Respect Life Ministry:
" Among the vulnerable for who the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are the unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us....This defense of the unborn life is closely linked to the defense of each and every other human right. It involves the conviction that a human being is always sacred and inviolable, in any situation and at every stage of development. Human beings are ends in themselves and never a means of resolving other problems. Once this conviction disappears, so do solid and lasting foundations for the defense of human rights, which would always be subject to the passing whims of the powers that be." Pope Francis Evangelii gaudium n.213

Ministerio Respeto a La Vida:
"Entre los vulnerables por los que la Iglesia desea cuidar con particular amor y preocupación están los niños por nacer, los más indefensos e inocentes entre nosotros... Esta defensa de la vida por nacer está estrechamente ligada a la defensa de todos y cada uno de los demás derechos humanos. Implica la convicción de que un ser humano es siempre sagrado e inviolable, en cualquier situación y en cada etapa del desarrollo. Los seres humanos son fines en sí mismos y nunca un medio para resolver otros problemas. Una vez que esta convicción desaparece, también lo hacen bases sólidas y duraderas para la defensa de los derechos humanos, que siempre estarían sujetos a los caprichos pasajeros de los poderes fácticos". Papa Francisco Evangelii gaudium n.213

Faith Formation Corner:

In the Magnificat, Wednesday, the 12th, I had dog-eared a quote following the reading for the evening from 1 Peter 1:5 – “By the power of God you are safeguarded through faith!” This quote follows the reading from John 17:11b-12 in which Jesus prays for the apostles that he has been given to lead and teach, and who he must leave to the cruelty of the world. I find it interesting that the quote from 1 Peter followed, and yet I do not find it coincidental. The quote from 1 Peter 1:5 pretty much leaves it all out there. It is this scripture from 1 Peter 1:5 that truly can carry us; it is our faith in Christ Jesus that calls on the “power of God,” to safeguard us. This scripture hit me in the face and I believe Jesus was telling me something.

When I pray for whoever and whatever; I know that ultimately, I must “leave it all out there,” in the hands of God, at which point I must release total control to Him. If I can truly let go, then I must sit with the uncomfortable feeling of reality; it just is what it is. I don’t know about you, but this act of trust requires a desire to establish a good habit as opposed to a bad habit. I must fight the feeling (s) to take control of the outcome I wish for and at the same time, allow for the feeling (s) of hope to sink deep into my soul in order that faith somehow take root. This is what I believe Jesus models for us in the scripture of John 17:11b-12, when he prays for his apostles. He models for us what we must do, how we must entrust our prayer and the people or things we are praying for to God, through Jesus. And that’s it!! Deed done! Yet, in my experience of praying throughout my life, it has been the rote prayers that have been more automatic, more immediate to me when needed.

Sometimes, I like to do things with scripture such as place our St. Michael’s community of faith in the place of apostles. As believers, we have the ability to consider ourselves “his followers.” When I do such a thing, I visualize our Lord Jesus praying for all of us, interceding for us, keeping us close to him. I wonder, especially in our current times, how much our Lord must pray for us, continually “leaving it all out there” in God’s hands in order that we remain protected, guided, saved, and/or healed.

As a matter of fact, the only things I read in scripture, are the Lord’s plea for us to come closer to Him, to accept His love, His peace, His mercy, offering His wounds every moment of every day of all time since His passion, death, and resurrection. Think about it, he wanted to assure his disciples in every way possible. He taught them, he prayed with them, he ate with them, he modeled for them the “right way to live,” and finally, he prayed for them, and then placed them in the hands of Almighty God. He offered to the Father, ultimately, in every way, shape, and form, FAITH. And then, he set out more steps for us to follow in order that we keep close to our hearts the Faith that will save us.

There is a resoluteness to this attitude. It is this staunch belief in our Lord that will always “safeguard” us. Jesus Christ modeled his resoluteness to sacrifice himself for us; is it really that big of a sacrifice for us to resolutely place our faith in Him? I think not. I think, while this life is definitely not easy, nor should it be; I believe our choice to resolutely place our faith in Christ is the only answer for He is the truth and the way. So, let us make a true New Year’s resolution. Let us mindfully choose to turn toward Christ, no matter how difficult; let us “leave it all out there” in God’s hands, and then immerse ourselves in this truth: “By the power of God, you (we) are safeguarded by faith!” (1 Peter 1:5) Happy Resolution and Blessings, Roz

Forming the Faith by Kennedy:

For Msgr. Gus: How is the body of Christ in the piece of bread? (Submitted by Alexsandra in Mrs. Filas's class)

This is really a very hard question and not many young people would be able to have a full understanding. However, I would like it to be simple in answering your question. The church teaches us that the bread and wine that are offered, and upon the consecration when the priest says, on the bread, “This is my Body” & on the wine “This is my Blood” these become a true and real Body and Blood of our Lord. This process is called the Transubstantiation, the conversion of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of our Lord. Though we see it materially still as the piece of bread and wine, yet, only our faith can see that it is the Body and Blood of Jesus. Blessings!! Monsignor Gus

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time/ Tercer Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario

The U.S. bishops' pastoral on stewardship reinforces today's reading from 1 Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body’s health and well-being are the responsibility of the members the personal responsibility of each one of us. We all are stewards of the Church."
La carta pastoral de los obispos estadounidenses sore la Administración de los Bienes de Dios enfatiza la lectura de hoy de la 1a de Corintios: "Puesto que sus miembros individuales constituyen colectivamente el Cuerpo de Cristo, la salud y bienestar de ese cuerpo son la responsabilidad de sus miembros - la responsabilidad personal de cada uno de nosotros.

Gospel Reflection:

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

In the synagogue at Nazareth, Jesus reads aloud from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah and announces that this Scripture is now fulfilled.

Today's Gospel reading combines two separate passages taken from the Gospel of Luke. First we hear the opening verses where Luke establishes the purpose of his Gospel. His style is typical of polished Greek and Roman literature. In this passage, we learn that Luke may have written to a specific person, Theophilus; but the word Theophilus may also be a general reference, functioning as the phrase “Dear Reader” might in contemporary writing. In Greek, the word Theophilus translates as “lover of God.”

Today's Gospel reading then skips several chapters in which one would find the Infancy Narratives, Jesus' baptism by John, the temptations Jesus faced in the desert, and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. In chapter four of Luke's Gospel, we hear that Jesus is in his hometown of Nazareth, attending the synagogue on the Sabbath, which is said to be his custom. In this account, we find another important clue that Jesus lived as a faithful, observant Jew. We will continue to read from Luke's Gospel in sequence for the next two Sundays.

As Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel's prophetic tradition. This reading from Isaiah defines Jesus' ministry. We will find more evidence of this as we continue to read from Luke's Gospel throughout the year. Jesus' ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord.

Through this text from Isaiah, Jesus announces God's salvation. The “year acceptable to the Lord” is a reference to the Jewish tradition of Sabbath years and jubilee. The Sabbath year was observed every seventh year. It was a year of rest when land was left fallow and food stores were to be shared equally with all. A year of Jubilee was celebrated every fiftieth year, the conclusion of seven cycles of Sabbath years. It was a year of renewal in which debts were forgiven and slaves were freed.

This tradition of Jubilee is the framework for God's promise of salvation. And yet in Jesus, something new begins. Jesus not only announces God's salvation, he brings this salvation about in his person. Jesus is Yahweh's Anointed One, filled with the Spirit of God. The Kingdom of God is now at hand. It is made present in Jesus, in his life, death, and Resurrection. Jesus will send the Holy Spirit so that the Kingdom of God can be fulfilled.

The Holy Spirit is Jesus' gift to the Church. The Holy Spirit enables the Church to continue the mission of Jesus. When we do what Jesus did—bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, and freedom to the oppressed—we serve the Kingdom of God.

Family Connection

Jesus was the one sent by God to bring salvation to the world. Jesus announced that mission using the framework we hear in today's Gospel from the prophet Isaiah: glad tidings will be brought to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight for the blind, and freedom for the oppressed. Jesus inaugurates the Kingdom of God in his person—through his life, death, and Resurrection. We are charged with the task of continuing the mission that Jesus began. Jesus set the framework for all of us when he announced his ministry in today's Gospel. Jesus also gave us the helper we would need to enable us to participate in his mission. The Holy Spirit has been given to us so that we, the Church, might serve the Kingdom of God.

Gather with your family and suggest that they try to picture the vision that Jesus describes using the words of the prophet Isaiah as you read today's Gospel, Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21. Think about your neighborhood, your community. What are the situations and who are the people who most need to see this vision fulfilled? What steps would be necessary to make the vision a reality for them? Make a family commitment to pray for the Kingdom of God and to take a particular action that will address a need you see in your community. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you by praying the Prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Almighty and Eternal God, You are the everlasting health of those who believe in You. Hear us for Your sick servants for whom we implore the aid of Your tender mercy, that being restored to bodily health, they may give thanks to You in Your Church. Through Christ our Lord.

Dios Todopoderoso y Eterno, Tú eres la salud eterna de aquellos que creen en Ti. Escúchanos por Tus siervos enfermos por quienes imploramos la ayuda de Tu tierna misericordia, para que siendo restaurados a la salud corporal, puedan darte gracias en Tu Iglesia. Por Cristo nuestro Señor.
