THE SACRAMENTS: ENCOUNTERS WITH CHRIST

The sacraments are sacred encounters with God, instituted by Christ, that nourish our faith and restore or strengthen our relationship with Him. Through these visible signs of grace, we experience His presence in profound ways. At Our Lady of the Gulf, we are blessed to celebrate all seven sacraments of the Catholic Church:

Baptism: The gateway to the Christian life, Baptism cleanses us from sin and welcomes us into God's family. A Baptismal Preparation Class is scheduled for Thursday, August 7 at 6:00 p.m. Contact Deacon Danny Rodgers to register: baptism@olgal.org.

Eucharist: The source and summit of our faith, where at every Mass, we receive the true Body and Blood of Christ. To prepare for First Holy Communion, contact Danielle Lee: CREd@olgal.org.

Reconciliation (Confession): A sacrament of healing, offering God's mercy and forgiveness. Confessions are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Friday 7:30 a.m., Wednesday 4:30 p.m., Saturday 4:00 p.m.

Confirmation: This sacrament strengthens us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and deepens our commitment to Christ. For youth (Grades 9–12), contact Phil Gazzo: teen@olgal.org. For adults, contact Mike O'Neil: ybcatholic@olgal.org.

Marriage: A sacred covenant between a man and a woman, mirroring Christ's love for His Church. For marriage preparation or information on getting married at OLG, visit: olgal.org/marriage.

Holy Orders: Through ordination, men are called to serve as deacons, priests, or bishops in the Church. Please continue to pray for vocations. If you think you might be called to Holy Orders, please reach out to Fr. Carucci as soon as possible.

Anointing of the Sick: A sacrament of healing and strength for those facing serious illness or advanced age. Anointing is available before or after Mass, or can be arranged at home or in the hospital. Contact our Caring Ministry Coordinator, Sara Pharmann: olgcares@olgal.org

If you or a loved one need a sacrament, please contact the appropriate coordinator listed above, reach out to the Parish Office at office@olgal.org, or call 251-968-7062. You can also visit our website for more information about each sacrament. We are here to walk with you on your journey of faith.

A NOTE ABOUT OUR SATURDAY EVENING MASS

For many years, we've lovingly referred to our Saturday 4:00 p.m. Mass as the "Vigil Mass." Like many parishes, this name has been used out of tradition and familiarity. However, beginning this month, we will begin referring to it as the "Anticipated Mass."

Why the change? While "Vigil Mass" is commonly used, the Church technically reserves that title for special liturgies with unique prayers and readings – such as the Easter Vigil. The regular Saturday evening Mass that fulfills our Sunday obligation is more accurately called an Anticipated Mass.

Please know: nothing about the Mass itself is changing – just the way we refer to it in our bulletin and communications. We're simply aligning our language more closely with the Church's liturgical terms, out of love for the beauty and clarity of our faith.

Thank you for embracing this small change as we continue to grow in understanding and faith together.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Join us for Lectio Divina every Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Conference Room. This one-hour gathering offers fellowship and meaningful discussion of the upcoming Sunday readings. For more information, please contact group member Hank Petersen at 219-873-5983 or hoosierhank33@gmail.com.

MASS AD ORIENTEM

Occasionally at Our Lady of the Gulf, we celebrate Mass Ad Orientem Latin for "toward the East." Rather than the priest "turning his back" to the people, this ancient posture reflects the deeper meaning of the liturgy: a procession into eternity, led by Christ through His priest, with the people journeying together as one.

Facing liturgical East – either the geographic direction or symbolically toward the altar and cross – reminds us that we're part of something cosmic and eternal. It shifts focus from the celebrant's personality to the mystery of the sacrifice taking place on the altar.

This posture, common throughout Church history, was never abolished by Vatican II. In fact, the Roman Missal still presumes it. While Mass versus populum (facing the people) is permitted, it can unintentionally emphasize the congregation itself, rather than opening our hearts to God who is "ahead and above."

In Ad Orientem, the priest calls the people to prayer, then leads them in offering it to God. He turns to proclaim the Word and give Communion, but he faces the Lord during the sacrifice.

Our hope is that this liturgical expression will draw all of us into a deeper reverence for the mystery of the Mass.

—Fr. Carucci

K-8 CATHOLIC RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Attention All Parish Families with Children of Any Age! Our Family of Faith program is now on summer break and will resume this fall! If you're new to the parish or looking for a deeper faith experience for your family, we invite you to join us when we begin again! Family of Faith has replaced "CCD" – but it's so much more! It's a vibrant community where parents and children learn together, celebrate together, and pray together, all with a shared mission: to live lives pleasing to the Lord and to spend eternity with Him in Heaven.

How It Works:

- Each month, Fr. Carucci presents to parents, followed by small-group discussions and activities to deepen faith, while children engage in Pray and Play with catechists.
- Weekly at-home sessions help parents and children continue growing in their faith together.
- Family of Faith is the primary preparation program for First Reconciliation and First Communion – children should begin no later than First Grade.

We Look Forward to Seeing You This Fall! Stay tuned for registration details coming soon. Scan the code or visit olgal.org/family-of-faith to learn more!
