GOSPEL MEDITATION - Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

*First Friday
 Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament*

Dear Parishioners,
 As most of you know, like many Catholic Churches, we here at St. Bart's have the tradition of offering Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every First Friday, at the conclusion of our 8:00 AM Mass.

Beginning Friday, May 3rd (First Friday), we plan to expand the hours of Exposition, beginning at approximately 8:30 AM and concluding at 12:00 Noon. Exposition will take place in the Chapel and all are invited to partake, spending some time in the presence of the Lord. It is an occasion to simply meditate, pray, and contemplate in sacred silence.

Please consider joining us for a bit of prayerful reflection each First Friday morning. Treat yourself to this opportunity for you and the Lord to quietly visit and become better acquainted, in an otherwise busy and noisy world. – Fr. Paul

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS
Hope & Healing: Raising Mental Health Awareness and Cultivating the Healing Power of Hope
JULY 27, 2025 | 2pm to 5pm | Saint Augustine Parish Hall

According to CDC, Mental Health is a state of well-being that enables us to cope with the stresses of life, realize our abilities, learn well and work well, and contribute to our community. Mental health is important at every stage of life, from childhood and adolescence through adulthood and aging. Hope and healing are essential components of recovery from mental health challenges. Fostering hope, through supportive environments and positive self-care practices, can significantly improve mental well-being and promote healing.

As a faith community, Saint Augustine parish is helping raise awareness and helping change the conversation around mental health. Join us for a FREE workshop to learn more about:

- Mental health challenges and ways for cultivating hope in daily life
- Recognize the signs and symptoms of depression, anxiety, and dementia, its treatments and when to seek professional help
- Caring for loved ones with dementia and their caregivers
- Creating a community of hope (community resources)
