27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." - Lk 17:5-6

Los apóstoles dijeron al Señor: "Auméntanos la fe". El Señor les contestó: "Si tuviera fe, aunque fuera tan pequeña como una semilla de mostaza, podrían decir a ese árbol frondoso: 'Arráncate de raíz y plántate en el mar', y los obedecería". - Lc 17, 5-6

Saint Bruno of Cologne
October 6

Bruno, born in 1030, is also known as Saint Bruno the Carthusian for the monastic order he founded. He studied in Reims and was ordained in Cologne in 1055. In 1057 he went back to Reims to lead the school, a post he kept for almost 20 years. He was made chancellor of the church of Reims in 1075 but left soon after in protest of the behavior of new bishop Manasses de Gournai who was finally deposed in 1080. Bruno refused the nomination to replace de Gournai as it was his intention to retire to live in solitude and prayer. He had a vision in a dream to go with Bishop (later Saint) Hugh of Grenoble. Bruno, Hugh, and five other religious settled at Chartreuse and founded the Carthusian order in 1084.

This first period of monastic life was not to last long. Bruno was called to help Urban II, a former student of his, against the antipope Guibert of Ravenna and the hostile Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV. While working with Urban II, he rejected another offer to become bishop, this time of Calabria. Eventually Bruno was allowed to return to monastic life. Count Roger of Sicily and Calabria befriend Bruno and the monks of his order, granting them the land where they founded St. Mary's at La Torre. The order was known for its strict asceticism, poverty, and prayer and its unique organization combining the life of the hermit with that of the collective life of traditional monks.

Saint Bruno wrote several commentaries on the psalms and on St. Paul's epistles. He died on October 6, 1101, and was never formally canonized because his order renounces all public honors. However, Pope Leo X gave permission for Carthusians to celebrate his feast in 1514 and his name was added to the Roman calendar in 1623.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Why does God allow evil and suffering to occur? Looking around at what is happening in the world, it is tempting to get angry with God for not actively intervening. Jesus walked among the suffering and evil of his day. While he healed some things, he simply sat with the sinner, challenged the leaders, and spoke against injustice. Jesus spoke of God's kingdom and his vision for humanity. But he made it very clear that it is our responsibility to realize this vision. The disciples saw how Jesus lived and dealt with the day's circumstances. They wanted that same faith and determination. They wanted his fortitude and courage. Mostly, they wanted Jesus' confidence and patience that God's vision would someday be fulfilled. In the meantime, waiting in joyful hope, we become servants who do what is necessary: love, repent of our sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. Willingly giving witness to our faith, we expect nothing in return.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

¿Por qué Dios permite que ocurra el mal y el sufrimiento? Viendo lo que está pasando a nuestro alrededor en el mundo, es tentador enojarse con Dios por no intervenir activamente. Jesús caminó entre el sufrimiento y la maldad de su época. Aunque sanó algunas cosas, simplemente se sentó con el pecador, desafió a los líderes y habló en contra de la injusticia. Jesús habló del reino de Dios y su visión para la humanidad. Pero dejó muy claro que es nuestra responsabilidad hacer realidad esta visión. Los discípulos vieron cómo Jesús vivía y lidiaba con las circunstancias del día. Querían esa misma fe y determinación. Querían su fortaleza y valentía. Mayormente, querían la confianza y la paciencia de Jesús de que la visión de Dios algún día se cumpliría. Mientras tanto, esperando con gozosa esperanza, nos convertimos en servidores que hacen lo necesario: amar, arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados, mostrar misericordia, ser compasivos y luchar contra la injusticia. Al dar testimonio de nuestra fe de buena gana, no esperamos nada a cambio.
