tells the scribes and religious leaders the parable about the farmer whose servants were abused by his tenants. Finally, they killed his own son. Jesus concludes, "the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit." While tax collectors and sinners are being drawn to Jesus the Pharisees complain, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So Jesus tells them the wonderful parable of the Prodigal Son.

Third Sunday of Lent offers Moses' encounter with God in the burning bush. The Lord promises Moses that he will lead the captive Israelites out of Egypt and into "a land flowing with milk and honey." Luke's Gospel tells us of Jesus' warning that we must be willing to repent now and that our lives could end by accident or through the evil of someone else. The parable of the barren fig tree reminds us of God's patient love for us, even when we show no signs of changing our lives. In most parishes, there will be one Liturgy for the RCIA candidates, using the Gospel of the Woman at the Well.

Daily Prayer This Week

During this second week of Lent we continue to try to make use of more reflective time each day. We are using all the resources available to us to practice new habits and patterns. We are still in the beginning stages of that process, so we shouldn't be discouraged if it takes more practice.

It is good to begin by being reminded that God is rich in mercy to us and that we should therefore be merciful to others. It is great to remember that exalting ourselves is dangerous and that there will be consequences for our mistreatment of the poor. We are like tenants of our Father's gifts to us. We can ask ourselves if we use them gratefully and return the fruits that our Lord desires, or do we reject the prophetic words that come to us? Do we reject Jesus himself?

This can all be part of the background of our busy, daily life. Each morning, when our feet hit the floor, if only for a few moments, we can ask for a simple grace. At first, it might only be, "Dear Lord, help me today." As we brush our teeth, wash and get dressed we might specify our prayer more: "Dear Lord, give me the grace to recognize my impatience, anger and judgment today. Help to soften my heart to hear your love. I need your healing, Lord." Or we might get even more concrete, "Lord, Pat is such a struggle for me. Help me to remember how much you love me when I see Pat today. And, when I'm tempted to be impatient or angry, just help me pause and give that over to you, in gratitude for your love."

Each of us will be able to grow in our ability to have brief conversations with our Lord. Whether driving or shopping, doing laundry or paying bills, working in our office or walking down the hall to the bathroom, we can use brief "background" moments to connect with our Lord. These moments of "contemplation in action" will give a character and shape to our day. Lent becomes a living reality for us when our days are spent with the Lord, listening to his love for us, calling us to gratitude and freedom.

Called to the Table of the Lord: Our Catechumens and Candidates Prepare for Easter.

On Sunday, March 9, 2025, our catechumens and candidates for full membership in the Catholic Church participated in a beautiful and sacred milestone—the Rite of Election, celebrated by Bishop Michael McGovern. Joined by catechumens and candidates from across the diocese, they were officially welcomed as they continue their journey toward receiving the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday.

The Rite of Election marks a significant moment in the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA), the process through which individuals prepare to enter the Catholic Church. Catechumens—those who have not yet been baptized—now bear the title “Elect,” signifying their final period of preparation before receiving Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. Candidates—those already baptized in another Christian tradition or as Catholics who have not yet received all the Sacraments of Initiation—continue their formation as they prepare to be fully received into the Church.

Accompanied by members of our OCIA team, our parish’s candidates, Randy Buza, Linda Lutz, and Tara Timmons, embraced this step with great joy and faith.

Following the ceremony, they enjoyed a meal and time of fellowship, reflecting on this important milestone with gratitude and anticipation.

As we approach Easter, let us keep Randy, Linda, and Tara in our prayers, supporting them as they prepare to fully enter the life of the Church. May their journey of faith be filled with grace, strength, and the joy of Christ!

Here are some fun and little-known trivia questions about St. Patrick to challenge even the biggest fans of the patron saint of Ireland!

1 What was St. Patrick’s real name?

- A. Padraig O’Connell
- B. Maewyn Succat
- C. Patrick McDonagh
- D. Sean O’Reilly

(Answer: B. Maewyn Succat—He only became “Patrick” later in life!)

2 Where was St. Patrick actually born?

- A. Dublin, Ireland
- B. Rome, Italy
- C. Wales or Scotland
- D. Paris, France

(Answer: C. Wales or Scotland—He was not born in Ireland but was kidnapped and brought there as a slave.)

3 What animal is often wrongly associated with St. Patrick?

- A. Foxes
- B. Wolves
- C. Snakes
- D. Crows

(Answer: C. Snakes—There’s no historical evidence that snakes ever lived in Ireland! The story is likely symbolic of driving out pagan practices.)

4 What color was originally associated with St. Patrick?

- A. Green
- B. Blue
- C. Gold
- D. Red

(Answer: B. Blue—The shade known as “St. Patrick’s Blue” was used in early Irish history before green became popular.)
