Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Do you ever feel restless? I certainly do. Daily tasks and challenges, but also the more basic demand of simply existing — sooner or later, this can all feel crushing and tire us out.

Which is why Jesus' words are such stunningly good news: "Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). How vastly weird that this man speaks as though he is capable of giving us the deep repose we desire. Is his claim the height of absurd grandiosity? No, because next he immediately proclaims that he is "meek and humble of heart." We here touch a mystery: Jesus is capable of giving us rest because he is the one who forever reposes in the heart of God the Father. He is "yoked" to the Father in his divinity. But he is humbly "yoked" to us, sharing in our humanity.

The good news, my fellow tired-out friends: we don't have to despair in our burdens and exhaustion, no matter how heavy they feel. This week, join me in opening our hearts to hear him say to us, "Come! I will give you rest." We come to him in the Church, Eucharist, the Scriptures, prayer, in the poor. There he will give us rest.

— Father John Muir

Gifts from Fr. Nick

Greetings to all of you this graced weekend. We continue our prayers for all of you especially in your travels if you're going anywhere this summer. We also welcome you to our parish if you happened to find us in a "Google search" browsing the internet!

I write this column in gratitude first of all, and I also am asking for help. I am so grateful to you who, day after day, make conscious decisions to help your church. Even if you think you're gift is small, it is actually quite significant in God's eyes and also doesn't escape my attention either. My plea to you is for more help. Our cleaning lady has recently come upon some health issues (nothing terribly serious, but please pray for her) that will prevent her from cleaning here at the church for at least six weeks. I am looking for volunteers to help clean our church every week that she is out. Please call us at the office if you're able to help on one of the weekdays in preparation for the weekend Masses. Thank you so much for your consideration of our parish! God bless your charity in all ways

Regalos del padre Nick

Saludos a todos ustedes este bendecido fin de semana. Continuamos nuestras oraciones por todos ustedes, especialmente en sus viajes si van a algún lado este verano. ¡También le damos la bienvenida a nuestra parroquia si nos encontró en una "búsqueda de Google" navegando por Internet!

Escribo esta columna en agradecimiento en primer lugar, y también estoy pidiendo ayuda. Estoy muy agradecido con ustedes que, día tras día, toman decisiones conscientes para ayudar a su iglesia.

Incluso si crees que tu regalo es pequeño, en realidad es bastante significativo a los ojos de Dios y tampoco escapa a mi atención. Mi súplica a usted es para más ayuda. Nuestra señora de la limpieza se ha encontrado recientemente con algunos problemas de salud (nada grave, pero oren por ella) que le impedirán limpiar aquí en la iglesia durante al menos seis semanas. Estoy buscando voluntarios para ayudar a limpiar nuestra iglesia cada semana que ella está fuera. Llámenos a la oficina si puede ayudar en uno de los días de semana en preparación para las Misas del fin de semana. ¡Muchas gracias por su consideración de nuestra parroquia! Dios bendiga tu caridad en todos los sentidos.
