Welcome Spring

Ladybugs are Catholic!

During the Middle Ages, crops were saved from a plague of pests after people prayed to the Virgin Mary. A swarm of red, black-spotted insects arrived and devoured the threat. They were named Our Lady's Bugs – now simply called ladybugs.

The common English name ladybug originated in Britain where the insects became known as "Our Lady's Bugs". Mary ("Our Lady") was often depicted wearing a red cloak in early art, and the seven black spots on the species Coccinella septempunctata (the most common in Europe) were said to represent her seven joys and seven sorrows.

Today we tend to think of blue as Mary's color, but the ancient Church regarded red as her color. Church artists and historians today regard her color as white with a blue trim or banding. Officially heraldry experts view blue with a white band or trim as the color representing St. Martha.

Jubilee Year Jan. 2026-27:

Jubilee in Celebration of Saint Francis

The 800th Anniversary of the Death of Saint Francis of Assisi

Pope Leo XIV has announced a special Jubilee Year of Saint Francis, celebrating the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi. This grace filled year is from Jan. 10, 2026 to Jan. 10, 2027. We are encouraged and invited to prayerfully reflect on the life and ministry of St. Francis and grow in holiness through prayer and works of charity.

In the Scriptures, a Jubilee marks a special time of the Lord's grace and mercy. And in the ancient tradition of the Church, Jubilee Years or Holy Years are designated to commemorate important moments in the history of salvation.

To enable more of the faithful to complete a sacred pilgrimage in honor of St. Francis, several sites have been designated as pilgrimage sites in each pastoral region of the archdiocese. In our San Gabriel Pastoral region, the sites are:

Mission San Gabriel Arcángel

428 S. Mission Dr., San Gabriel, CA 91776

San Francisco de Asís Church

4800 E. Olympic Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90022

Pilgrims are encouraged to spend time in prayer and meditation at a pilgrimage site. For this Jubilee in honor of St. Francis of Assisi it is most appropriate to reflect on the works of charity by Saint Francis, Saint Clare and all the Saints of the Franciscan Family.

IN 2026: KEEP THIS IN MIND

If you have food in your home, clothes on your body, a roof over your head and a place to sleep, you are richer than 75% of the people in the world.

If you have money to spend as you wish and the freedom to go places, you are among the 18% of the world's wealthiest people.

If you are alive today with more health than illness, you are more blessed than the million people who will not survive this week.

If you can read and understand this message, you are more fortunate than the 3 billion people in the world who cannot see or cannot read.

Immigration Church Teaches: CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH ON IMMIGRATION

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) is very clear in stating that immigration is a two-way street. The immigrant as well as the country must respect each other. The immigrant must respect the laws and culture of the nation and the people and their government must respect the immigrant.

This teaching is not an opinion of any Pope but rather the official teaching of the Church. It may be significant to note that Pope Benedict XVI as Cardinal Ratzinger was the principal architect of the Catechism; a well-known Church conservative.

These are two of the core principals on how a Catholic understands immigration. It is not a Republican or a Democrat issue, rather a human issue, one of two-way respect:

Welcoming the Foreigner

The Catechism states, “The more prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome the foreigner in search of the security and the means of livelihood which he cannot find in his country of origin. Public authorities should see to it that the natural right is respected that places a guest under the protection of those who receive him.” (CCC 2241)

Immigrants to Respect the Law

The Catechism states: “Political authorities, for the sake of the common good for which they are responsible, may make the exercise of the right to immigrate subject to various juridical conditions, especially with regard to the immigrants’ duties toward their country of adoption. Immigrants are obliged to respect with gratitude the material and spiritual heritage of the country that receives them, to obey its laws and to assist in carrying civic burdens.” (CCC 2241)

Finally in a multitude of speeches and preaching Popes: Saint John Paul II + Benedict XVI + Francis + Leo XIV have all reminded us that every life is created by God and should always be shown the respect and dignity due a gift from God. How we treat another is how we treat God.

Special liturgies to be held at Gardens of Healing for Child Abuse Prevention Month

The Office of Victims Assistance Ministry is collaborating with the parishes where the five Gardens of Healing are located, to hold special liturgies throughout April in recognition of Child Abuse Prevention Month. Dedicated to those harmed by sexual abuse, in their family, church or community, the Gardens of Healing are located at St. Camillus Pastoral Center in Boyle Heights, Our Lady of the Assumption Parish in Ventura, St. Francis de Sales Parish in Sherman Oaks, St. Bernadette Parish in Los Angeles, and Our Lady of Refuge in Long Beach. The gardens offer a sacred space for all those impacted by abuse to seek comfort and solace. For details about the special liturgies and more information about the Gardens of Healing, please visit lacatholics.org/healing-gardens.

Se celebrarán liturgias especiales en los Jardines de Sanación para el Mes de la Prevención del Abuso Infantil

La Oficina del Ministerio de Asistencia a las Víctimas está colaborando con las parroquias donde se encuentran los cinco Jardines de Sanación ubicados en el Centro Pastoral San Camilo en Boyle Heights, Parroquia Nuestra Señora de la Asunción en Ventura, Parroquia San Francisco de Sales en Sherman Oaks, Parroquia Santa Bernadette en Los Ángeles, y Parroquia San Pancracio en Lakewood. Los jardines ofrecen un espacio sagrado para que todos aquellos afectados por el abuso busquen consuelo. Para obtener más información sobre las liturgias especiales y los Jardines de Sanación, visite lacatholics.org/healing-gardens.

EL CATECISMO DE LA IGLESIA CATÓLICA NOS ENSEÑA SOBRE LA INMIGRACIÓN

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (CIC) es muy claro al afirmar que la inmigración es una vía de doble sentido. Tanto el inmigrante como el país deben respetarse mutuamente. El inmigrante debe respetar las leyes y la cultura de la nación, y el pueblo —junto con su gobierno— debe respetar al inmigrante.

Esta enseñanza no es la opinión de ningún Papa en particular, sino la enseñanza oficial de la Iglesia. Cabe destacar que el Papa Benedicto XVI —cuando era el Cardenal Ratzinger— fue el principal artífice del Catecismo; un conservador eclesiástico muy reconocido.

Estos son dos de los principios fundamentales sobre cómo un católico entiende la inmigración. No es una cuestión republicana ni demócrata, sino una cuestión humana; una cuestión de respeto mutuo:

Acoger al Extranjero

El Catecismo afirma: “Las naciones más prósperas tienen la obligación de acoger, en la medida de lo posible, al extranjero que busca seguridad y los medios de vida que no puede encontrar en su país de origen. Las autoridades públicas deben velar por que se respete el derecho natural que coloca al huésped bajo la protección de quienes lo reciben”. (CIC 2241)

Los Inmigrantes Deben Respetar la Ley

El Catecismo afirma: “Las autoridades políticas, en razón del bien común del que son responsables, pueden someter el ejercicio del derecho a la inmigración a diversas condiciones jurídicas, especialmente en lo que respecta a los deberes de los inmigrantes hacia su país de adopción. Los inmigrantes están obligados a respetar con gratitud el patrimonio material y espiritual del país que los acoge, a obedecer sus leyes y a contribuir a soportar las cargas cívicas”. (CIC 2241)

Finalmente, en una multitud de discursos y predicaciones, los Papas —San Juan Pablo II, Benedicto XVI, Francisco y León XIV— nos han recordado que toda vida es creada por Dios y que siempre se le debe mostrar el respeto y la dignidad propios de un don de Dios. La forma en que tratamos al prójimo es la forma en que tratamos a Dios.

SPECIAL MONDAY SCHEDULE:

5:30pm Mass CANCELLED One Day Only: Monday, May 4, 2026

We deeply regret the inconvenience it causes. We hope you will understand and forgive us.

On Monday, May 4th we are pleased and honored that we have many wonderful teens to confirm. We are delighted to welcome Bishop Albert Bahhuth for the celebration of Confirmation Mass that evening at 7:00pm. We expect a large crowd and that the church will be very full.

There is a great deal of work to be done to set up and prepare the church and sanctuary for this Mass, and there will be a lot of activity and noise. It takes several hours to set up and prepare every detail; thus it is unfortunately necessary to cancel the 5:30pm Mass on Monday, May 4, 2026.

Everything will return to normal the next day. This is a once a year cancellation of the evening Mass.

Año Jubilar: enero de 2026 – 2027

Jubileo en celebración de San Francisco

El 800^o Aniversario de la muerte de San Francisco de Asís

El Papa León XIV ha anunciado un Año Jubilar especial de San Francisco, conmemorando el 800^o aniversario de la muerte de San Francisco de Asís. Este año lleno de gracia abarca desde el 10 de enero de 2026 hasta el 10 de enero de 2027. Se nos anima e invita a reflexionar en oración sobre la vida y el ministerio de San Francisco, y a crecer en santidad a través de la oración y las obras de caridad.

En las Escrituras, un Jubileo marca un tiempo especial de la gracia y la misericordia del Señor. Y, según la antigua tradición de la Iglesia, los Años Jubilares o Años Santos se designan para conmemorar momentos importantes en la historia de la salvación.

Para permitir que un mayor número de fieles realice una peregrinación sagrada en honor a San Francisco, se han designado varios lugares como sitios de peregrinación en cada región pastoral de la arquidiócesis. En nuestra Región Pastoral de San Gabriel, los sitios son:

Misión de San Gabriel Arcángel
428 S. Mission Dr., San Gabriel, CA 91776

Iglesia de San Francisco de Asís
4800 E. Olympic Blvd., LA, CA 90022

Se exhorta a todos los peregrinos a dedicar tiempo a la oración y la meditación en el lugar de peregrinación. Para este Jubileo en honor a San Francisco de Asís, resulta sumamente apropiado reflexionar sobre las obras de caridad de San Francisco, Santa Clara y todos los santos de la Familia Franciscana.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.” (John 20:27)

In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I'd want to sarcastically murmur, “Well, good for you.” I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew.

Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide. I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: “I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?” My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through.

So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds. This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist.

Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.
