

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet,' and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" (Rom 13:8-9)

Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.

Philippians 2:6-8

SEPTEMBER 11TH

Today, we remember all those who lost their lives in the 2001 attacks. We pray for the victims and their families.

When we have to reply to anyone who has insulted us, we should be careful to do it always with gentleness. A soft answer extinguishes the fire of wrath.

Bible Study Starting September 18

Join us for our Fall 2023 Bible Study from Bishop Robert Barron's Word on Fire titled Priest, Prophet, King. The better we understand Jesus, the better we understand ourselves. But who was Jesus, this itinerant preacher whom many called the Messiah? In Priest, Prophet, King, you'll discover Jesus as the Anointed One – the ultimate priest, prophet, and king foreshadowed throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. Using biblical insights and engaging stories, Bishop Barron affirms that we see Jesus most clearly through the lens of the Old Testament.

Dates: September 18, 25 October 2, 16, 23, 30

Time: Mondays, 10 am - 12 noon (Please contact us if you are interested in starting an evening or weekend bible study group)

Workbooks have been ordered but we have a few at the Rectory. Cost of the workbook is $25.

Men's Weekend November 30 - December 3, 2023

Please Join Us
St. Mary's Christmas Fair
Saturday, Nov. 4 from 10 - 4
Sunday, Nov. 5 from 7:30 – noon

This year's Fair will feature the popular Theme Basket Raffle, a Sweet Treats table packed with delicious homemade goodies made by our Parishioners and an online Silent Auction which will begin on October 28 and end on November 4. Our Handmade Treasures table will feature lots of handmade items made by our talented Parishioners. Our Gifts & More section as well as the Jewelry Boutique are great places to find inexpensive new or "like new" items. Our Raffle Festival will feature a $500 cash prize, a Lottery Tree prize, and a Dining Out Package generously sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

On Saturday we will also feature our famous café for snacks and lunch and a special visit from Santa for pictures. Children will also be able to decorate cookies and make small crafts in our "Kid's Room"

To make our Fair a success, we are seeking donations for the Silent Auction. Please consider supporting our local restaurants and retail stores by purchasing a gift card to be auctioned off at the Fair. We also accept any new merchandise as well as tickets to sporting events or services from you or local businesses. We would greatly appreciate any donation you can make. Gift cards and merchandise can be dropped off at the Church Rectory (83 Central Street) or email Tina Belanger at tbelanger@earthlink.net to arrange a pick-up. For more information, please contact the Silent Auction Chair, Tina Belanger at tbelanger@earthlink.net.

We are now collecting new household items and gently used jewelry and religious items (please no mailers received from religious organizations or calendars) for our Fair. Please note we can only accept new household items and new small appliances in their original box. Please consider regifting household items that you have bought or received but never used to help support our Christmas Fair. There is a box near the door of the Murphy room labeled "Christmas Fair Donations" to drop off these items. Please contact Lucy Sabin at lmcsabin@gmail.com for questions about household items.

Theme Baskets signups will be the weekend of September 30 after all masses. We have many ideas for themes, or you can choose your own. All ideas are welcome! Please contact Margaret Woods at woods_bob@msn.com if you are not available during the signup weekend and would like to donate a Theme Basket.

Calling all Crafters! Our Homemade Treasure table would love some additional donated "Homemade Treasures". Please contact Donna Slater at mds15@comcast.net if you have some treasures to donate.

Our Sweet Treats table is one of the most popular tables at the Fair. Pies, cakes, cookies, and breads are always very popular items. Many baked goods can be frozen so you can bake ahead and then drop off the Friday before the Fair. Jams and jellies are also a favorite and keep us in mind as you jar your summer harvest. Please consider sharing your favorite recipes with the parishioners of the Parish. You may also support local bakeries and donate their baked goods to support their business in addition to the Fair. Candy and other treats are also accepted. Donations can be dropped off the Friday before the Fair from 3-5 or first thing Saturday morning.

Please check out our website at <https://stmaryschristmasfair.weebly.com/> for the most up to date information regarding the Fair.

Please support our Parish and help make our annual Christmas Fair a success!

The Fatima Cell Hour of Holiness is an hourly meeting of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. The prayers include the Rosary, intercessory prayer and a spiritual reflection. All are welcome. Meetings are held every Thursday from 3:30 to 4:30 here at St Mary's. Also a second Cell meeting is held after the 9am Mass on Tuesdays.

Holy Souls Prayer Apostolate
