The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

GOSPEL MEDITATION - Luke 9:11-17

A Catholic friend of mine occasionally says, "The Eucharist is not a noun. It's a verb." In so saying, he is making the point that the Eucharist isn't simply Jesus' bodily presence given to us in holy Communion. It also manifests the dynamic pattern by which Christ actively loves and saves us. He teaches us to cooperate with that pattern. This Eucharist actually embodies four verbs: Jesus takes, blesses, breaks, and gives. Let's consider each one.

He takes: Do we acknowledge that we are totally in God's hands? Do we receive everything in our lives as a gift, and act responsibly with it?

He blesses: Do we actively reflect that Jesus makes us holy in our baptism? Do we embrace our bodies and souls as temples of God, worthy of love, peace, and joy?

He breaks: Do we run from failure and disappointment, from getting old or being ignored? Are we too worried about getting hurt or sick? Do we embrace our sufferings with confidence?

He gives: Are we willing to make our lives a gift for others? Are we confident that we will always have enough love to give to others, that God will always provide enough for us? Do we rejoice in giving away what we have to others, expecting nothing in return? This is the dynamic life the Eucharist empowers us to live.

Dear Father Arnoult,

The recent fires in Los Angeles have profoundly affected our schools, parishes, and so many individuals and families in our community. In these challenging times, our faith calls us to come together in solidarity to provide hope and healing for those who are struggling.

We are grateful to you and your parish community for answering that call. On behalf of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and all those who need our help, thank you for your generous gift of $7,029.00 in support of the Wildfire Victims Emergency Relief Fund.

Your thoughtful donation will directly assist the individuals and families in our community who need help to recover and rebuild by providing them with emergency financial assistance.

We are blessed by your commitment to offering light and hope for our brothers and sisters in need. May our lives always reflect the generosity and love of our Lord Jesus Christ.

May Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of Jesus and Mother of all the peoples, keep us close to her Son.
