We are currently seeking donations to be used for the Silent Auction. Please consider supporting our local restaurants and retail stores by purchasing a gift card to be auctioned off at the Fair. We also accept any new merchandise as well as tickets to sporting events or services from you or local businesses.

If you own your own business, our event website offers a chance to donate something from your business and advertise your business at the same time. Last year our website got over 8,800 page views during the weeklong Silent Auction.

If you have a vacation home, we can work with you to create a vacation experience for a lucky Parishioner. We would greatly appreciate any donation you can make. The success of this year's Silent Auction depends on generous donations from Parishioners and local businesses. Gift cards and merchandise can be dropped off at the Church Rectory (83 Central Street). Contact Tina Belanger at tbelanger@earthlink.net with any questions.

Our Homemade Treasures table is looking for donated handmade items. If you make handmade items for your friends and family, please consider making a few extra to help support the Christmas Fair. If you would like to donate your handmade treasures, please contact Donna Slater at mds15@comcast.net

We are now collecting new household items and gently used jewelry and religious items (please no mailers received from religious organizations or calendars) for our Fair. Please note we can only accept new household items and new small appliances in their original box. Please consider regifting household items that you have bought or received but never used to help support our Christmas Fair. There is a box near the door of the Murphy room labeled "Christmas Fair Donations" to drop off these items. Please contact Lucy Sabin at lmcsabin@gmail.com for questions about household items.

Thank you for your help in making our Christmas Fair a success!

SAINT OF THE MONTH

BLESSED PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI (1901-1925)

A 20th-century Apostle of Christ

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati has been described as an ordinary young man with an extraordinary faith. However, his biographies depict the avid mountain-climber, athlete and socially active youth as one of those extraordinary people whose passionate love of life attracts and inspires others. The love of God was the force that magnified these charismatic qualities in Pier Giorgio. In the words of St. John Paul II: “Faith and charity ... transformed him into a joyful, enthusiastic apostle of Christ, a passionate follower of his message and charity.”

Pier Giorgio, who was born in Turin, Italy, in 1901, expressed concern for the poor from an early age. When he graduated from his schooling, he chose a gift of money instead of a car so he could give the money to the poor. He became a mining engineer “to serve Christ better among the miners.”

He continued helping the poor, often giving his coats to the homeless and buying clothing at pawn shops to return to families forced to pawn it. His compassion grew as his love for God deepened – nourished by prayer, studying

Scripture and the writings of St. Catherine of Siena, and especially by attending daily Mass. As he once said: “Jesus pays me a visit every morning in holy Communion, and I return the visit in the meager way I know how, visiting the poor.”

Pier Giorgio believed helping the poor required social reform based on the Church’s social teaching. He became a social and political activist, and joined Catholic Student organizations. He helped to organize the first convention of Pax Romana in 1921, an association whose goal was to unite Catholic students around the world to work for peace. His passion and sincerity inspired other young people to join him in promoting reform and opposing Fascism.

Pier Giorgio died on July 4, 1925, after contracting polio in June. His final act was scribbling a note to a friend to ensure that medicine would be taken to someone he had been helping. Thousands of the poor of Turin lined the streets to mourn him, and petitioned for his canonization in 1932, just seven years after his death.

In 1989, Pope John Paul II visited his tomb in Italy and said: “I wanted to pay homage to a young man who was able to witness to Christ with singular effectiveness in this century of ours.” Pier Giorgio was beatified in St. Peter’s Square in Rome in 1990.
