The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

GOSPEL MEDITATION: John 2:13-22

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

To those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:16-17

HOLIDAY WREATH SALE FUNDRAISER
AT ALL MASSES
SUNDAY NOVEMBER 23RD
SUNDAY NOVEMBER 30TH

San Mateo's Troop 42 is selling wreaths to support their many programs throughout the year which include camping, hiking, and community-based activities. This is their only fundraiser for the entire scouting year.

Each wreath sells for $39 and has an aromatic combination of noble fir, berried juniper, and incense cedar. Touches of color are provided by red faux holly berries. A red velvet water repellent bow is also included for easy attaching, and is delivered in it's own plastic bag.

If you would like to support our Troop, please contact:

Special Thanks to the St. Bart's Vietnamese Community

A sincere and heartfelt THANK YOU to our Parish Vietnamese Community for your outstanding generosity, especially during the month of October. This year's October Marian Altar and the support for our annual Living Rosary were both magnificent testimonies of devotion to the Blessed Mother. Each Sunday throughout the year, our church flowers are lovingly refreshed with your tender care and artistic talent.

Thank you for so beautifully enhancing our church environment. Your special ministry is a powerful model of faithful service and genuine blessing to our parish home of St. Bartholomew Church.
God bless you!

Enjoy an extraordinary opportunity to meet
