

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL PRIEST

"We should assist the poor in every way and do it both by ourselves and by enlisting the help of others.... To do this is to preach the gospel by words and work."

- Saint Vincent de Paul

Saint Vincent devoted his whole life to the service of the poor, like a Mother Teresa of the 17th century. He founded a congregation of priests for missionary work, groups of laymen to help paupers and galley-slaves, and, with St Louise de Marillac, the Sisters of Charity. He inspired the later foundation of the lay-run St Vincent de Paul Society. A man of deep faith, keen intellect, and enormous creativity, he has become known as the "The Apostle of Charity". Feast day: September 27th.

SAINT JEROME

PRIEST AND
DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Saint Jerome (ca. 347 – 420) is best known as the translator of the Bible from Greek and Hebrew into Latin. Jerome's edition, the Vulgate, is still an important biblical text of the Roman Catholic Church. He, as a scripture scholar, is represented as a cardinal, dressed in red.

According to legend, a lion limped into St. Jerome's monastery in Bethlehem one day. The other monks ran away in fear, but Jerome calmly looked at the lion's paw and removed a large thorn. Thereafter the lion became his companion.

Photo and notes: Fr. Lawrence Lew OP. Stained glass window is from St Mary's church, Henley-on-Thames, England.

Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels

FEAST DAY: SEPTEMBER 29

These archangels, messengers sent by God, are the only ones named in the Bible. In the Book of Daniel, Michael is called "the great prince"; in the Letter of Jude, he argues with the devil over Moses' body; and in the Book of Revelation, he leads the battle against Satan. He is patron of the sick, radiologists and mariners. Gabriel explains Daniel's visions to him in the Book of Daniel, and in the Gospel of Luke announces to Zechariah and Mary the births of their respective sons. He is the patron of messengers and telecommunications and postal workers. Raphael guides Tobiah in the Book of Tobit; he is patron of the blind, physicians and travelers. The church created their joint feast after the Second Vatican Council.

Catholic Ministries Serving Migrants and Refugees

The subject of immigration is politically divisive in our nation, and it has often been a point of contention throughout American history. Meanwhile, the Catholic Church has long been at the forefront of efforts to welcome immigrants to the United States and promote their successful integration. Recently, these realities have collided, producing a rise in hostility from a limited number of public officials, media outlets, and private organizations toward the longstanding migration-related ministries of the Church. This resource, while not comprehensive in nature or responsive to every aspect of the immigration debate, seeks to address some common misconceptions and questions regarding the Church's role in serving migrants and refugees, as well as the ways in which Catholic social teaching applies to these issues. It also discusses the work of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in this area.

Please visit <https://www.usccb.org/resources/migrationministries.pdf> for answers to some of your questions.

Sunday, Nov. 5 from 7:30 - noon

It's that time of year again! Yes St. Mary's Christmas Fair is only a few short weeks away, on November 4-5, 2023, with the online Silent Auction opening on October 28 through November 4. To ensure our Fair's success, we are seeking donations for the Silent Auction. We also accept any new merchandise as well as tickets to sporting events or services from you or local businesses. Any donation you can make, large or small, is greatly appreciated!

If you would like to support the Silent Auction but are not sure what to donate, we welcome monetary donations and hope to combine them to purchase popular items to be auctioned off (some examples might include a TV, a spa day, a weekend getaway, or tickets to a sporting event depending on the total amount contributed). Any monetary donation is greatly appreciated! Gift cards, merchandise or monetary donations (please label the envelope "Silent Auction") can be dropped off at the Church Rectory (83 Central Street) or email Silent Auction Committee Member Tina Belanger at tbelanger@earthlink.net to arrange a pick-up or for more information.
