"....Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.' When they brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him." Luke 5:10-11

Stewards are, first and foremost, disciples of Jesus. A life of stewardship has two components. First, we are called to follow Christ. Second, we are called to spread the good news of the Gospel.

Breaking Open God's Word: The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our presence here today puts us in the place of the crowds on the shore of Lake Gennesaret (the Sea of Galilee). We are in the presence of God, listening to God's word, attuned to what it can teach us. But Jesus calls us to more than wading in the shallow shoreline. He calls us to deep water as well, to the depths of our faith, to the depths of our being. It can be as scary as the deep end of a pool when you are learning to swim. But we have Jesus' words to assure us: "Do not be afraid" (Luke 5:10). Even far from shore, let us respond as Isaiah did: "Here I am!" (Isaiah 6:8).
