St. Mary's Mission Statement

Saint Mary's Church is a Roman Catholic community of faith established in 1859 in Foxborough, Massachusetts within the Archdiocese of Boston. We are a parish committed to worshipping together, to publicly living, teaching and sharing our faith, and to working at becoming a community with a shared responsibility for meeting the challenge of being a Roman Catholic in a modern world.

Revelation – the Kingdom Yet to Come

by Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith

Unpack the Mysteries of Revelation

Join us for this new bible study

Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing eleven-session study program that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven. In this study, presenter Jeff Cavins pulls back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation. Discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times." Explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, his spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass.

This is a bible study in two sessions. The first session is 6 weeks long, Feb. 12, 19, 26, March 4, 11, 18.

The second session is 5 weeks long, September 3 (Tuesday), 9, 16, 23, 30.

Time: Mondays, 10 am - 12 noon (Please contact us if you are interested in starting an evening or weekend bible study group)

Venue: Murphy Room

Materials fee: $20 for a workbook

Deadline to order book: January 22, 2024

Wednesday Morning Prayer, Coffee and Conversation

This group continues to meet every Wednesday after the 9 a.m. Mass. The group originally began in the early 70's in the kitchen area but with more participants soon expanded to the Murphy Room in the lower church. We gather together as we have a common denominator; we care for each other and the wider church community. In addition to our regular prayer and discussion of "hot topics" of the day, we may help rectory staff, or Christmas Fair personnel in stuffing envelopes, collating paperwork, etc. Also, if there is a request to prepare some baked goods after a Sunday morning Mass such as a church picnic; ecumenical concert; or Religious Education class; we all pitch in to help. Sometimes there is even a need for cleaning the brass altar candlesticks! Most of all, we are members of St. Mary's parish family who gather together to share our faith. All are welcome to join us whenever the spirit moves you. No registration required.

Holy Souls in Purgatory Prayer Apostolate

It is a longstanding tradition in the Catholic Church to pray for the souls of the deceased. A group of the faithful meet each week to pray for the release of the Souls in Purgatory who can no longer help themselves. It is a magnificent spiritual work of mercy to pray for these souls.

Please consider joining us as we pray for our family, friends and those who are long forgotten. It may truly be the best hour you spend all week. Prayer booklets provided. We meet Fridays at 3pm.

The Fatima Cell Hour of Holiness

The Fatima Cell Hour of Holiness is an hourly meeting of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. The prayers include the Rosary, intercessory prayer and a spiritual reflection. It is in response to Our Lady of Fatima's request for prayer, penance, and sacrifice in a spirit of reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary and for the conversion of sinners. All are welcome. Also a second Cell meeting is held after the 9am Mass on Tuesdays.

We meet every Thursday 3:30-4:30pm

Holy Rosary Prayer Group

Join the Rosary Prayer Group Mondays through Saturdays at 8:25am.

St. Mary's Prayer Line

Join our members as we pray for those on our prayer line. Everything is done online. If you have a prayer request or are interested in joining our Prayer Line please email Laurie at lbubencik@stmarysfoxboro.org or call the Rectory.

Dear St. Mary
Parishioners,

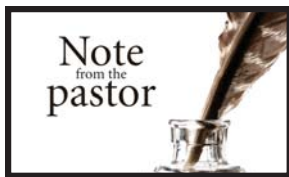

I can't believe that this is my third Christmas as Pastor here at St. Mary's Parish. Where did the time go? This year is a very special Christmas weekend. On Sunday, December 24 we will be celebrating together the Fourth Sunday of Advent when we will light the fourth candle on our Advent wreath. It is now fully alight with the warm glow of LOVE. We have this last day to prepare for the coming of the baby Jesus. Love itself comes to earth on Monday Christmas Day. Emmanuel (God with us) is born and God who is love dwells among us, giving us the ability to be love in the world.

On this feast of the Nativity of the Lord, we celebrate the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and our St. Mary Parish and all our families both near and far. Let us take some time this Christmas to reflect on the precious gifts that God has bestowed on each of us throughout our lives particularly our families. Jesus comes as an infant, placed in the care of a loving family. We are reminded at Christmas that our families are shrouded in the same holiness that Jesus' family is. We look to the Holy Family as our model on how to love each and all our family members through our struggles and celebrations. May God Bless you this Christmas and throughout the coming year.

I will see you at the back of the Church.

Merry Christmas!!

Father Kevin.

A Celebration of Convalidation (2/11/2024)

Married couples desiring holy matrimony in the Catholic Church are invited to convalidate their marriage on World Marriage Sunday, February 11, 2024 at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston at 3:00 PM with Bishop Mark O'Connell as the celebrant. A convalidation ceremony is an opportunity for couples married outside of the Church to enter into a marriage covenant in the Catholic tradition. For more information, email Emily_Elliott@rcab.org or visit our registration page at <https://bit.ly/Convalidation>

Mental Health Matters: A Workshop to Empower Parents—January 24, 2024 @ 7:00 pm - 8:15 pm Free

Join Dr. Mookie Manalili, a Catholic psychologist from Boston College together with retired psychologist Fr. Jim Ronan and mental health clinician, author, and parent Suzanne Muldoon for a panel discussion on how parents can best support and care for their children and themselves in the midst of mental health concerns. The panelists will address various diagnoses, recommendations, and how faith can play an integral role in healing. There will be opportunities for questions following the panel discussion.

This virtual workshop is complimentary. A Zoom link will be provided to registrants prior to the event.

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

Last summer, some friends took their kids to the shore for the day. When they arrived, it had started to rain and the clouds were ominous. They decided to get something to eat and wait and see what happened. Sure enough, after a couple of hours, the sun finally came out and they enjoyed the day. One of the younger kids said, "I am really glad we waited for a while."

Israel has waited for many years for God to fulfill His promises. At moments when Kings and people would get impatient, the prophets would remind them to wait, to anticipate the Lord, but not try to rush Him. Mary, too, has to trust in the word of the angel and wait for the birth of Jesus.

God works in His own way and in His own time.

Christmas is so close. Most of the preparations are probably complete, though there are always the last minute chores to do. Don't rush the season. Use every possible moment and opportunity to prepare. Read the Bible, pray with your family, talk about the meaning and celebration of Christmas, or do some good for others. These final hours can be the most fruitful of the whole season of Advent.

-Jim Gaffney

Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear
a son, and you shall name him Jesus.

He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.

Irenaeus, Third century

Saint John, the Apostle

The Call of the First Disciples

Matthew 4:18-22

As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him.

John and his brother, James, Galilean fishermen called the "sons of thunder," were chosen to be among the Twelve Apostles. John was with Jesus at the Transfiguration, in the Garden of Gethsemane, and on Calvary. It was to this "beloved disciple" that Jesus entrusted his mother's care. John evangelized in Ephesus (Turkey), was exiled to the island of Patmos, and according to tradition lived to be 100 years. John and his community of followers are credited with writing the fourth Gospel, three epistles, and the Book of Revelation.
